What SLAB Does

SLAB offers ideas to the Dean on topics of mutual interest.

One key concept to help incorporate freshman into the business college was the “cohort” block schedule idea. The first cohort group was in fall 2007 and continues each fall.

Who SLAB IS

Who are the registered student organizations in the Haworth College Of Business? Below is the list for Spring 2010 semester.

- Ad Club
- Alpha Kappa Psi
- American Marketing Association
- APICS
- Beta Alpha Psi
- Business Technology Network
- Delta Sigma Pi
- Financial Management Association
- Food Marketing Association
- Global Business Student Association
- Management Student Organization
- Phi Chi Theta
- Sales & Business Marketing Association
- Sigma Phi Omega
- Society for Excellence in Human Resources

SLAB meets monthly with the Dean of HCoB

SLAB was originally DSAC (Dean’s Student Advisory Council)

Once a month the Dean of the college meets with student representatives from each registered student organization to discuss college happenings. Students can discuss their relevant issues such as advertising events, recruitment, etc. Each meeting has an agenda and students offer ideas and input on the various projects being developed. Students volunteer for action teams and report back on the progress of their groups.

Additionally, SLAB members help in a variety of ways

SLAB members are ambassadors for the college who provide input and feedback on many college projects and activities.

- Hosting events such as Distinguished Speakers Series, Career Day, Practice Interview Day, Career Olympics, Ford Field Football game, etc.
- Giving feedback on GOWMU New Student Tab
- Offering input on redesign of the Cafe, student offices & lobby area, and Advising Office.

Today’s SLAB members are tomorrow’s business leaders!

Mission: SLAB is an organization of student leaders assembled to enhance and further develop the value of a business degree from WMU’s HCoB

Vision: To be recognized as the ideal leadership organization that exemplifies the values and qualities that lead both the individual and the college toward success.

Future goals are to work with student leadership groups at other universities on mutually beneficial projects.

Newest Project is Senior Send Off & SLC

SLAB members are interested in helping to enrich the experience of all business students and now want to send seniors off in style. The event called Senior Send Off hosts a program called “Money, Law & Life” and is presented each semester.

Another new initiative is to introduce the idea of students giving back to WMU and HCoB through a Senior Gift. This helps to both increase exposure for WMU on the national scene and monies for the individual departments and college.

SLAB members have developed a set of guidelines for business student behavior

As business students we will strive to follow these guidelines for PROFESSIONALISM in Haworth College of Business

- Work together to maintain a culture of individual INTEGRITY
- Treat each other and everyone with RESPECT and DISGNTY
- Contribute estimates to our own EDUCATION and the group effort to learn
- Have a PROFESSIONAL ATTITUDE inside and outside the classroom
- MAINTAIN the POSITIVE REPUTATION of the Haworth College of Business
