TO THEE, O PLOT UPON THE EARTH THE PLOT THAT CLAIMS US BY OUR BIRTH but who labors, country, you or we?
and should YOU not then sing to me?

sing a song of freedom of life liberty and the various pursuits.
or better yet tell a story: the times of the tom tom paine, jefferson, in modern dress . . .

without a lid what can it hold?
this pot that harbors fool's gold?
it holds the thoughts of time gone by holds them, for the men who die

we didn’t worry, or we did,
about the pot without a lid or what it held, or what’s the use of living living’s sad abuse?

but did we worry, did we not,
there still remains : the lidless pot

Frank's a man Who Plods
Along
Body, mind opposed.
One near sleeping seems
While other
Laughs!
Not loud;
With crinkle-thinking eyes.
