3-22-2012

2011-12 Series - Sonya Bernard-Hollins

University Center for the Humanities

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholarworks.wmich.edu/humanities_events

Part of the Arts and Humanities Commons

WMU ScholarWorks Citation
http://scholarworks.wmich.edu/humanities_events/19

This Poster is brought to you for free and open access by the University Center for the Humanities at ScholarWorks at WMU. It has been accepted for inclusion in University Center for the Humanities Events by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at WMU. For more information, please contact maira.bundza@wmich.edu.
Ms. Bernard-Hollins will talk about her search for information on African American graduates of WMU and how she discovered Merze Tate, a 1927 graduate of WMU and donor to the University. Her original sources research include archives in public and university libraries, private collections, media outlets and oral histories.

Merze Tate Exhibit
March 1-30, 2012  Humanities Center

The Merze Tate exhibit consists of photographs, letters, and tickets that document her travels and accomplishments. MP3 players will be available with narration about Tate’s life.

Sonya Bernard-Hollins, a graduate of WMU, is a journalist and freelance writer for local, state and national newspapers and magazines such as Black Enterprise.