MEDIEVAL ORIGINALITY

A CONFERENCE ON MEDIEVAL STUDIES

Western Michigan University

Friday
March 30, 1962

University Center

Sponsored by
The Medieval Studies Program
of
Western Michigan University

in cooperation with
Division of Field Services
The Institute of Regional Studies
The Graduate School
Western Michigan University
Kalamazoo, Michigan
PROGRAM

9:30-10:00
University Center
Registration and Coffee

10:00 10:45
Ballroom
General Address: The Nature and Value of Medieval Studies
The Rev. L. K. Shook, C.S.B., President, The Pontifical Institute of Medieval Studies, Toronto, Canada

11:00-12:15
Section A
Room 215-216
Medieval Contributions to the Theory of Knowledge
Otto Grundler, chairman, Department of Philosophy and Religion, Western Michigan University
Edward B. Costello, guest lecturer, Department of Philosophy, University of Missouri
William Emblom, Department of Philosophy and Religion, Western Michigan University
Thomas Lawson, Department of Philosophy and Religion, Western Michigan University

11:00-12:15
Section B
Room 211
Medieval Art: From Romanesque to Gothic
Robert Friedmann, chairman, Emeritus, History Department, Western Michigan University

11:00-12:15
Section C
Room 212
The Production of the Medieval Play
John McNally, chairman, English Department, Western Michigan University
Arnold Williams, guest lecturer, English Department, Michigan State University
John F. Mahoney, English Department, University of Detroit
11:00-12:15 Section D Rooms 105, 106, 107

Medieval Latin: Fusion of the Classic Form With the Medieval Style

Elizabeth Giedeman, chairman, Department of Language, Western Michigan University
Bruno Meinecke, Emeritus, Department of Latin, University of Michigan
Eunice E. Kraft, Department of Language, Western Michigan University

12:30-1:30 Cafeteria, University Center
Informal Luncheon

2:00-3:15 Section A Rooms 215, 216
Continuation of the morning session

2:00-3:15 Section B Room 211
Continuation of the morning session

2:00-3:15 Section E Room 212

The Nature of the Middle Ages: A Problem for Historians

George T. Beech, chairman, History Department, Western Michigan University
John Sommerfeldt, History Department, Western Michigan University
Ernst Breisach, History Department, Western Michigan University
Walter J. Brunhumer, History Department, Western Michigan University

2:00-3:15 Section F Room 213 or Records Room

Medieval Music: The Secular Side

Duane B. Starcher, chairman, Basic Studies Television, Western Michigan University
4:00-6:00 Capitol Theater

Film Program: “The Seventh Seal”

6:30- Rooms 105, 106, 107
Dinner

7:30 Ballroom

Address: The Notion of the Middle Age

The Rev. L. K. Shook, C.S.B., President, The Pontifical Institute of Medieval Studies, Toronto, Canada

The Medieval Studies Program of Western Michigan University provides both undergraduate and graduate study. For further information about the program write:

John R. Sommerfeldt, chairman
The Medieval Studies Program
Western Michigan University
Kalamazoo, Michigan