What is a Rubric?

1. “An uneasy balance between generality and specificity”.
2. “One of the most carefully written documents in history”.
3. “The final scorecard”.
4. “A living document that must change with the times”.
5. “The finest description of what we think is important for our students, right now, in the service of their learning”.
6. “What we promise to teach”.