Graduate instruction has been given at Western Michigan College of Education since February, 1939, under a cooperative arrangement with the University of Michigan. The Board of Regents of the University of Michigan at their meeting in July, 1938, passed a resolution approving a formal request from the State Board of Education that the University of Michigan cooperate with the three Michigan Teachers Colleges (as they were known at that time) and Michigan State Normal College in planning a program of graduate instruction. According to this action, a Graduate Division, organized and administered as an extra-mural unit of the Horace H. Rackham School of Graduate Studies, was set up at each of the four colleges.

On October 12, 1951, the State Board of Education approved the proposal of the Presidents of the Colleges of Education to set up independent graduate divisions in each of the four colleges to offer graduate curricula in all areas involved in the preparation of teachers, administrators and supervisors for the public schools of Michigan as soon as each college felt that it was desirable and possible to do so. The State Board authorized the Colleges of Education to grant the master's degree with specialization in Education to those completing such a program under the rules, regulations and procedures adopted by each institution and approved by the State Board of Education. Western Michigan College of Education in October, 1951, decided to inaugurate its own graduate program at the beginning of the fall semester of 1952 as permitted by this State Board action.

The major purposes of the graduate program at Western Michigan College of Education are:

1. to increase the effectiveness of elementary and secondary school teachers in present and future positions.
2. to prepare teachers for supervisory, administrative, and guidance positions.
3. to prepare curriculum coordinators, school librarians, and teachers of special education.
4. to improve abilities of school people in human relations with pupils, teachers, supervisors, administrators, and the general public.
5. to develop ability of school people to evaluate and use results of research in practical situations.

Administration

The Graduate Division is administered by a Director and a Graduate Council of nine members, each appointed for a term of three years with the Director acting as Chairman and the President of the College as a member ex-officio.

Admission to Enroll

Admission to enroll in graduate courses will be granted to those students who present evidence that they have received the bachelor's degree from an accredited college whose requirements for the degree are on as high a scholastic level as those maintained by Western Michigan College of Education.

A graduate from a non-accredited college may be admitted to take up to six hours of graduate work with a review of his status after he has taken these six hours. Any student from Western Michigan College of Education who is within six hours of receiving his bachelor’s degree may be admitted to enroll in up to six hours of graduate credit during the last semester before receiving his degree.

Admission to Candidacy for the Master’s Degree

A student may apply for admission to candidacy for the degree only after the completion of at least ten semester hours of graduate work with an average grade of B.

At the time he applies for candidacy he must present references testifying to his success in teaching or promise of success.

A candidate must present at least fifteen hours of undergraduate credit in education courses or the equivalent.

A candidate must show evidence of personal qualities essential to the teaching profession and an ability to use the English language effectively before being admitted.

At the time of his application for candidacy, a candidate must submit a program of study approved by his curriculum adviser.

Students who have been admitted to the Horace H. Rackham School of Graduate Studies under the cooperative plan before the fall semester of 1952 shall be automatically admitted to candidacy for the master’s degree.

Transfer Credit

After the student has been admitted to candidacy for the degree, a total of six hours of satisfactory work taken at other approved institutions, for which such institutions grant graduate credit, may be transferred to a master’s degree program in the Graduate Division of Western Michigan College of Education, provided such courses are approved by the Curriculum Adviser as a part of the student’s program of studies. The student must ask that a transcript of such credits be sent by the institution to the Director of the Graduate Division and then request that the Graduate Division apply the credit to the degree.

Extension Credit

A total of twelve hours of satisfactory graduate work taken through the Extension Division of Western Michigan College of Education may be counted toward the requirements for a degree provided such courses are approved by the student’s Curriculum Adviser as a part of the student’s program of studies.

Requirements for the Degree

The Graduate Division will require a minimum of thirty hours of graduate work with an average grade of B for a master’s degree.
with a thesis being optional and not to count for more than six hours in the thirty-hour program. The degree granted will be designed as the "Master of Arts."

All students will be required to complete one of the outlined curricula which have been set up as leading to the degree. The details of these curricula have been set up in terms of the vocational objectives of those preparing for types of educational service such as: Elementary Teaching; Elementary Administration and Supervision; Teaching in the Fields of Art, Business Education, Distributive Education, Home Economics, Industrial Education, Literature and Language, Music, Occupational Therapy, Physical Education, Science and Mathematics, Social Science, and Speech Education; Guidance; Special Education; School Librarianship; Curriculum Development and Coordination; Secondary Administration and Supervision; and General Administration and Supervision.

At least fifteen hours must be earned in courses restricted to graduate students.

A minimum of eighteen hours must be taken in on-campus resident credit from the Graduate Division, leaving twelve hours that may be taken through (1) off-campus courses offered by the Western Michigan Extension Division or (2) up to six hours of advanced credit transferred from another approved institution.

All credits earned by the student before September, 1952, under the cooperative arrangements with the University of Michigan will be transferred automatically to Western Michigan College of Education, but the student must assume the responsibility of submitting transcripts of such work not taken through the Graduate Division of Western Michigan College of Education. Students who have started a program of work under the cooperative plan before September, 1952, may, if they desire, complete the required thirty hours for the degree by taking courses recommended under the University sequences.

No student will be granted the degree unless he has been enrolled for at least two semester hours of credit in the Graduate Division of Western Michigan College of Education after September, 1952.

Diploma Application

Before the degree is awarded, the student must fill out the diploma application blank in the Graduate Office. This should be done early in the semester in which the student is reasonably certain of completing all requirements of the degree.

Registration

Registration for the summer session of the Graduate Division will be on Saturday, June 20, from 8 to 12 A.M., and from 1 to 4 P.M., and Monday, June 22, from 8 to 12 A.M., and from 1 to 4 P.M.

Registration for the first semester of the Graduate Division will be on Saturday, September 19, from 8 to 12 A.M., and from 1 to 4 P.M. Registration for the second semester will be on Saturday, February 6, at the same hours. Registration will take place in the Graduate Division Offices in the Administration Building, under the direction of the Registrar.

Classes for the summer session will begin on Tuesday, June 23, and will continue through Friday, July 31.

Saturday classes for the first semester will begin on Saturday, September 26, and will continue through Saturday, January 30. Saturday classes for the second semester will begin on Saturday, February 13, and continue through Saturday, June 5. Weekday evening classes in both semesters will meet during the week preceding the Saturday classes. Most classes during the school year meet two class hours each Saturday throughout the semester. The student should consult the Schedule of Classes for instructors, hours, and places of meeting. Prerequisites for a course should be carefully determined by the student before enrolling in a course. Generally speaking, prerequisites for courses are, in addition to graduation from a four-year curriculum in an accepted college or university, one year of college work in the field of the subject elected. In some cases, courses may require specific prerequisites or an amount of prerequisite credit in excess of the general requirement.

All enrollments should be completed by the end of the first complete week of a semester. Any necessary changes in enrollment must have been made by the end of the second complete week of a semester. These changes must be made with the instructor's approval. Permission to drop courses may be given up to the end of the sixth week of the semester or the third week of the summer session. Permission to drop a course or to change enrollment must be secured from the Director of the Graduate Division.

Living Expenses

All questions regarding room, board, and other living expenses should be addressed to the Dean of Men or Dean of Women, Western Michigan College of Education, Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Graduate students are subject to the rules of the Dean of Men and the Dean of Women and to other general regulations of this institution.

Tuition and Fees

Graduate students will be charged fees as follows:

These local fees are collected each semester for the general maintenance of the Graduate Division Office and the graduate student's share of the support of such activities as athletics, health service, student union, library, departmental laboratories, graduation, etc.

Double Registration

The regulation covering any student taking both graduate and undergraduate work will be:

A student taking more graduate hours than undergraduate hours will pay the fees during graduate enrollment for the total number of hours taken in both graduate and undergraduate work. In this instance, the undergraduate enrollment card will be stamped "double enrollment."

A student taking more undergraduate hours than graduate hours will pay the fees during undergraduate enrollment for the total number of hours taken in both undergraduate and graduate work. The graduate card will be stamped "double enrollment."

In case the student is taking an equal number of hours in both graduate and undergraduate work, he will pay whichever fee is higher for the total number of hours taken.

Refunds

1. Refunds are not automatic upon withdrawal from graduate classes but must be applied for at the Graduate Office within the prescribed time limits.

2. A 90% refund will be granted to a student who withdraws not more than two weeks after the beginning of the semester during the school year or one week after the beginning of the summer session.

3. A 50% refund will be granted to a student who withdraws more than two weeks and not later than four weeks after the beginning of the semester during the school year. No refunds will be granted after the first week of the summer session.

4. A 40% refund will be granted to a student who withdraws more than four weeks and not later than eight weeks after the beginning of the semester during the school year.

5. No refunds will be made for withdrawals after the eighth week of a semester.

Marking System

Each course receives one grade which combines the results of class work, term papers, tests and examinations. Grades are indicated by letters to which plus or minus may be added at the instructor's discretion.

Placement Service Open to Graduate Students

Many desirable teaching, supervisory, and administrative positions are open each year to candidates in the teaching profession who have had successful experience and advanced scholastic training. The salaries being offered such candidates are excellent.

Graduate students who desire to be eligible for consideration when these positions are available should be properly registered for placement. Any graduate student formerly registered with the Office of Placement and Alumni Relations may keep his permanent placement file active by having current recommendations from employers and professors added to it from time to time. Enrollment in the Graduate Division entitles any student to free placement service whether or not his undergraduate work was taken at Western Michigan College.

Complete information and registration materials may be secured in the Office of Placement and Alumni Relations, Room 231, Administration Building. A cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested.
DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

520 Curriculum Building in Physical Education

A course in the development of a practical progressive physical education program for the elementary schools and for secondary school girls. A review of characteristics of children, especially those concerned with physical education, will be used as a basis for a thorough analysis of the development of the fundamental and basic skills at the various age levels.

First semester. Miss Bottje. Two semester hours.

530 The Dance in Education

The study of dance—its forms, history and relationship to the other arts. The place in education, the development of rhythmic expression and its relation to other subjects through the child's school life. The course consists of lectures, techniques, composition and performance.

First semester. Mrs. Brown. Two semester hours.
540 Corrective Therapy and Rehabilitation
A study of the physically handicapped child and of the contribution which the physical education program can make in his education. After a review of kinesiology and the principles of good body mechanics, a study will be made of muscular re-education for cases of birth injury, poliomyelitis, cerebral palsy and other handicapping deviations. Prerequisite: Applied Anatomy and Individual Gymnastics.
Not offered 1953-54. Two semester hours.

550 Problems and Trends in Physical Education
Deals with modern trends and with instructional and supervisory problems involved in conducting an effective program of physical education. Critical appraisal of present practices.
Summer session and second semester. Miss Worner. Two semester hours.

FOR GRADUATES AND UPPERCLASSMEN

444 Methods in Physical Education
Fundamental principles underlying the selection of subject matter and the technique of teaching gymnastics, games, and rhythmic work for elementary and high-school pupils. Opportunity for observation and making of lesson plans. Prerequisite: Introduction to Physical Education 170.
First semester. Miss Bottje. Three semester hours.

445 Administration and Organization of Physical Education
This course presents the problems that arise in the everyday experience of the instructor. Among the topics considered are administration, of activities, physical examinations, excuses, special cases, records, schedules, and relations with other services in the school. Prerequisite: Methods in Physical Education 444.
Second semester. Miss Crane. Two semester hours.

473 Individual Gymnastics
The study of preventive as well as prescribed exercises for remedial defects in case of curvature and physical abnormalities. Practice with patients will be given. Prerequisite: Anatomy 211A, Physiology 211B, Applied Anatomy 273.
Second semester. Miss Hussey. Three semester hours.

PHYSICS
OPEN TO GRADUATES

501E Modern Advances in Physical Science
Some modern developments in the field of chemistry and physics will be treated. Such topics as additions to the periodic table, radioactive isotopes, new organic compounds, ultrasonics, semi-conductors and transistors, and nuclear energy will be considered. Lectures, demonstrations, readings. Prerequisite: 16 semester hours in physics and/or chemistry.

Summer session. Mr. Marburger. Two semester hours.

FOR GRADUATES AND UPPERCLASSMEN

440 Atomic Physics

A study is made of the electron, the photoelectric effort, thermionic emission, the physics of X-rays, quantum theory, devices for accelerating nuclear particles, isotopes, spectra, and atomic structure. Prerequisite: Electricity and Light 103B, Calculus 205A, B.

Not offered 1953-54. Three semester hours.

441 Nuclear Physics

Designed to follow Atomic Physics 440. It includes natural and artificial radioactive transformations, the experimental methods of nuclear physics, properties of neutrons, binding energy, nuclear reactions, nuclear structure, fission, and cosmic rays. Prerequisite: Atomic Physics 440.

Not offered 1953-54. Three semester hours.

442 Foundations of Modern Physical Theory

A course designed to inspect the important theories of physics in their historical setting. Emphasis is placed on Newtonian mechanics, wave theory of Maxwell, quantum theory, special theory of relativity, the modern theories of the atomic nucleus. The relationship between the experiment and the theory is scrutinized in each case and the connection with the general methods of science is shown. Modern engineering developments resulting from the new theories will be discussed. Prerequisite: General College Physics.

Second semester. Dr. Bradley. Two semester hours.

443 Theoretical Physics

A course designed to present the fundamental structure of physics in precise mathematical terms. The topics will include mechanics from a vector point of view, flow of fluids, electric and magnetic fields. Prerequisites: Electricity and Light 103B, Calculus 205B.

First semester. Dr. Bradley. Three semester hours.

462 Electrical Measurements

This course deals with the theory and use of instruments to measure electrical and magnetic quantities. Both AC and DC bridge methods are included. Prerequisites: Electricity and Light 103B and Calculus 205A, B.

Second semester. Mr. Marburger. Three semester hours.
POLITICAL SCIENCE
OPEN TO GRADUATES

530 National Government
This course considers the major aspects of the national government of the United States with emphasis upon constitutional questions and intergovernmental relations; executive, legislative and judicial branches; problems of citizenship and civil liberties; political parties and elections; and basic problems of public administration and finance.
First semester. Dr. Clark. Two semester hours.

539 Problems of Municipal Government
Deals with problems resulting from the growth of cities; auxiliary departments such as personnel, finance, planning, and law; and line departments including police, fire, public works and utilities, public health, parks and recreation. Prerequisite: Political Science 230B or equivalent.
Not offered 1953-54. Two semester hours.

FOR GRADUATES AND UPPERCLASSMEN

420 Principles of Government
This course studies that area of Political Science which lies between practical descriptions of political systems and advanced philosophic speculation. It considers, for example, such problems as the influence of geography, technology, education and tradition on political systems.
Not offered 1953-54. Two semester hours.

437A Problems of American Government
An advanced study of the problems which are related to the various branches of our national government. Executive-legislative relationships and administrative organization are among topics to be considered.
Not offered 1953-54. Two semester hours.

437B Problems of American Government
A study of some of the more important politico-economic and politico-social problems, recent and pending in Congress, in state legislatures, and the world. This course is designed as a continuation of 437A but may be taken separately.
Not offered 1953-54. Two semester hours.

439 Municipal Government and Administration
Structural, political and legal questions concerning the development and organization of cities are discussed. Emphasis is placed on city planning, Police, social welfare, public improvements, finance and other activities. Prerequisite: Political Science 230B or the equivalent.
Not offered 1953-54. Two semester hours.

451 British Government and Politics
The organization and operation of the government of Great Britain and a survey of contemporary British political issues and problems.
Prerequisite: Political Science 230A or equivalent.
First semester. Dr. Weber. Two semester hours.

452 Government and Problems of the Far East
This course includes a study of the governmental organization and an analysis of some current problems of organization and administration of Japan, India, the Philippines, and other countries of the Far East. Special attention will be given to such problems as the growth of communism, land reform, industrialization efforts, and the development of democratic philosophy.
Summer session and second semester. Dr. Stine. Two semester hours.

453 Governments of the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe
The government and politics of the U.S.S.R. and a survey of the new regimes established in Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Romania and Yugoslavia. Prerequisite: Modern European History or equivalent.
Second semester. Dr. Weber. Two semester hours.

465 Foreign Policy of the United States
An analysis of foreign problems faced by the United States. Special emphasis on relations between the United States and the major power areas of the world. Prerequisite: Political Science 230A, American history or equivalent.
First semester. Dr. Woods. Two semester hours.

466 Conduct of American Foreign Relations
A study of the agencies in the national government responsible for formation and execution of American foreign policy. Particular attention will be paid to these roles in current policy. (This course is designed as a continuation of Political Science 465 but may be taken separately.) Prerequisite: Political Science 230A, American history or equivalent.
Second semester. Dr. Woods. Two semester hours.

471 Problems of Public Administration
The course will include an analysis of some typical problems of administration at all three levels of government. An attempt will be made to develop some principles which will aid the administrator in his consideration of such matters as organization and reorganization of agencies of government personnel and financial administration, techniques or control within the unit and public relations. Individual problems will be assigned to the level of government in which each is particularly interested.
Summer session and second semester. Dr. Stine. Two semester hours.

493 American Political Thought
A survey of the leading American contributions to our political thought, grouped around each of several great eras and issues of our national development. Lectures, textbook, and course material will be used.

Not offered 1953-54. Two semester hours.

PSYCHOLOGY

FOR GRADUATES AND UPPERCLASSMEN

402 Laboratory in Psychological Testing
The course will consider selecting, administration and interpretation of educational, personality and aptitude tests. A competency in interviewing techniques will be developed.
Not offered 1953-54. Three semester hours.

404 Occupational Analysis and Classification
Sources of occupational information; procedures and techniques of job analysis and job classification; applications in employment procedures, placement, and vocational counseling.
Not offered 1953-54. Two semester hours.

405 The Deviant Individual
Study of the gifted, mentally defective, neurotic, delinquent and criminal, and psychotic; with particular attention to factors in development and to distinctive manifestations of these deviations from the normal.
First semester. Dr. Kuffel. Two semester hours.

406 Vocational Psychology
The problems of vocational choice and of occupational group-differences. Lectures, reading, and an occasional laboratory period substituted for a class hour.
Summer session and first semester. Dr. Kuffel. Two semester hours.

407 Mental Testing
The purpose of this course is to provide training in the administration, scoring and interpretation of various mental tests. This course supplements 402 in giving the student practice in use of diagnostic tests.
Summer session. Miss McGinnis. Two semester hours.

408 Survey of Personnel Psychology
An introduction to the psychological problems of personnel administration and to the methods of personnel psychology. Lectures, discussions and an occasional laboratory period.
Summer session and second semester. Dr. Fatzinger. Two semester hours.
410 Learning and Memory

A survey of the general principles of learning and memory and an introduction to learning theory.

Second semester. Dr. Fatzinger. Two semester hours.

SCIENCE DIVISION
OPEN TO GRADUATES

503 Teaching of Elementary Science

Indicates the part played by science experiences in the development of children, acquaints teachers with types of science content and teaching procedures suitable in elementary education.

Not offered 1953-54. Two semester hours.

571 The Teaching of Science

Analyzes and evaluates the objectives of science as a high-school subject and considers modern practices with respect to such topics as classroom method, motivation, laboratory work, directed study, and like problems.

Summer session. Dr. Mallinson. Two semester hours.

SOCIAL SCIENCE DIVISION
FOR GRADUATES AND UPPERCLASSMEN

400 Teaching of the Social Studies

Teaching of the social studies in the Junior and Senior High School. Definition of objectives. Selection, organization, and development of content materials. Study of the procedures and problems of effective teaching in the social studies.

Summer session. Dr. Macmillan. First semester. Dr. Woods. Second semester. Dr. Macmillan. Two semester hours.

401 Workshop on Contemporary Britain and Anglo-American Relations

A study of the historical forces molding contemporary Britain, her government and society; economic, political, and social changes in the twentieth century; the development of the welfare state; and the structure of the British Commonwealth of Nations. England's international relations will be studied with particular reference to the United States. There will be group projects, class reports, papers, and lectures.

Summer session. Mr. Cross, Mr. Mitchell, Dr. Seibert. Two to five semester hours.

SOCIOLOGY
OPEN TO GRADUATES

540 Social Dynamics of Human Behavior

The concepts of sociology, cultural anthropology, and social psychology essential to understanding human development and social behavior are systematically explored and integrated. The student is taught how to assess the concrete social situations in which he finds himself, and in which he observes other people from day to day. Especially designed for those who have not had a foundational course in sociology.

First semester. Dr. Kercher. Two semester hours.

543 Advanced Population Studies
A study of significant population conditions and changes, both quantitative and qualitative, in the United States and in the world's trouble spots. Facts, causes, consequences, and policies with respect to contemporary population situations are considered.
Not offered 1953-54. Two semester hours.

544 Race and Culture Contacts
A study of racial and cultural minorities with particular reference to those prominent in American culture. Race as a physical and cultural concept; racial myths, doctrines, and movements; conflict and accommodation of majority and minority groups, and proposed solutions of ethnic problems are considered. Prerequisite: Principles of Sociology 241 or Introduction to Contemporary Society 101A, or Social Dynamics of Human Behavior 540.
Second semester. Dr. Hunt. Two semester hours.

545 Advanced Studies in the Family
The major aspects of family life are explored. Attention is directed to historical family organizations, the family in other cultures, changing institutional functions, major family problems, and family disorganization and reorganization. Prerequisite: Principles of Sociology 241 or Introduction to Contemporary Society 101A, or Social Dynamics of Human Behavior 540.
Not offered 1953-54. Two semester hours.

548 Independent Studies in Sociology
For graduate students desiring to do independent research or study in fields of sociology not covered by the curriculum. A student's project must be approved by the Sociology faculty, and work on it is supervised throughout by an individual staff member. Prerequisite: A minimum of 8 semester hours of college work in sociology. As needed.
First and second semester. Dr. Horton, Dr. Hunt, Dr. Kercher, Mrs. Reid. Two or three semester hours.

FOR GRADUATES AND UPPERCLASSMEN

440 Urban Community
A study of community life as influenced by the processes of industrialization and urbanization. Community problems and social planning for community life are given appropriate consideration. Prerequisite: Principles of Sociology 241, or Introduction to Contemporary Society 101A, or Social Dynamics of Human Behavior 540.
Second semester. Dr. Horton. Two semester hours.

441 Social Control
A study of the means and the forms of social control. Emphasis is upon the systematic analysis of social control situations. Limited research project assigned. Prerequisite: Principles of Sociology 241 and Modern Social Problems 242, or Introduction to Contemporary Society 101A, or Social Dynamics of Human Behavior 540.
First semester. Dr. Hunt. Two semester hours.

442 Social Pathology and Personal Deviation
A study of cooperative enterprise and cooperative movements; would include consideration of the alcoholic, the drug addict, the marginal man, and the sexually maladjusted. Course considers deviate behavior in light of social background, causative factors, and possible therapy. Prerequisite: Principles of Sociology 241, or Introduction to Contemporary Society 101A, or Social Dynamics of Human Behavior 540.
Summer Session. Dr. Manis. Two semester hours.

444 History of Social Thought
A critical survey of the social thinking of outstanding students of society from Plato to those of modern social science. Prerequisite: Principles of Sociology 241 or Introduction to Contemporary Society 101A, or Social Dynamics of Human Behavior 540.
Not offered 1953-54. Two semester hours.

445 Cooperative Social Organization
A study of cooperative enterprise and cooperative movements; covering principles, historical developments, forms and manifestations, problems of operation, and place in contemporary society. Prerequisite: Principles of Sociology 241, or Introduction to Contemporary Society 101A, or Social Dynamics of Human Behavior 540.
Not offered 1953-54. Two semester hours.

446 Advanced Studies in Juvenile Delinquency
Advanced studies in extent, causes, and methods of control of juvenile maladjustment. Prerequisite: Principles of Sociology 241 or Introduction to Contemporary Society 101A, or Social Dynamics of Human Behavior 540.
First semester. Dr. Kercher. Two semester hours.

448 Comparative Culture Studies
A comparative study of the structure and the functioning of selected aspects of culture in Britain and America. The courts, the educational system, the welfare state, class stratification, correctional institutions, political organization, and the basic structure of government are considered. Prerequisite: Principles of Sociology 241, or Introduction to Contemporary Society 101A, or Social Dynamics of Human Behavior 540.
Second semester. Dr. Kercher. Two semester hours.

449 Contemporary Social Movements
A study of the growth and place in contemporary society of selected social movements, including communism, fascism, Ku Klux Klan, the Townsend movement, and the like. Prerequisite: Principles of Sociology 241, or Introduction to Contemporary Society 101A, or Social Dynamics of Human Behavior 540.
Second semester. Dr. Horton. Two semester hours.

SPEECH

OPEN TO GRADUATES

554 Teaching of Speech Correction
A study of the methods of individual and group therapy for common disorders of speech.
Second semester. Dr. Van Riper. Two semester hours.

555 Public School Speech Correction
This course deals with the organization and administration of speech therapy in the public schools. Problems of examination, certification, scheduling, inter-departmental relationships, parent and teacher education, techniques of group therapy, individual therapy, speech improvement methods for the elementary grades, and the philosophy of public school speech correction.
Summer session. Dr. Sheehan. Two semester hours.

FOR GRADUATES AND UPPERCLASSMEN

405 Speech for the Classroom Teacher
The course is designed to help the teacher become more effective in speaking and reading. The content of the course will be adjusted to meet the specific needs of the individual members of the class.
First semester. Dr. Becker. Three semester hours.

406 Advanced Public Speaking
Advanced study of speech composition and audience psychology, analysis of model speeches, and frequent practice in constructing speeches for special occasions. Students interested in coaching or participating in oratorical contests will find this course useful. Prerequisite: Fundamentals of Speech 105A, Public Speaking 206, or consent of instructor.
Second semester. Dr. Becker. Two semester hours.

408 Direction of Forensic Activities
For students who expect to direct forensic activities in connection with other teaching duties. The course includes the principles of teaching debate and other forms of public speaking. Opportunities will be given for directing local speaking activities. Prerequisite: a major or minor in speech and consent of instructor.

Second semester. Dr. Becker. Two semester hours.

409 Persuasion

There are two aspects of the course, skills and content. Speech skills are developed by the presentation of studies in persuasion, by participation in discussion and by criticism of both. The content of the course is the psychological theories and experimentation in motives and theories in persuasion ethics. Recommended particularly to teachers, pre-ministerial, pre-law, and business students.

Summer session and second semester. Dr. Brown. Three semester hours.

415 Acting

A continuation of the work done in Acting 215, with more intensive work in the techniques of creative acting. Each student will create at least one role in a play. Prerequisite: Fundamentals of Speech 105A, B, Interpretive Reading 210, Acting 215.

First semester. Miss Shaw. Two semester hours.

416 Oral Interpretation of the Drama

Platform reading of the one-act and the three-act play. Through class analysis and criticism, a basis for judging the drama is established. Prerequisite: Fundamentals of Speech 105A, B, Interpretive Reading 210, Acting 215, and Advanced Interpretive Reading 310, or consent of instructor.

Not offered 1953-54. Two semester hours.

421 Teachers' Workshop in Dramatics

A practical workshop in the skill of theater production with an emphasis on stagecraft and directing for the high school teacher who has had no formal training in theater.

Not offered 1953-54. Four semester hours.

441 Utilization of Radio and Recordings in the Classroom

An exhaustive study will be made of the sources of radio programs and transcriptions available to supplement other teaching aids. The group will study methods of preparation for utilization, techniques of class-listening, and follow-up procedures. Each student will be given an individual utilization project. Resource persons will be brought in.

Second semester. Mr. Garneau. Two semester hours.

442 Teachers' Workshop in Radio

A practical workshop in radio with emphasis upon the use of radio equipment. Planning program series, directing radio production, and editing radio scripts.

Summer session. Mr. Garneau. Four semester hours.
451  Basic Voice and Speech Science
   This course is for students majoring in speech or speech-correction. Topics considered include: anatomy and physiology of hearing; speech and hearing; anatomy and physiology of articulation and phonation; the neurological organization of the speech function; the physics and physiology of quality, pitch, and intensity; and the psychology of speech. Prerequisite: Fundamentals of Speech 105A, B.
   First semester. Dr. Van Riper. Three semester hours.

452  Stuttering and Allied Disorders
   This course is designed to provide the student with more detailed knowledge of the nature, causes, development, and treatment of the more serious speech disorders. The literature of stuttering, cleft palate, deaf and aphasic individuals will be surveyed, and the various methods of treating these disorders will be described in detail. Case studies and presentation will be provided. Prerequisite: Principles of Speech Correction 251.
   Summer session. Dr. Sheehan. Second semester. Dr. Van Riper. Three semester hours.

453  Applied Speech Correction
   This course is for students interested in the actual practice of speech correction. The course will involve training in the remedial treatment of speech defectives in the college clinic and schools associated with the college, service in a traveling speech clinic, and the study of the principles of clinical practice. Prerequisite: Fundamentals of Speech 105A, B, Principles of Speech Correction 251, and consent of instructor.
   Each semester. Dr. Van Riper. Three semester hours.

456  Speech Therapy
   This course is intended to give intensive training in techniques of speech therapy for disorders of phonation, delayed speech, dyslalia, stuttering and aphasia. Permission of instructor.
   Not offered 1953-54. Two semester hours.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION DIVISION
FOR GRADUATES AND UPPERCLASSMEN

470  Principles of Practical Arts and Vocational Education
   The place and function of the practical arts and vocational education in the modern school; fundamental principles upon which this work is based. For teachers of agriculture, business, home economics, industrial subjects, and administrators.
   Summer session. Dr. Kohrman. Two semester hours.

VOCATIONAL INDUSTRIAL & TECHNICAL EDUCATION
OPEN TO GRADUATES

512  Seminar in Vocational Education
   This course is planned especially for teachers, coordinators, and administrators working toward a master's degree in vocational education.
Second semester. Dr. Kohrman and Dr. Giachino. Two semester hours.

573 Instructional Aids
Methods of selecting, constructing, and using effectively appropriate aids in various industrial arts and vocational teaching situations.
Not offered 1953-54. Two semester hours.

575 Curriculum Construction in Industrial Arts and Vocational Education
Deals with the study of bases for determining subject matter to be taught and its content and scope for varying grade levels. Devotes special attention to subjects, their relations with other subjects, and their arrangement into curricular form.
Summer session. Dr. Giachino. Two semester hours.

578 Administration and Supervision of Practical Arts and Vocational Education
The functions of administration and supervision; problems involved in the organization and operation of practical arts and vocational education programs. For administrators, supervisors of vocational education, and those wishing to prepare for such positions.
Second semester. Dr. Giachino. Two semester hours.

582 Special Problems in Vocational Education
This course provides for the study and organization of a specific teaching problem in vocational education. The student will select a suitable problem, develop material for it, and organize it for instructional purposes.
Each semester. Dr. Giachino, Two semester hours.

FOR GRADUATES AND UPPERCLASSMEN

412 Radio and Television
A course dealing with the basic principles of radio and television. Each student will be expected to develop the necessary instructional material for use in a teaching situation.
Not offered 1953-54. Two semester hours.

422 Automotive Transportation Workshop
A study of current maintenance procedure and methods of handling specialized equipment in diagnosing and serving automobiles. Instructional material will be developed for use in teaching automotive courses in junior and senior high schools.
Summer session. Mr. Ellinger. Two semester hours.
424 Automotive Diagnosis and Correction Workshop
This course deals with the correct usage of testing equipment for locating and correcting automotive engine malfunctions. It is designed particularly for teachers of auto mechanics.
Post-summer session. One semester hour. Enrollment is through the Extension Division.

430 Materials of Construction
Various types of ferrous and non-ferrous metals, woods, cement, and plastic will be tested with precision testing equipment. Characteristics of these materials will be studied and their suitability and application determined for fabricating processes.
Not offered 1953-54. Two semester hours.

460 Cooperative Education in the Secondary School
This course deals with the nature and purposes of cooperative education in the secondary schools. Problems and procedures involved in the organization and operation of cooperative work-study programs are discussed. Especially designed for coordinators.
First semester. Dr. Kohrman. Two semester hours.

472 Course Planning and Construction
Principles and techniques of selecting and analyzing suitable teaching activities and arranging such material into a functional instructional order. Instructional units prepared will be based on an analysis of a trade, occupation or activity. Opportunity will be provided to prepare a detailed course of study.
Summer session. Dr. Giachino. Two semester hours.

474 Testing and Grading
A study of the technique for preparing and using correctly written and practical tests. Attention will be given to interpretation of test results and grading student achievement.
Not offered 1953-54. Two semester hours.

476 History and Philosophy of Industrial Education
Development of industrial education in America, with special attention to European influences, experiments, industrial developments, and theories. Gives particular attention to the developments leading to modern practices in industrial arts as well as in vocational-industrial education.
Not offered 1953-54. Two semester hours.

477 Welding for Teachers
Instruction will cover oxy-acetylene, DC and AC arc, Heli-arc, and Atomic-Hydrogen welding. Attention will be given to organizing instructional material for setting up welding units in junior and senior high school shop classes.
Summer session. Mr. Ring. Two semester hours.
Each candidate for the master's degree must select from the following curricula the one which most closely meets his purpose and must submit with the application for candidacy an individual program of studies which follows this selected curriculum. Each curriculum is set up in terms of the candidate’s vocational objective and is under the direction of a graduate adviser who is available for conference with the student and will approve the program of studies.

Each curriculum consists of three groups of courses: (1) a minimum of ten hours of required courses in the Department of Education, (2) a minimum of ten hours of courses outside the Department of Education, and (3) ten hours of courses from any department giving graduate credit. The minimum requirement for the degree is thirty hours.

The curricula have been drawn up with a view to providing a program of courses which have a high degree of functional value and to assure as much flexibility as is possible while at the same time providing that the minimum requirements are satisfied. Some of the courses named may not be given every semester or summer session. Some of the courses listed may cover work already taken previously or at the advanced undergraduate level. With the approval of the adviser, substitution may be made when necessary, providing the general requirements for the master’s degree are satisfied. Additional courses may be offered at a later date and may be approved for inclusion in a given curriculum. In general, the adviser will be free to approve such a program of study for the individual that will best satisfy his professional and personal needs.

Personality growth, in both depth and breadth, and the development of professional abilities are closely related and are highly important in the education of teachers, supervisors, administrators, guidance specialists, and other school personnel. Through counseling, Curriculum Advisers should encourage graduate students to choose courses which meet their individual needs, both cultural and professional. Courses and experiences should be chosen which will help the graduate student to become a more mature, more significant, and more professionally proficient person—with broader human sympathies, finer artistic appreciations, more adequate knowledge, greater professional skills, increased ability to analyze and interpret life situations, and greater insight into problems involved in professional leadership.
CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT AND COORDINATION

Orie Frederick, Adviser

This curriculum is designed for elementary and secondary school teachers who are or plan to become chairman of curriculum committees, heads of departments, supervisors of instruction, curriculum coordinators, curriculum consultants, or curriculum directors. The purpose of this curriculum is to prepare graduate students with teaching experience for leadership of teachers in improving the school experiences of children and youth.

I. Courses in Education Department 10 hours

Core Courses: (Elect three) 6 hours
Education 501 Educational Research
502 The School Curriculum
