The Open Journal of Occupational Therapy

— Call For Papers —

Interprofessional Practice and Education

OJOT announces a Call for Papers for a special issue on Interprofessional Practice and Education. Of particular interest to the journal are contributions that highlight the importance of effective collaboration for optimal client-centered care and education of future professionals to work on interprofessional teams.

Goals:

- Disseminate knowledge related to the occupational therapist’s diverse roles on interprofessional teams.
- Stimulate dialogue about the unique opportunities and challenges of interprofessional approaches for therapists, healthcare organizations and clients.
- Highlight the necessary roles and competencies for successful navigation of interprofessional health care provision to facilitate optimal client outcomes.
- Target successful interprofessional education strategies that prepare students to work within interprofessional treatment models.

Guest Editors: Ben Atchison, PhD, OTR/L, FAOTA and Michelle Suarez, PhD, OTR/L—Western Michigan University

Manuscript Deadline: January 1, 2017

Submit manuscripts to www.OJOT.org and indicate that the manuscript is being submitted for this special issue