

Dean Garrison will welcome us to our user group meeting and ScholarWorks librarian Maira Bundza will provide an introduction to the day and ask all present to share something about their repository and what they would most like to discuss at this meeting.

Presenter: Julie Garrison

Involved with first bepress conference 8 years ago

Group that built community around repository and scholarship and although conversations have evolved since then, hope for continued community building

Facilitator: Maira Bundza

New to this space:

- Hillsdale College: purchased bepress this summer
- Kettering University: bepress since 2016, currently embarking on migration of these
