MAGS Teaching Excellence Award

We are proud to announce Carlos Lozano as the 2020 Midwestern Association of Graduate Schools (MAGS) master's level teaching excellence award recipient!

MAGS consists of 175 institutions from 14 Midwestern states, and each university may submit a single nomination at the master's and doctoral levels. This award recognizes graduate students who exemplify excellence in the teaching/learning mission of our universities and is highly competitive.

Carlos is a native of Veracruz, Mexico and a WMU student in the Master in Music program, where he serves as a Graduate Assistant for the Strings Department. He has participated in masterclasses on the violin and viola, has played in the Rocky Ridge Music Festival and Round Top Festival Institute, and has been a member of the Kalamazoo Symphony Orchestra as a WMU Artist Scholar. He believes teaching to be one of the most important duties for artists and musicians. Read more at wmich.edu/grad/carlos-lozano-sanchez.

WMU Updates

WMU COVID-19 Updates

Updates are posted regularly at wmich.edu/covid-19.

Credit/No Credit Option

Graduate students have until May 15 to change any or all of their spring 2020 courses to credit/no credit. This is a one-time exception to help reduce the uncertainty brought about by COVID-19. Students may request this option through GoWMU by selecting Grade Mode Change from the Academic Services Menu. Please allow up to two weeks for processing. More information available here.

Commencement

Spring 2020 - The WMU April 25 commencement ceremony was postponed. Alternate dates are being explored. Updates will be posted as soon as the information is available. Check out the spring 2020 commencement booklet.

Summer 2020 - A decision regarding the June 27 commencement ceremony is expected by May 20. Summer graduates will be notified as soon as a determination is made.
