The Open Journal of Occupational Therapy Sponsor Profile Gallery

The Open Journal of Occupational Therapy invites you to join an esteemed group of individuals and organizations whose contributions to the profession are celebrated in the Sponsor Profile, which is published in each quarterly issue. Visit <https://scholarworks.wmich.edu/sponsorprofiles/> and take note of the esteemed individuals whose professional contributions have been profiled by a colleague or friend.

Being a sponsor of OJOT is a wonderful way to highlight the contributions of an individual, a group, or an organization and at the same time support the continued success of OJOT.

Here are the steps to join the roster of sponsors:

- Confirm your interest in sponsorship by way of an email to the Managing Editor, Ben Atchison, at ben.atchison@wmich.edu with copy to ot-ojot@wmich.edu.
- We will contact you right away to discuss all your questions. If interested, we'll set up a date and time to complete a phone interview to develop the profile you wish to see published.
- You will be able to review and provide approval of the final draft before it is published.
- You will be asked provide a digital high-resolution photo or graphic you wish to use for the link on the cover of OJOT. You will also be able to provide in-text links to any additional information that you wish to provide.
- Your profile will be published in one of the four quarterly issues: Winter (January), Spring (April), Summer, (July) and Fall (October). There is a limit of two profiles per issue so you can expect to have yours viewed among the 400,000 articles across 199 countries.
- Once published, it will remain live until the publication of the next issue. At that time, that issue is included in the journal archives in the directly accessible "Sponsor Profile Gallery."

Contact Ben Atchison today at ben.atchison@wmich.edu for answers to your questions about this wonderful opportunity to recognize others or publicize your organization.
