View of Goldsworth Valley Conference Center
Dear Colleague:

It is my pleasure to invite you to the Eighteenth International Congress on Medieval Studies which will be held from May 5-8, 1983 on the campus of Western Michigan University under the sponsorship of the University's Medieval Institute.

Again, significant segments of this year's program are being provided by the annual sessions of the Academy of American Research Historians on Medieval Spain, the American Cusanus Society, the Tristan Society, the American Society for Reformation Research, the Conference on Cistercian Studies, the Franciscan Institute, the American Boccaccio Association, the International Courtly Literature Society, the International Center for Medieval Art, the International Society for Neo-Platonic Studies, the Société Internationale Ren-cesvals, the Medieval Association of the Midwest, the Michigan Consortium for Medieval and Early Modern Studies, the CARA Committee on Teaching Medieval Subjects (TEAMS), and the Parable Conference for Dominican Life and Mission. We extend a special welcome to the membership of the International Arthurian Society (North American Branch) who will hold their first annual business meeting in Kalamazoo this year.

On Thursday evening, the Early Music Ensemble will present a program of Music from Medieval France in the recital hall of Western Michigan University's new Dalton Center of Fine Arts. On Saturday evening, following the now traditional and sumptuous smorgasbord banquet, the Poculi Ludique Societas from the University of Toronto will perform the late fifteenth-century morality play, Mankind, together with the Dutch interlude, The Blessed Apple Tree, at Shaw Theatre on the campus of Western Michigan University. The same ensemble will present "street theatre" performances during the Thursday and Friday wine hours in the courtyard of Goldsworth Valley III. On Friday evening you have an opportunity to receive instruction in sixteenth-century English country dances from Dr. Ingrid Brainard, director of the Cambridge Court Dancers. For details on the above, as well as on the various other evening receptions and membership meetings, please consult the daily program schedule.

I remind you to read with care the specific information and instructions provided on the following pages. In particular, I urge you to send preregistration forms early in order to help us make adequate arrangements for housing, meal, and day care center services to an expected large number of Congress participants.
Be sure to note that REPUBLIC AIRLINES is the official Convention Airline for the Congress this year, and do avail yourself of the special convention travel service and discount rates guaranteed by the airline by using the enclosed Convention Air Fare Certificate. For specific information read the special instruction page in this brochure.

You will also note that a slight increase in the registration fee turned out to be unavoidable this year. We are all the more grateful to Western Michigan University for having kept the cost of meals and housing at last year's level.

Should you have additional questions or any particular problem in connection with attending the Congress, please contact me or the Medieval Institute's executive secretary, Ms. Angie Cardoza, by either mail or telephone. My colleagues at the Institute and I look forward with pleasure to welcoming you to Kalamazoo in May.

Cordially, yours

Otto Gründler

MEDIEVAL INSTITUTE PUBLICATIONS

Medieval Institute Publications invites proposals from Conference participants for the series Studies in Medieval Culture.

Proposed volumes should focus on a single topic or on interdisciplinary approaches to a specific subject. Those who have organized a series of papers which are topically or methodologically related and who wish to propose those papers as a future volume of Studies in Medieval Culture should submit their proposals, in writing, to the Managing Editor, Medieval Institute Publications, Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, Michigan 49008.

ADVANCE NOTICE--1984 CONGRESS

The Nineteenth International Congress on Medieval Studies has been scheduled for May 3-6, 1984, with planning already underway. Again we invite proposals for special sessions, symposia, and workshops. All prospective organizers of special sessions are requested to submit their proposals to the Medieval Institute no later than April 15, 1983. The proposals should include the specific topic of the session as well as a brief rationale. Special session topics accepted by the program Committee will be listed in the general information letter for the 1984 Congress, which will be mailed in June.

SPECIAL REQUEST

Between April 1 and June 1, 1983, the Medieval Institute office will go through another process of up-dating and revising our conference mailing list. It has been our policy for some time to maintain a mailing list of medievalists who specifically requested to be included. In view of the constantly increasing costs of printing and postage, we like to avoid, understandably, the unnecessary expense of sending invitation letters and Conference program brochures to people who are not interested.

IF YOU DO NOT PLAN TO ATTEND THIS YEAR'S 18TH CONGRESS BUT WISH TO REMAIN ON OUR MAILING LIST, PLEASE RETURN ONE COPY OF THE ENCLOSED REGISTRATION FORM WITH YOUR NAME AND COMPLETE CURRENT MAILING ADDRESS BY APRIL 15. IF WE DO NOT HEAR FROM YOU WE SHALL ASSUME THAT YOU DO NOT WISH TO RECEIVE ANY FURTHER MAILINGS AND WILL DELETE YOUR NAME FROM OUR LIST.
REGISTRATION WILL OPEN ON WEDNESDAY, MAY 4, FOR THE CONVENIENCE OF EARLY ARRIVALS AND CONTINUE DAILY, IN THE HARRISON-STINSON LOBBY OF VALLEY III.

Reading sharpens perception, adds new dimensions of understanding, kindles an ardent desire to learn, affords fluency, warms the lukewarm enthusiasm of the mind, casts off sluggishness, tears away the web of lust, excites groans of heart, coaxes forth tears, brings us close to God.

_Castellarium Anglicanum_.

LC 81-20812
ISBN 0-527-50110-7

cloth $150.00

Recognized in England and Continental Europe as perhaps the greatest living authority on the subject, David King has assembled an inventory of all castle sites—extant, probable, possible, vanished—in England and Wales and has compiled a bibliography of the printed documentary source material and secondary literature concerning each site. No mere bibliographer, he has located, personally examined, and described more than three quarters of the 1,500 castles listed in _Castellarium Anglicanum_, the first complete inventory of castle sites in England and Wales to be published.
