Nagle Presents on Queer Theory in the 18th Century

Chris Nagle recently attended the American Society for Eighteenth Century Studies \(ASECS\) annual conference, held this year in Williamsburg, VA, where he took part in a roundtable on the uses and abuses of Queer Theory in current work on the Long 18th Century. The session was sponsored by the ASECS Gay and Lesbian Caucus and organized by George Haggerty and Susan Lanser, and the group is currently planning to develop the presentations and responses for a possible publication.

Chris's participation in the conference was made possible by a Women's Caucus Professional Development Grant, which helped to defray some of the travel costs.
