Do you want to help new international students at WMU? Volunteer with us during Summer and Fall 2019 International Student Orientations! It's a great way to meet and welcome new students to campus while increasing your own leadership and communication skills. Sign up today!

The WMU International Festival is less than one week away: Sunday, March 24 beginning at 4 p.m. Participating international student organizations set up booths, offer traditional food dishes, perform dances from their home countries and put on a fashion show. Join us in the Bernhard Center second floor.
