WORKSHOPS

The WMU Office for Sustainability will be hosting free workshops for WMU students during March and April. These workshops are designed for anyone who is interested to learn more about sustainability related ideas. Reserve your spot today!

The graphic features the word "WORKSHOPS" in large, light blue, sans-serif capital letters at the top. Below the text are three stylized icons: a yellow fan-like shape, a yellow heart shape with a person silhouette inside, and a yellow square with a grid pattern. The background is dark blue with a subtle pattern of white dots.

Join the International Student Activities team in giving back to the Kalamazoo community during the March 26 Service Learning Series at Second Impressions.

A photograph of five people, three men and two women, standing behind a stainless steel counter in a kitchen or food service area. They are all wearing white hairnets and aprons. The background shows a blue wall with a mural of a landscape.
