Beyond the Headlines
A Community Discussion on Refugee Experience

The Counseling Psychology RSO is hosting an event focused on the Refugee Community of West Michigan. Clinicians, researchers, and refugee community advocates will lead a discussion around the refugee community including refugee strengths, needs, concerns mental health professionals should be aware of, legal immigration, and more. A panel of refugee community advocates will also speak directly to the strengths and needs of the people they may serve and/or also represent.

Please join us as lunch will also be served!
