We hope to see you this Wednesday, September 25 from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in Sangren Hall for the annual WMU Study Abroad Fair! Attendees get the chance to speak with WMU students who have studied and interned abroad, as well as with WMU professors who coordinate programs and courses around the globe.

This year, the Kalamazoo Refugee Resource Collaborative—KRRC—debuted a pilot program for middle- and high school-aged refugees to help them gain the tools they need to be successful in the American school system.

Diversity and inclusion efforts underway at Western Michigan University helped it earn recognition for the seventh year in a row from a national publication that focuses on diversity in higher education. WMU was one of 93 institutions from around the nation named an annual Higher Education Excellence in Diversity—HEED—honoree by INSIGHT Into Diversity magazine. WMU has been honored by the publication each year since 2013.
