experiences. The week features a variety of events hosted by student, campus and community organizations.

Are you a staff or faculty member that would like to invite study abroad to present to your students? Request a presentation from WMU Study Abroad and request a time frame that fits your needs.

Don't have time for a presentation this fall? Encourage your students to attend an information session in 2425 Ellsworth Hall. WMU Study Abroad hosts information sessions daily, no appointment necessary. Information sessions are an informal, individualized exploration of study abroad opportunities that match a student's academic degree
