"The one thing that has made me a bit nervous about this time of year is knowing it is my first holiday away from home. Even while at WMU, home is only 20 minutes away which means I have shared every holiday of my life with my mom, sisters, grandparents, aunt and newly added uncle. To me, what makes the holidays special is spending time with close friends and family as well as baking on the daily (I'm obsessed)! The way that I decided to cope with missing out on an American Thanksgiving this year was to plan one in Oslo.

I am so glad that my first holiday away from home was still spend surrounded by beautiful people who have began to feel like a family abroad!"
