"Our day started with a 7:45am breakfast, followed by a quick briefing about our day. Unfortunately, due to some political uncertainty our visits to the Krishna Consciousness and Akshaya Patra Organization got cancelled. Because of multiple protests against a new citizenship law discriminating against Muslims in this country, multiple roads in Bangalore are closed and keeping us from getting to those organizations."

The Center for English Language and Culture for International Students' (CELCIS) conversations circles resume this week! Conversation circles help CELCIS students make connections with other students and to practice conversational English. Participating is easy: come ready to chat about campus life, culture, food or anything else you find interesting!
