Dr. Sangren Will Be Honor Speaker

The Honor's Day assembly will be on Friday, June 9, at 2:00 in the Women's Gym. Dr. Paul V. Sangren of Western Michigan College will give the Honor's Day address.

Dr. Roy C. Bryan will pass out the awards to students who have been active in extra curricular activities at State. Students on the monitors staff, Highlights, debate, Highlander, home room and council officers, and those which have achieved high scholastic and music averages will receive recognition.

During the program Brad Smith will sing a solo. A duet by Mary Ann Tinkham and Alene Watterworth is also featured.

The new council officers, Frank Nugent, Jim Dollahan, Mary Joyce Maltby, and Kay Malotte, will be inaugurated at the assembly.

Music for the affair will be provided by the band.

Graduates to Receive Aid

News has been received of several more scholarships awarded State High seniors. After examining the College Board exams and several other tests taken by Dick Curry and Jim Hoekje, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology has awarded them $300 and $200, respectively, upon the condition that they attend that school.

Another winner of a competitive scholarship is Alice Teugh. Out of a field of nearly 75 applicants, she won the top one of three competitive scholarships given by Western Michigan College. She has won $175 for one year. This is renewable.

On the strength of recommendations from the high school and high marks, Western Michigan College has awarded honorary scholarships to Frances Frey, Jackie Slaughter, Bradley Smith, Dorothy Tucker, Claire Miche, Lorraine Hope, and Billie Forbes. The scholarships provide for full tuition for two years and are renewable.

New Classes Next Year

Choir will offer an opportunity for full credit next year. This is made possible by the addition of glee clubs which will meet at 3:00 every Tuesday and Thursday under the direction of Mrs. Leoti Britton. The glee clubs will meet on Tuesdays and the men's on Thursday. A try-out will be necessary for admittance to these groups.

A combination program is being planned for the eleven and sixteenth grades. Social studies and freshman English will be combined in two two-hour classes with the same teacher and students. A similar program is planned for the eleventh grade, combining U.S. history and English.

Mrs. Saur will be back with the Social Problems class for seniors. A semester of this, together with one semester of government will give one unit of credit.

Whitman flavors Grad Program

A new procedure will be inaugurated at the Commencement exercises June 15th, 1950. A student, an alumnus, and a parent will present their thoughts on three questions of universal significance. The theme for the program was chosen by a committee of representatives from the four senior English classes. Taken from Walt Whitman's "Leaves of Grass," the title of the program and basis for the introduction is Never were such sharp questions asked as this day. The speakers top questions are from the same source.

What do you think endures? will be presented by Jackie Slaughter, student, Do you see the poems and processes of Democracy be discussed by Glenn Allen Jr., alumnus; and The clock indicates the moment but what does eternity indicate? will be examined by Vera Mabie, parent.

The invocation will be delivered by Hadley Osborn, and the benediction will be pronounced by the Rev. Elden C. Watterworth. Jack Hill, president of the Senior class, will present the introductions. Instrumental music for the program will be furnished by the High School String Orchestra, conducted by Elmer Beloof. Mrs. Leoti C. Britton will conduct the full choir in a number at the beginning of the program, and the eighteen graduating choir members will conclude choral activity. Dr. Roy Bryan will officiate at the presentation of the diplomas, assisted by the ad visors.

Following the Commencement Exercises in the Women's Gym, the Senior class, their parents and guests will be entertained at a reception in the rotunda of the Training School. Miss Ruth Sanders and Joan Bavier are in charge of the arrangements, and the string ensemble will provide music.

The graduation committee appointed by the Senior Class officers has been working for many months with faculty sponsors and advisors. Miss Eunice Kraft is general chairman and Ann Eldridge is student chairman. Members of this working group are Mary Popeano, Hadley Osborn, Jane Smith, Alene Watterworth, Bradley Smith, Pat Mable, Jack Hill, Jackie Slaughter, Miss Cleveland, Mr. Hinkley, Mrs. Smutz, and Dr. Bryan.

Jack Brenner is acting as head usher for the affair. Assisting him will be six representatives of the junior class. Jim Brousseau, Jim Rus sel, Dick Hawkins, Frank Nugent, Fred Hubbell, and Roger Lininger.
Outdoor Band Concert
To be Held June 8

On Thursday, June 8, the State High band will present its first outdoor concert of the year. The concert will be held on the Library steps at 6:30 p.m. In case of rain, it will be transferred to the Women's Gymnasium.

The program is divided into two parts with an intermission.

The opening number is the march "Tuscarawas," with student conductor Lorraine Hope conducting. Following will be Johann Sebastian Bach's Chorale "Break Forth O Beautiful Heavenly Light." "In Old Vienna," a musical description of Vienna, Germany, and a trumpet trio composed of Pete Longjohn, Hadley Osborn, and John Thayer will present "Silhouette," "The Three Solitaires.

Roger Mills will conduct "Pavanne" by Mortin Gould; a semi-popular classic. Carol Cessna will play a clarinet solo "Silhouette." As a last number in the first half, the entire band will play "American Patrol.

After the intermission, Ted Klinger, band president, will conduct "Overture American" and Jim Bowen will play a trombone solo, "The Water Witch." Next on the program is a modern number, "Bobby Sox Suite." The band will then play "Tendara Overture." To finish off the concert, the band will play "Hilltoppers" the new school song.

The concert is free and the public is cordially invited.

News Staff Elected

From the list of students who expressed a desire to work on the yearbook, the faculty, Dr. Roy C. Bryan, and the present Highlander staff finally completed the job of choosing a new Highlander staff for next year's book.

The selection of members followed closely with the student's wishes and a great deal of time and effort went into drawing up the staff.

Instead of having co-editors, there will be one editor, Joyce Perry and her associate editor Mary Hilliard. Business managers will be Pete Lingquist and Marshall Brenner. The feature editor will be Sandy Hackman. The assistant feature editors will be Sally Kurtz, Ilayne Weisman and Mary Teugh. Nancy Doubeday and Charlotte McGinnis will serve on the organizations staff. Bonnie Harlan and Goldie Pooy have the job of obtaining subscriptions. Replacing Pat Mable as art editor will be Sandy Beebe. John Gelder and his assistant, Dick Hawkins, will take over the sports editing, Jim Brossaue and Beverly Howard will work together on photography, taking the place of Dick Curry and Billie Forbes.

Thanks to the Student Council for giving a swell Monitor-Highlights luncheon.

Notes in the News

The trip to Chicago that was to be taken by the Senior math students has been cancelled.

An eighth grader, Dianne Pullon, won the sky-blue Packard which was awarded as the grand prize at the Kalamazoo Symphony Benefit.

Orchids to our baseball team for tying with Niles for the league championship.

Fred Hoyt broke his leg for a worthy cause. He was sliding in home during baseball practice.

Our new assembly chairman is Sandy Hackman.

Next year Sandy Beebe will be the chairman of the pep committee.

Couns. Activities Reviewed

The student council officers next year really have big shoes to fill. Gaylord Kitchen, Frank Spitters, Jill Gannaway, and Paul Deal, officers who headed this year's council, have done a swell job and began working even before school started.

You remember the swell Get-acquainted party? (Dr. Bryan said that it was the best one we have ever had). As the social committee wasn't set up yet, the work of putting on the party went to the officers. After school got under way, secretary Jill Gannaway headed the social committee in planning the informal dances and the Turnabout, Christmas Formal, and Spring Formal.

On the financial side, we all remember working on the magazine sale under the direction of treasurer Paul Deal, and some of us (especially the eighth grade) remember the prizes. Then there were those hot dogs, cokes, and programs at the football games, and the coke machine in the study hall.

Frank Spitters had the usual Vice President's job of heading the citizen-ship committee, and devoted his energy to developing a noon recreation program.

As president, Gaylord Kitchen presided at all the Student Council meetings, various committees, assemblies, worked a Vice President of the CASMSC (Cooperative Association of Southwestern Michigan Student Councils), and had many other duties.

The whole council worked all year solving problems that arose in the school, improved parent-teacher-student relationships through the PTSA, and in general tried to improve State High.

We all thank this year's council and wish next year's the best of luck.
Nurses Club Organized In State High

Under the direction of Mrs. Arthur McPerson of Kalamazoo Nurses’ Auxiliary, a pre-nursing club is being organized for girls interested in entering the nursing profession. The girls will get together on Wednesdays during club periods. At their bi-weekly meetings, they plan to engage doctors and nurses to come and speak to them about various phases of their work.

As a part of their activities, the girls plan to follow in the footsteps of the group which was organized at Central during the past year. It is hoped that each girl will be offered the opportunity to go down to Bronson Hospital and help entertain the sick children. They will read to them, play games with them, and other helpful jobs that the nurses will not be able to find time to do.

It might be that some of you are considering the nursing profession as your future vocation, or maybe you just love children. Anyway you look at it, the Nurses’ Club is going to have a great deal to offer you.

Dancers Bid Farewell

On Saturday, June 10th, we will have our last dance. The seniors and other guests will be admitted free. All others will pay 15 cents per person or 25 cents per couple. This farewell dance will last from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. and will be held in the Women’s Gym.

The committee consists of Beverly Malby tickets; Frances Frey, refreshments; Jane Williams, advertising; and Joan Baulier, decorations.

Music will be furnished by the “Swing Three.”

Honors Distributed To French Students

Included among the many awards given this time of year are those presented in the French department of State High. The students of French I and II classes with the help of Mr. Fliess have garnered many honors for themselves and the school and have participated actively in the newly formed French Club.

Bob Horstman, a second year student, came in with double honors this year by winning two medals: one for taking first prize in a state-wide contest, the other from L’Alliance Francais, which was honorary.

Nancy Doubleday was the first in her French I class in a similar competition and placed seventh in the state. She will receive an award in the Honor’s Day Assembly.

Jackie Slaughter will receive the Medal of Honor, which is for the student showing the best all-around interest in French. She was President of the French Club and ranked high in scholarship in both French I and II.

The Highlights Staff has chosen Jim Russel to direct the publication of next year’s news. Jim has had two years of experience on the paper to prepare him for the editorship. Joining the staff as a sophomore, he spent his first year reporting athletic activities. This year, he has been the sports editor of the Highlights.

As editor, Jim hopes the paper will help develop the coordination between the monitors, the Student Council, and the Highlights. Also he says, “I would like to see more contributions from the rest of the student body through the use of the Highlights.” A high school paper belongs to the whole school.

Seniors leaving the staff are Dale Crawford, Mary Tinkham, Jack Hill, and Kay Loughead.

They will be replaced by Kate Randall, Mary Teugh, Roger Lininger, Joan Siles, Nanette Slavin, Nancy Strome, Nancy Doubleday, Kay Pfeilen, Suzanne Gilbert, Frank Maher, and Kay Loughead.

This issue of the Highlights is dedicated to the Student Council and its president, for, with out their help, this last of the 1949-50 publications would have been impossible.

Students Report
Class Picnics To Be Popular

Comes spring, and once again ants and picnic baskets get their work-out as many hilltop organizations take to the lakes around Kalamazoo.

On May 24th the monitors went to Ross Township Park, and ten of State’s friendly watchdogs, including Mrs. Muriel Vincent, braved the icy waters for a swim.

All the class picnics were held on June 1, except the senior skip day which was held on June 6 at the Eldridge cottage on Lake Michigan.

This spring two new organizations had picnics for the first time. May 29th, the thirty-five Y-Teens and Hi-Y members enjoyed a get-together at Winston Wessels’ Gull Lake cottage. In an original method of financing, the driver training picnic today was arranged by Mr. James Luth, the driving instructor. Each time a “pupil” killed the engine, a nickel would go in to the ice cream kitty. The class will picnic at Yankee Springs.

Shirley Smith was in charge of the Student Council picnic held at Yankee Springs on May 31st. The band will have their annual picnic there, too, on June 16th, and State High’s robed choir will go to Gull Lake June 9th.
Year of Sports Has Held Many Thrills and Memories

The sports year of 1949-50 has been crammed full of thrilling and fun. Some of the records haven’t been so good, but all the boys have gotten lots out of the year.

The Cubs started off with a bang as they rolled over Portage in the lid lifter of the football season. Things didn’t go so well for our baby bears after that as they dropped six out of the next seven. The big attraction on the gridiron was our terrific passing attack. Jack Hill tossed ’em and either Smith, or Speedy Al received them.

Basketball furnished carloads of thrills. Nobody who was there at Holland will ever forget the cupboard game. With State leading by one point and time run out, one of the Dutchmen stepped up to the free throw line, with hopes of lifting it up. It was wide. And remember the night down at Dowagiac when everybody, especially Knowlton, was pouring the ball through the mesh. Big Jerry racked up twenty points, the high for the year.

This year’s baseball team showed lots of class. They tied for first in the Big Seven. Some fancy flinging of Clair Kirkpatrick, Lefty Smith, and Dick Hawkins had much to do with the success of the team. Kirk’s one-hitter against St. Joe was one of the finest performances seen this year. Another thrill that will stand in the memory was Hubbell’s game winning double, in the South Haven game.

State came up with another top tennis team. Pore, Fast, and Littig led the way in the top three positions. The match that stands out the most was the first one with Holland. Deal and Dilno playing number two doubles decided the match with a three-set match, 10-8 in the third. The netters won both the conference and Regional titles.

The golf team had a good year. They had a record of six wins and two losses in dual meets. They placed fifth in the State Class B tournament. The Holland match was one that the boys went after. The Cub linksters edged the Dutch by one stroke in a match played in a strong wind and rain. Another big one was the defeat of Dowagiac and St. Clair Kirkpatrick’s second hit of the year, a poppy double, fell safe.

State High got one run in the first inning on an error, stole second, and an infield out. Then, what proved to be the winning run, was scored in the second frame. Meek singled, stole second, and came home on a base hit by Kirkpatrick. The one hit Neuville allowed was of the scratch variety, a dribbler that either Crawford or Spitters should have had.

State High got one run in the first inning on an error, stole second, and an infield out. Then, what proved to be the winning run, was scored in the second frame. Meek singled, stole second, and came home when Kirkpatrick’s second hit of the year, a poppy double, fell safe.

St. Joe’s lone run came after two were out when Meek dropped a third strike, the batter went to first and stole second. Meek then threw wild over Moody’s head. The Cubs’ other scoring chance was nullified when Hubbell was thrown out at the plate.

With one game left to be played Coach Stevens’ record reads 6 wins and 3 losses. The lone conference loss came from the hands of Niles earlier in the season. Clair has credit for 5 wins and the 3 losses, while Hawkins can claim the other victory.

Golfers Place Fifth In State Tournament

State High’s golf team tied for first place in the Regionals, although they lost to Dowagiac in the play-off. They qualified for the State Tournament which was held in Port Huron, and which proved to be one of the finest athletic trips in the school’s history.

The team left early Friday morning and arrived at the Harrington Hotel around 11:45. They played a practice round at the Black River Country Club and then took in the sights at the famous tourist town.

It was rainy and cold the day of the tournament and the Cubs placed fifth. Jack Hill had 84, John Gelder 85, Maynard Nieboer 97, and Joe Zitney 98.

After the meet, the team went Over the Blue Water Bridge in to Canada where they stopped and ate. If your lads look mighty worn out, you’ll understand, because they crammed into two days what most people do in a week.

The members of the team would like to thank the school for a terrific time.

Baseball Squad Ties For First in Big 7

Baseball draws another blank. Clair Kirkpatrick, Dick Hawkins, and Fred Hubbell are the only regulars coming back next year. The rest of the squad will be green. Coach Stevens will have to replace the complete infield and two members of the outfield with inexperienced members. It’s going to be a big job.

The track team will have some sprinters back, but the rest of the squad is graduating. Frank Nugent, Duncan Carter, Ken Fricke, Dick Tough, and Ken Sherman are returning to run the sprints, and Don Calvin, Bruce Brown, and George Hager will be throwing the shot. The rest of the team will be new.

Tennis is losing Jim Pore, Steve Past, Garrett Kruzenga, Tom Holdship, and Paul Deal. Returning will be John Littig, Jim Russel, Bob Dalm, Fred Dilno, and Roger Lininger. Golf prospects are better than average with John Gelder, Maynard Nieboer, Dave Roth, Ron Chippas, and Jim Nichols remaining. The team will be hit hard, however, by the loss of Jack Hill and Joe Zitney.
Seniors Show Off Plans for Future

Believe it or not, State High’s 1950 grads are a bunch of pretty ambitious kids! It’s surprising how many plan to work this summer: Zelma Albert is working for her father; Schuyler Barnum is working in a gas station; Margaret Storey is working at the College Inn; Clinton Drummond at the library; Billie Forbes at Grant’s; Pat Mabie at Lerner’s; Claire Miche at the library; Dave Neale at A.G.Shinville Co.; Clair Patnode at Western; Ruth Pickne at Gilmore’s; Frank Spitters as a carpenter’s apprentice; Brad Smith at a fruit stand; Lorraine Smith plans to work at Borgess Hospital; Bob Smith at Frank’s; Libby Brenner in the library. Jack Hindleider is working as a brick-layer, starting this summer; Lorraine Hope is working in the dairy bar; Hadley Osborn at Lockshore’s; Roger Mills and Bill Page are working at International Paper Co; Joe Zitney is working at a gas station.

Some of the others, Herta Payson, Frances Frey, Tom Holdship, Bill Persons, Ann Solomon, Joe Spicketts, Margaret Storey, Alice Teugh, Jackie Slaughter, Dot Tucker, Ingerid Van Stratton, Lou Woodworth, Jim Pope and Jim Robyn are planning on working but aren’t sure where, yet.

The lucky few who plan to spend most of their time either at home or at some lake include: Steve Fast at Portage Lake, Cleora Fletcher at home at Long Lake, Ted Klinger, Garrett Kruizenga and Doris Dell at the lake, and Mary Fopeano at home.

Planning to work next year are: Joan Harbour, Lois Green, Larry Smith, Paul Strong, Schuyler Barnum, Dick Ayres, Carol Lage, Norm Moody, Don Owen, Gloria Redmond, Alberta Renbarger, Bill Rhodes and Dick Seelye.

Going away to school are Elizabeth Breener, Kalamazoo College; Hadley Osborn, Herta Payson, and Dick Curry, University of Michigan; Ann Eldridge, Michigan State; Mary Lou Woodworth, Northwestern University; Jim Pope, Michigan State; Al Ryan, Michigan State College; Roger Mills is attending a music school in Grand Rapids, Ted Klinger is going to Kalamazoo College; Jerry Knowlton and Mary Popeno are entering Oberlin College in the fall; Fred Hoyt is going to Michigan. Jim Hoekje is also going to the University of Michigan; Linda Howard is going into nurse’s training in Chicago; Steve Fast is going to Dartmouth; Nancy Bryant to Lincoln College, Illinois; Palmeria, Furman U, in South Carolina; Lorraine Smith is going to study at Nazareth this fall and Jill Gannaway at Rockford College.

Who is the president of the largest senior class in the history of State High? Who helped the golf team to six victories? Who plunks the uke better than Godfrey and the Tonnette like Jerry Knowlton? Who else but Jack, “your friend and mine”, Hill.

Jack is 18 years old, blondish, has blue eyes, and stands at 5 ft. 8 in. When I inquired of his plans for the summer, he informed me he is going to teach the alphabet to the ants. When I refused to believe it, he finally said he is going to make like Casey Jones and work on a railroad.

Anyone who has ever seen Jack on the dance floor can tell his first love is music and dancing. Sports fans know him for he has received a letter in baseball, basketball, football, and golf.

Attending Western next year are Zelma Albert, Marilyn Carlson, Don Dooley, Clint Drummond, Cleora Fletcher, Billie Forbes, Frannie Frey, Tom Holdship, Lorranie Hope, Trev Jones, Gaylord Kitchen and Pat Mabie, Claire Miche, Dave Neale, Clair Patnode, Bill Persons, Ruth Pickne, Ann Solomon, Joe Spicketts, Frank Spitters, Margaret Storey, Jane Smith, Jackie Slaughter, Brad Smith, Mary Ann Tinkham, Alice Teugh, Dorothy Tucker, Ingerid Van Stratton, Art West, Alene Watterworth, Jane Williams and Joe Zitney.

There are a few who still haven’t completed their plans for the summer and the coming year. Mel Copeland, Skip Sterner, Don Dooley and John Smith are both working on farming courses next year, Don at Western, John at State. Jim Robyn plans to join the navy next fall and Dick Ayres and Jane Smith are both moving to Detroit this summer.

Good luck, Seniors!

STATE HIGHLIGHTS

This year two members of our coaching staff have decided to leave our highly esteemed halls. They are Alfred Hinckley, who was also speech and dramatics coach, and Allen Bush.

Mr. Hinckley is looking for a college teaching position, or if he does not select a job that appeals to him, he plans to return to New York and work on his Ph.D. degree. He says he has enjoyed working with the students of State High. “They are a pleasant personable group.”

Mr. Hinckley says that he has in some ways enjoyed teaching speech here on the hilltop and in some respects not. He says the students are not always aware of the vital importance in everyday living.

Bon Voyage. “Al,” we’ll miss you here on the hilltop.

This year we are also losing our basketball and track coach, Al Bush. Mr. Bush plans to return to Battle Creek Central. He says that he has enjoyed his work here at State High and says that he has had a good time working with the kids.

As to the athletic prospects for the near future, he says that Nugent, Carter, and Teugh make the track prospects quite bright. He states the cagers are expected to have a better season than last winter. They will have a better balanced team.

To all would-be athletes he hands this advice: "If you plan to go out for athletics, stick to it and don't try to squeeze in too many extra-curricular activities."
Locker Slams Shut

At the end of the year everybody seems to find lots of new and exciting things to do. The Junior boys and their dates have found the "Ranch House" "super" for dancing.

Frank Nugent has been giving some pretty rowdy parties recently. What's happening?

Some of the Sophomore girls have been increasing their sun tans by spending days at Gull Lake. The back yard is a popular place for many of us.

Shirley Loughead was entertained by Centralite Denny Stoops. An enjoyable time was had by all.

The "wheelish" Western boys are planning a party for some State High gals. Have fun, Shirley, Patty, and Ruthie.

Dick Seelye is becoming pretty well acquainted with a certain character in Uncle Tom's Cabin. Couldn't be little Eva, could it?

Addie Anne Tolhurst is keeping pretty well stocked with silver polish. Got to keep a certain little "I.D." bracelet shined.

Ann Eldridge entertained the members of the Highlander - Highites staff at her cabin on Lake Michigan last Saturday. Everybody helped with the potluck dinner.

Names are news, especially when they are linked together in pre-prom promises. Here are a few of the duets on the program.

They're Here

The long awaited day is coming.

This year's Highlanders have arrived! The hour for distribution will be immediately following the Honor's Day Assembly, Friday, June 9th. We advise you to either wear gloves or wash your hands well before picking them up, because their beautiful covers are white. (For those who pass their annuals around, we here-by proclaim "Be Careful!" Week.) They will be given out by classes; the Seniors will go to 211A, the Juniors to 210A, the Sophomores to 206A, and the Freshmen to 219A.

For those of you who haven't paid yet, and for those who now wish to buy a Highlander but haven't ordered it, staff members will be on hand in each room to relieve you of your hard earned cash and sell the few extra Highlanders.

The Seniors Advise

When you stop to think about it, high school is probably one of the biggest times of your life. The up and coming freshmen have the whole four years still ahead of them. The sophomores and juniors have some ahead and some behind. But for the seniors there remains a "Boulevard of Memories," and no doubt very pleasant ones, of proms, football and basketball games, Saturday night dances and dates, exams, classes, teachers, and advisors. These and many other recollections are not going to be easily forgotten. As a last word the departing Seniors have left a bit of advice for the benefit of the State Highites who are not yet ready to leave the good times and not-so-good times which high school has to offer.

Winifred Craig—Don't worry. Freshman, the advisors aren't as bad as they're made up to be.

Jill Gannaway—Enjoy yourself, it's later than you think.

Al Ryan—Boys, don't confess your guilt when reporting to the office. Dr. Sebaly may just want to pass the time of day.

Elizabeth Brenner—See things objectively.

Cleora Fletcher—Keep your head up high through the storm and if she gets mad just kiss her.

Dick Curry—Don't let studies interfere with your education.

Bill Rhodes—Stay away from the women and Doc. Sebaly.

Alice Teugh—Learn to look intelligent when your mind is a blank.

Joanie Harbour—Be careful of the men.

Roger Mills—Be careful of the Sophomore girls, they'll break your heart.

Mary Lou Woodworth—Never skip. I mean, get caught at it.

Harriet Logan—Don't skip classes. I'll clue 'ya it's rough.

Jim McCrumb—Take good care of my bike, Pat Coffield.

Joan Bauliera—I'll just have to give up because I can't think of anything the States Highites need.

'My Shadow'

My Shadow

I had a little set of books,
That toured the school with me,
And what was the use of them,
Is more than I could see.

They filled me full of knowledge,
That went all through my head,
But my homework kept me reading,
Although 'twas past the time for bed.

From early in September,
Through winter and the snow,
My History and all the rest,
With me they would go.

No one seemed to realize,
How I liked to play,
My books stayed close to me,
I couldn't escape in any way.

Exams are due so very soon,
For summertime is near,
Now out the door my book will go.

VACATION TIME IS ALMOST HERE.

Dear Editor,

We, the staff of the Highlites, want to thank our Editor, Mary Po-piano an all the rest of the staff what has worked as Ediura for hour papur, four there kine gidance and helpful suggestions in the pas yeer. We has enjoyed workin unner yeer leadership. We may have writ our articles wrong and handed them in late, but you servived and managed to put out a good paper. Even tho we shall return nex yeer, we shall miss yur gidance. We will always remembru u.

Yr. truly,
Felix J. Bertwhistle

Jackie Slaughter—Take plenty of sun-tan oil on Senior Skip Day!
Lois Green—Start your term paper at least two years ahead of time, otherwise you'll never get it done.
Ruth Pionke—Steer clear of Miss Crisman.
Shirley Loughead—Get some sleep while you can.
Pat Mabie—Don't do anything I wouldn't do if I were in your shoes and had the opportunity.
Ann Eldridge—Don't take advice from seniors.
Gaylord Kitchen—Don't.
