Opening Panel Discussion: Using Data for Continuous Improvement

Office of Institutional Effectiveness
References and Resources:

Below is a list of resources and references that were shared by the panelists who participated in the 2021 Assessment in Action Conference panel on Friday, April 9, 2021. The references with links will take you to the open-sources publications. If you need assistance to access the other references, please consult with your local librarian. Thank you!

Wise Intervention Database; found at https://www.wiseinterventions.org

Collecting Evidence to Answer “Why Should This Programming Be Effective”: Program Theory/Evidence-Informed Programming (links included to open resources)

Resources on program theory/evidence-informed practice, including didactic videos:

Collecting Evidence to Answer “What Programming Did Students Actually Experience”: Implementation Fidelity

Resources on implementation fidelity, included didactic videos: