STUDENTS FIGHT CAMPUS HUNGER WITH STUFF THE BUS

The stereotype of the “broke college student” surviving on ramen noodles and boxed macaroni and cheese is familiar to most. Students, short on cash, buy the cheapest, yet most filling foods they can find. But what happens when students can’t afford even the least expensive food options? READ MORE

NEW FOR GIVING DAY 2019: BUCKS FOR BRONCOS

If you travel along Campus Drive in the Parkview Campus on October 7, 8 and 9, you’ll encounter a unique way to participate in Western Michigan University’s 2019 Giving Day: Bucks for Broncos. The College of Engineering and Applied Sciences’ students, staff, and faculty will collect cash donations from drivers as they enter and exit the Business, Technology and Research Park. ARE YOU READY FOR HOMECOMING AND FAMILY WEEKEND?

Join your fellow Bronco alumni and friends for WMU's 96th Homecoming and Family Weekend! Oct. 9 – 13 will be packed with events all around campus. We will kick the week off with Giving Day and regional events on Oct. 9, gather for WMU's biggest tailgate event of the year before the Homecoming football game against Miami (OH) on Oct. 12, and so much more in between. You won't want to miss it! READ MORE

PRESIDENT MONTGOMERY DELIVERS STATE OF THE UNIVERSITY ADDRESS

Montgomery spoke of the importance of building innovative academic and support programming for students, such as the University's initiative to revise the general studies curriculum—WMU Essential Studies. He also pointed to the development of a new college that offers an academic home with the necessary supports for new students and students who are transitioning between majors. READ MORE

TECHNOLOGY CREATES NEW LAYER OF SAFETY FOR PEOPLE WITH VISUAL IMPAIRMENTS

Dr. Pnina Ari-Gur, professor of mechanical and aerospace engineering, says a friend who is legally blind opened her eyes to some of the physical challenges people with visual impairments face every day. Generally armed with a cane to identify impending obstacles, Ari-Gur thought there must be a way to use technology to improve the experience. READ MORE

HAVE YOU HEARD? THE WMU ALUMNI ASSOCIATION IS BACK!

We have a whole new look, and it doesn't stop there - this is YOUR association and we are here for you. Moving forward, we want to be clear about who we are, what we do, and who we serve. We will continue to offer alumni events, benefits, and resources, but we are also working to elevate the experience for all alumni, friends, fans, and family of WMU. Learn more about the WMU Alumni Association's rebranding on their new website. READ MORE
