SUZY DICK

Sun Day

The day is hot.
Only a torpid tremor stirs
Sculptured trees.
A dog lies panting in the sun,
His thick fur shining,
Radiating dry heat.
A sprinkler whirls like a dervish
And the sun sets silver gems
On wet grass.
Willow branches bend
Pressed by heat to reach for relief
On flat, wet ground.
The sun, the cause,
White hot in heaven,
Lets no cloud block its path.
