TAD ANTHONY

For Someone's Sake

Rained-on-Rats: Crawl in gutters-gray; Scrimp and scrap for food and pay and
curse at those who do not;
Scurry from the flood and run to run
to hide in stoned-up-goods,
alone,
to eat their rotting meat.

Rained-on-Rats: Rule the frozen snow; Scratch and crucify the call and
rant at those who do not;
Scurry from the pack and run to run
to hide in snowed-up-goods,
alone,
to eat their rotten meat.

For Someone's Sake:

Melt, Warm, Cherish the Voice Who Cries in Beauty's call
And can not move
at all.
at all.
