Which is a shame. Well, I find the British reviewers are now beating me up and I am sure that part of the reason is that they're British and I'm American and they don't like to think that American poetry is overcoming British poetry. But it is also a desire to beat down that sort of prestigist note and resist it. And it's also possible they don't like my poems.

Words on the Ignorance of Birds ironic that so many birds soaring through a barren sky can pan the plush of the peopled-world and fly right by
