9-7-2012

Talking Points for Bronco Bash

John M. Dunn
Western Michigan University, john.dunn@wmich.edu

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.wmich.edu/dunn
Part of the Higher Education Commons

WMU ScholarWorks Citation
https://scholarworks.wmich.edu/dunn/447

This Speech is brought to you for free and open access by the Office of the President at ScholarWorks at WMU. It has been accepted for inclusion in WMU President John Dunn by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at WMU. For more information, please contact maira.bundza@wmich.edu.
Talking Points for Dr. Dunn
Bronco Bash 2012
Friday, September 7, 3pm, Miller Plaza

• Welcome students! Special thanks to: Chris Sligh (Director of SALP) and graduate student [Dah Lon Tee] D’laontie Lewis. Also, many thanks go to Sara Hurd, this year’s Bronco Bash Coordinator for the many hours she spent organizing this terrific celebration.

• This year marks the 32nd anniversary of Bronco Bash!
  o This event kicks off the school year and brings together the students, professors, and the university community.
  o Planning for Bronco Bash 2012 started months ago, and we are very excited this day is finally here!

• Bronco Bash has 450 booths this year, ranging from student organizations, to academic departments, to local businesses.
  o Thank you to all booth participants. Your interest in WMU student is well placed. Broncos are the BEST!

• Take your time at Bronco Bash. Talk with folks, make new friends and discover new opportunities to get involved on your campus.

• If you have questions or want to locate particular booths, there’s an Information Table located by the fountain in front of Sprau Tower.

• We’re excited to have four terrific bands playing for us today, including the headliner “Sparks the Rescue” who will be joining us a little later. Be sure to stick around for all the performances. You just might spot a few Bronco performers on this stage before the day is done.

• Remember, it’s a great day to be a Bronco. And, get ready for a fantastic academic year!