

New Subscribers

Subscriptions to MFN

The MEDIEVAL FEMINIST NEWSLETTER appears twice yearly, in the fall and spring. Subscriptions are for the academic year and cost $5 in the U.S., $6 in Canada, and $10 in the U.K. and Europe. Subscriptions cover the cost of copying and mailing.

Some back issues are available at U.S. $2.50 each.

Subscriptions and requests for back issues should be sent to: Thelma Fenster, Medieval Studies Center, Fordham University, Bronx, New York 10458.

Judith Bronfman, 125 W. 76th Street, New York 10023

D. Merrimon Crawford, 100-A West Carr St., Carrboro, NC 27510

Interests: Medieval literature (French, Middle and Old English);

Literary theory

Sheila Delany, English Department, Simon Fraser Univ., Burnaby, B.C., Canada

Hester G. Gelber, Department of Religious Studies, Bld. 70, Stanford Univ., Stanford, CA 94305

Interest: Late medieval intellectual history

R. James Goldstein, Arizona Center for Medieval and Renaissance Studies, Arizona State University, Tempe, AZ 85287

Kathleen C. Kamerick, 321 Hutchinson, Iowa City, Iowa 52240

Interests: Late medieval spirituality, medieval literacy, book ownership

Carol Nappholz, 8524 E. Jamison Avenue, Englewood, CO 80112

Interests: Dream visions; women; romance

Verena E. Neuberger-Noetzli, Ebelstrasse 5, CH 8032, Zurich, Switzerland

See Notes and Queries

Lee Patterson, English Department, Duke University, Durham, NC 27706

Interests: Old French and Middle English literatures

Judith Rice Rothschild, 105 Seven Oaks, Boone, NC 28607

Interests: Old French Literature; Medieval history as it relates to French literature.

C. Christine Salmon, 2907 Arkansas, Dirkinson, TX 77539

Interest: Christine de Pizan

Jean Owens Schaefer, Art Department, Univ. of Wyoming, Laramie 82071

Interests: medieval manuscripts, women artists

Miriam Shadis, 1105 Ninth Street, Durham, No. Carolina 27705

Interests: peasant women; feudalism as a mode of production and as a social system; implications of female power in the Middle Ages (esp. Blanche of Castile and Berengere de Leon); women's donations to religious houses; theory and methodology: feminist, marxist, anthropological, literary.