Time is Just a Trickster in Disguise

Bob Psalmonds

I look at the watch in imagined hope that some real time has distance passed Knowing deep within that I must wait for icy thawing of eternity's forgiveness No hour hand will clear this foggy mind of wasted dreams and endless regrets Sweeping second hand losing count of my flowing tears, hollow sighs, dreams Nor the minute hand give healing touch
To my burning soul as I await response Please bring me the long-awaited answer which will dissolve away this pain.
