Auriculares
Como me guardas
a menudo del mundo feo, de un realidad de dolor
Heridas que yo aviso en una isla sonida
Como me mantienes mi cordura

Las veces que mis maestros me atacaron por razones no entendería por muchos años
Las veces que mis padres se gritaron, lucharon en nuestro casa, tuve que encontrar un escape

Cuando camino por la calle, por la acera, en cualquier parte Y encuentro los ojos de otros. Algunos de odio, asco, degradación me pone tranquilo. O me ayuda con las lágrimas.

Me apoya a través corazones rotos.
Me di inspiración por arte, escritura, evolución
En viajes largos, me pone en estado de pensamientos fondos
Y en paseos de necesidad

Ahora estoy más cómodo cuando estás en la oreja mía.
Puedo caminar sin música, nadie necesita verte.
Siempre y cuando tú estás conmigo y tú te instalas cómodamente

Como me guardas

Headphones

How you protect me

Often from the ugly world, from a reality of pain

Wounds that I avoid on an island of sound

How you maintain my sanity

The times that my teachers attacked me

For reasons that I would not understand for many years

The times that my parents would scream, fight

In our home, I had to find an escape

When I walk down the street, the sidewalk, wherever

And I encounter the eyes of others. Those of hate, disgust, degradation

You made me calm. Or you helped me with the tears.

You helped me through broken hearts.

You gave me inspiration for art, writing, evolution

On long trips, you put me in a state of deep thought

And on necessary walks

Now I am more comfortable when you are in my ear

I can walk without music, nobody needs to see you.

As long as you are with me and you are comfortably at home

Headphones

How you save me
