Death Versus Mutual of Omaha

Death.

The insurance salesman of life.
He comes to your house, even though you don't want to see him.

You can pretend you're not home,
But he can see you hiding behind the couch.
He enters smiling.
"Lose somethin' back there?", he'll say,
Trying to be funny, even though he knows insurance is serious stuff.

Once inside, you try and get rid of him.
Telling him you have a roast in the oven,
Or you have to take your dog to get shots.

"Could you come back some other time?, I'm pretty busy."
Too late, he's sitting in the Comfy Chair,
handing you brochures and pamphlets.

Sooner or later, we all have to buy Insurance.
