NORA PLUTH

The Gray

I live in the gray
The space of not knowing
Floating in the in between

I think in gray
My thoughts a contradiction
The peaceful confusion

I rest in gray
In the ambiguity of life
And the peace of today

I grieve in gray
Where tears leave trenches I am reminded
Of how much I loved

I love in gray
Never giving everything
Afraid of losing it all

I laugh in gray
In the joy of this moment
And the knowledge of it

I find in gray
Who are we if not gray?
Who are we if not broken but whole?

I am the gray
Nothing at all
And everything I want to be
