

ENVIRONMENTALIST IS NEXT LIBRARIANSHIP SPEAKER

Dr. Douglas B. Seba, technical liaison officer, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, National Information Center for Enforcement, Denver, Colo., will give a free, public address at 10 a.m. Thursday, June 2, in 2060 Waldo Library here on campus. He is the third speaker in the Alberta L. Brown Lecture series for 1977 presented by WMU's School of Librarianship. Seba's topic will be "Using Management Techniques and On-Line Interface for the Administrative Hearing Process."

The Upjohn Co. of Kalamazoo established the series in honor of Alberta L. Brown, former head librarian of the company's technical library, and visiting professor at the University. The next speaker will be Peter Draz, head librarian, State Historical Society of Wisconsin, who will visit the campus Tuesday, June 14.

PREMIERE CONCERT FOR TRUMPET GUILD IS MONDAY

The WMU Trumpet Guild, a new organization affiliated with the department of music, will give a free, public concert at 8 p.m. Monday, June 6, in Oakland Recital Hall. Founded last January by Donald Bullock, Leonard Meretta and Stephen Jones, all members of the music department faculty, the organization includes three Kalamazoo alumni and three undergraduate students also. They will play selections by Britton, Mozart, Altenberg and Baldwin.

ALUMNUS BRINGS CHILDREN'S THEATRE TO KALAMAZOO

Clay Bodine, a 1970 graduate of WMU, is the director of an Artstour production of a new version of "Hansel and Gretel" which will be shown at 1 and 3 p.m. Saturday, June 4, in the Kalamazoo Civic Auditorium. Tickets are $1.50 for children and $2.50 for adults, and are on sale at the Civic Theatre box office and Family Foods, Southland Shopping Center.

CLASS TAPS COMMUNITY FOR INFORMATION

Four special guests representing widely varied segments of the Kalamazoo community will visit the WMU class "Community Resources For Learning" from 4:30-6:30 p.m. Wednesday, June 8, in the Flossie Sangren Room, Sangren Hall.

Those who will take part in the classroom discussion will be: James Mandrell, district representative for U.S. Congressman Garry Brown; Dru Kramer, district representative for State Representative Mary Brown; Vi Palladino of the Voluntary Action Center, Kalamazoo; and Eileen Davis, a member of the City of Kalamazoo Planning Department and active in other community organizations. The class, taught by Mary Cordier, assistant professor of teacher education, is made up primarily of teachers.

The public is invited to the Wednesday meeting free of charge.

RESERVATION PROCESS CHANGED

Effective immediately, the process for reserving The Oaklands, the former home of University presidents on campus, for social functions has been changed, according to Thomas J. Carr, director of Auxiliary Enterprises. Under the new system, reservations will be taken by Vivianne Robinson, administrative assistant, 1240 Ad Building--phone 383-6060.

REFRESHER COURSE FOR FLIGHT INSTRUCTORS IS JUNE 7-9

A flight instructor refresher clinic will be held from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. Tuesday, June 7 until Thursday, June 9 in 210 University Student Center here on campus. Sponsored by the WMU transportation technology department in cooperation with the Federal Aviation Administration, it will meet the requirements of a refresher course for chief flight instructors. The $50 fee for registration covers all text materials required for the three-day session.

FACULTY AND STAFF HOUSING LISTED

All faculty and staff members interested in houses or apartments that are for sale or rent, or who wish to sell or rent housing, are urged to call 383-6114, Commuter Student Services, 3510 Student Services Building.

STAINED-GLASS WINDOW MEMORIAL FOR STARRING

The late Charles R. Starring, former history professor here for 40 years until his retirement in 1969, will be memorialized by a stained-glass window in Kanley Chapel. Funds for its purchase were contributed by close friends and his colleagues in the history department.

Starring had been president of the Kalamazoo County Historical Society and a trustee of the Michigan Historical Society. Contributions for the Starring Kanley Chapel Window Fund may be made by contacting the University Foundation Office--phone 383-6160.

WOMEN'S GROUP TO MEET IN LANSING

The WMU Center for Women's Services will sponsor a bus trip to Lansing on Saturday, June 11, for the Michigan Women's Conference in the Lansing Civic Center.

The bus will leave from Read Fieldhouse parking lot at 7:30 a.m. and return by 6:30 p.m. The charge will be $4.50 per person and must be paid by Monday, June 6. Advance registration is required -- phone 383-6097.

"Focus: Michigan Women" is the title of the conference funded by a special grant from Congress and co-sponsored by the UN Decade for Women.

CHAMBER ORCHESTRA CONCERT WILL BE JUNE 7

The next Chamber Music series, sponsored by the department of music, will feature pianist-harpsichordist Susan Gilbertson, a graduate assistant from Elk Mound, Wis., and flutist Dr. Charles E. Osborne, associate professor of music, along with the spring session orchestra conducted by Herbert Butler, professor of music. They will play Albinoni's "Concerto in D for Strings," Ernest Bloch's "Concerto Grosso for Piano and Strings" and Bach's "Suite Number 2 for Flute and Strings."

The program begins at 8 p.m. in Oakland Recital Hall.

CAMPUS BRIEFS

Based on a recent survey of 92 corporate consumer relations officials, Dr. Max O. McKittrick, professor of business education and administrative services, has concluded that businessmen are reluctant to give college students internship experience. His findings appear in an article entitled "Consumer Relations: A New Curriculum for Collegiate Schools of Business" in the latest issue of the Journal of Business Education.

Dr. John R. Lindbeck, professor of industrial education, conducted seminars for vocational educators and administrators at the Jackson (Mich.) Area Technical Center and at Florida A & M University, Tallahassee, last week.

Marlon Gerould, director of international student services, was installed as Admissions Section chairman of the National Association for Foreign Student Affairs at the organization's annual conference May 24-28, in New Orleans.

The second edition of the textbook "Automechanics" by Herbert E. Ellinger, associate professor of transportation technology, has been published by Prentice-Hall, Englewood Cliffs, N.J.

The monthly journal of public affairs, literature and arts, Commonweal, contains an article by Dr. Edward T. Callan, professor of English, in which he describes the influence of Irish poet-dramatist William B. Yeats upon American poet W. H. Auden.

Dr. G. K. Kripalani, professor of economics, presented a paper entitled "A Model of Population Growth Involving Mortality-Fertility Interactions: Some Tentative Results for India" at the annual meeting of the American Statistical Association in Boston recently.

A research project by Theone Hughes, assistant professor of English, was cited as one of a few promising current studies showing that practice in one language skill results in improvement in another, according to a review in a recent issue of the Journal of Reading.

Robert Ethridge, administrative assistant to President Bernhard, was a featured speaker at a symposium sponsored by the Michigan Association of Affirmative Action Officials, Inc. here on campus last week. He discussed "Affirmative Recruiting and Hiring."

Dr. Nancy Falk, associate professor of religion, will be a participant in the June 13-Aug. 5 seminar presented by the National Endowment for the Humanities at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

- 2 Alberta L. Brown lecture: "Using Management Techniques and On-Line Interface for the Administrative Hearing Process," Dr. Douglas B. Seba, Technical Liaison Officer, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Denver, Colo., 2060 Waldo Library, 10 a.m.
- *4 Singlehood Workshop, 205 Univ. Student Center, 9 a.m.-3 p.m.
- *4 Play, "Hansel and Gretel," produced by WMU alumnus Clay Bodine, Kalamazoo Civic Theatre, 1 and 3 p.m.
- 6 Chamber music concert, Trumpet Guild, Oakland Recital Hall, 8 p.m.
- 7 Chamber Orchestra concert, Oakland Recital Hall, 8 p.m.
- *7-9 Flight Instructor Refresher Clinic, 210 Univ. Student Center, 8 a.m.-4 p.m.
- 9 Faculty Senate meeting, 1008 Distributive Education Building, 7 p.m.
- 9 Sky Bronco business meeting, Kiva Room, Student Services Building, 8 p.m.
- *Indicates admission fee charged.

JOB OPENINGS

Below is a listing of the position openings currently being posted by the University Personnel Department for University employees. Regular full-time and part-time employees interested in applying for these positions should submit a Job Opportunity Program application form to the Personnel Department during the posting period.

Secretary Senior, HF (H06), #77-277, Anthropology, posted 5/31 - 6/6
Secretary I, HD (H04), #77-278, Research Services, posted 5/31 - 6/6
Secretary II, HE (H05), #77-279, Research Services, posted 5/31 - 6/6
Assistant Dean, E-99, #77-270, Continuing Education, posted 5/25 - 6/1
Supervisor Health Center Office, E-08, #77-281 Health Center, posted 6/2 - 6/8

HA - HD clerical positions are not required to be posted. University employees interested in these positions should register with the Personnel Office for assistance in securing positions of these levels.

INSTRUCTIONAL POSITIONS

Below is a listing of the instructional position openings currently being posted by the Personnel Department. For additional information about these positions please refer to the posting board on campus, or contact the Employment Office in Personnel.

Instructor, 2 positions, Temporary 1 Year, #77-275 and #77-276, University Libraries, posted 5/31 - 6/6
Assistant Professor, Continuing, #77-280, Accountancy, posted 6/2 - 6/8
Assistant Professor, Continuing, #77-283, Management, posted 6/2 - 6/8
Associate Professor, Continuing, #77-284, Health and Human Services, 6/2 - 6/8

ATTENTION FACULTY SENATE MEMBERS

The next regular meeting of the Faculty Senate will be at 7 p.m. Thursday, June 9, in 1008 Distributive Education Building.

DOCTORAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULED

The oral examination of Michael Ray Nusbaumer for doctor of philosophy will be held at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, June 16, in Reading Clinic Conference Room, 3514 Sangren Hall. The topic will be "SPADA: Statures, Inconsistency, and Alcohol Consumption."

JEREMY ELECTED PRESIDENT OF WAHP

Marilyn "Jamie" Jeremy, has been reelected to her second term as president of Western's Association of Hourly Personnel (WAHP) for the year ending June 30, 1978. She is a College of Applied Sciences executive secretary.

Other new WAHP officers are: vice president--E. Jean Goodenough, accounts payable; secretary--Virginia S. Doornbos, food service; treasurer--Kitty Harrison, Honors College; members-at-large--Rosalaine M. Nydegger, Waldo Library, and Dolores A. Shaffer, food service.

DATES FOR "SEMINAR '77" ANNOUNCED

The University's 26th annual summer music camp for high school students will be held from July 17-30 on campus here. Instruction on all orchestral instruments, as well as voice, piano, organ and composition will be taught by WMU music department faculty.

CAMPUS BOOKSTORE IS CLOSED

WMU's Campus Bookstore in the University Student Center is closed for inventory Thursday, June 2. It will re-open on Friday, June 3, for regular hours--7:45 a.m.-4:15 p.m. Monday through Friday; closed on Saturdays and Sundays.

REQUEST ANY CHANGES FOR DIRECTORY

All faculty and staff members who wish to make changes in their listings as they appear in the University's telephone directory should send a written notice to: Information Center, 2110 Administration Building. The 1977-78 directory includes the name, title or classification, campus address and campus phone number for all employees, and spouse's name, home address and home phone number UNLESS a written request is sent asking that all off-campus (home) information be deleted from the directory. The only other option is to have the spouse's name deleted, but not the home address and home phone number. To remove the spouse's name, an employee must change his/her personnel computer file by writing Fred Hunt, 1333 Administration Building.

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY FACULTY WIN HONORS

Terry D. Korhorn, instructor, and Mary Anne Bush, assistant professor, in the University's department of occupational therapy, have recently won statewide awards.

Korhorn received one of 25 of Governor William Milliken's 1977 Michigan Minuteman Citations as one who "at every opportunity champions our great state, its heritage, hospitality, dynamic present and future." It was given to him during a special ceremony at the State Capitol in Lansing.

Bush was named winner of the "Outstanding Occupational Therapist Award for 1977" by the Michigan Occupational Therapy Association. It was based on her accomplishments over the past year, including the coordination of a special teaching clinic here in which she supervises students who treat physically disabled clients.

INDUSTRY SEMINAR IN CORRUGATING WILL BE HELD HERE

For the first time in the history of WMU's paper science and engineering department, a course entitled "Corrugating: Principles and Practice Seminar" will be conducted from June 6-10 on campus. In addition to classroom sessions, laboratory work will consist of corrugating demonstrations and visits to two box-making firms in southwestern Michigan.

ANNUAL READING INSTITUTE DATES ANNOUNCED

Dr. J. Lloyd Eldredge, coordinator of elementary education for the state of Utah, will be the featured speaker at the 6th Annual Reading Institute, June 20-24, here in Sangren Hall. The institute for elementary and secondary teachers, and school administrators, will allow participants to work in small group sessions in "Team Sharing," "Working In Teams" and "A Curbstone Experience." Eldredge will speak during each day of the program.

LEARNING REFERRAL SERVICE IS ENTITLED "PARALLEL"

A group of WMU students have started a new way of learning on the campus entitled "Parallel." Jack Di-Giovanni, St. Clair Shores junior, and Carol Rogers, a sophomore from Ridgewood, N.J., project coordinators, compare the service to that of a matchmaker--they can put someone, not necessarily a student, who is interested in learning a subject in touch with someone who teaches it, and vice versa. Subjects which have already been requested include arts, crafts, languages and bike repairs. Parallel service is free and is open from noon-8 p.m., Monday through Thursday, during the spring session at 383-1994.

CAMPUS BRIEFS

Elizabeth Giedeman, associate professor of Classics, and Dr. George Osmun, professor of Classics, participated in the spring meeting of the Michigan Classical Conference at Wayne State University on April 30. Osmun is immediate past president, and Giedeman, was reelected for a three year term as secretary-treasurer.

Robert E. Boughner, assistant dean of the College of Applied Sciences, was program chairman and co-host for the joint meeting of the North-Central section and Indiana-Illinois section of the American Society for Engineering Education held recently at Tri-State University, Angola, Indiana. He has served on the North-Central executive board for the past year, and at the meeting was elected to the board for a two year term as member-at-large.

Eugene Paulson, director of WMU's Muskegon Regional Center, was elected chairperson of the division of Administration of Part-Time Student Programs of the National University Extension Association for 1978.

Robert P. Johnston, associate professor of art, is the author of an article in the inaugural issue of "Minority Voices," a new journal published by the Paul Robeson Cultural Center, Pennsylvania State University.

Dr. Laurel A. Grotzinger, professor, School of Librarianship here, spoke on "Why Not Now? Network Libraries and the Future of Information Services" at a recent Technical and Business Information Conference at Lake Michigan College. She addressed the librarians from the Berrien County Library Consortium.