Tickets are still available at the Auditorium.

Music Dept. to Present New Structures in Sound Series

Western's department of music will utilize almost 200 performers to stage its annual Miller Auditorium version of the New Structures in Sound series at 8 p.m. Friday, Sept. 27.

This mixed media event will combine symphonic, jazz, rock and electronic sounds with dance, lights and theatrics, according to C. Curtis-Smith, assistant professor of music and series coordinator.

General admission tickets at $1.00 per person are on sale at the Auditorium.

The University Symphony Orchestra, under the baton of Herbert Butler, will perform Webern's "Six Pieces, Opus 6." A student-faculty electronic jazz-rock ensemble will be followed by a work for pipe organ and tape. A dance work will precede the first performance from a new ensemble—the University Jazz Orchestra, and the program will conclude with a tongue-in-cheek composition performed by the University Wind Ensemble, directed by Carl Bjerregaard.

The electronic jazz-rock ensemble will utilize miscellaneous woodwind instruments, strings, keyboards and trumpet along with a mini-Moog synthesizer and vocals to perform two works with curious titles, "Elmore's Gut Truck" by Geoff Stradling and "Erika's Beautiful Eyes" by Ladd McIntosh.

Western's new University organist, Kim Kasling, will use Miller Auditorium's Schlicker organ—one of the world's largest completely portable pipe organs—to perform Richard Stewart's "Prelude for Organ and Tape." The tape consists of mixed and enhanced recordings of actual organ sounds.

Clara Gamble of Western's department of dance has choreographed a new work presently dubbed "Currently Untitled." Students and faculty from the dance department will perform this work which has been designed to music of the contemporary Greek composer Iannis Xenakis.

The new 25-member University Jazz Orchestra, directed by Trent Kynaston, assistant professor of music, will perform "Hum a Few Bars" by Bob Florence and "Final Analysis" by Don Ellis.

Concluding the program will be a curious work composed in 1972 by Trent Kynaston. Entitled "Social Comment," it evolves from taped sounds which emanate from a "laughing box." The resulting music can be quite hilarious, but it must be performed in a somber, straight-forward manner. Composition could indeed be more difficult than the notes for the 45 members of the University Wind Ensemble.

Workshop Tuesday on Archives, Regional History Collections

An in-service faculty workshop, sponsored by Western's Division of Instructional Development, will be held Tuesday, Sept. 24, at three separate campus locations.

The workshops, centering on the University Archives and the Regional History Collections at WMU, are open to all WMU faculty as part of a faculty enrichment program which will focus on classroom presentations, student projects and professional research.

The major resource person at the initial workshop series will be Dr. Timothy L. Smith, professor of education and history at Johns Hopkins University. He also is director of the Program on American Religious History.

Smith is an experienced archivist who has greatly helped faculty colleagues utilize archival material for their own research and teaching activities. On Monday, Sept. 23, he will talk to academic department faculty members at various times as scheduled by those departments.

His presentation on "Archival Material as a Resource for the Classroom and Professional Research" will be given on Sept. 24 at 8:30 a.m., Room 2064, Industrial and Engineering Technology Building; at 10 a.m. in the Flossie Sangren Room, Sangren Hall; and at 1:30 p.m. in Room 105, North Hall, East Campus.

Smith is responsible for a doctoral program in American religious history at Johns Hopkins. In the past, he has taught at Eastern Nazarene College, Quincy, Mass., for seven years; served as chairman of the History Department at East Texas State College for three years; and then joined the University of Minnesota faculty before going to Johns Hopkins.

Expand VA Services; Open New Offices

Expanded services for area military service veterans are now available at Western under a new Veterans Administration program that has two full-time VA representatives here on campus. They are Stan Coleman and Larry Castle, both veterans and both WMU graduates. They are presently housed in the Registrar's Office, 3210 Administration Building, but they plan to move about Oct. 1 to new campus quarters in a house at 843 Steers Ave. Their telephone number is 383-8151.

"This new arrangement will expedite things since we are both VA employees," observed Castle. He noted that they have direct communication with the Detroit VA offices. "All area veterans are encouraged to contact us if they have any questions about benefits," said Coleman, who was WMU's veteran's cost of instruction program coordinator in 1973-74. He pointed out that policy changes are being made almost daily.

They estimated that there are more than 1,500 veterans on the WMU campus and closer to 1,700 if dependents such as orphans or wives and children of disabled veterans are included.

Some of the most frequently asked questions deal with late payment of benefits, insurance coverage, dental care, disability, educational assistance, hospital care, GI loans and dependency status.

Girl Struck; Set Memorial Services

Memorial services for Barbara Lynn Gould, 18, will be held at noon Friday, Sept. 20, in Kanley Chapel. A freshman in psychology, she was fatally injured Monday afternoon when she was struck by a runaway beverage truck on Hays Circle, behind the Administration Building.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Gould of Sterling, N.J., formerly of Birmingham, Mich. She resided in Smith-Burnham Hall here on campus.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Friday at the Vasu-Lynch Funeral Home in Royal Oak, Mich.

Enrollment Up; Numbers 21,113

Western's 1974 fall semester enrollment of 21,113 is up almost 200 over a year ago, according to Clayton Maus, dean of admissions, records and registration. Last fall's enrollment was 20,922, or 191 less than now.

Two classes have registered dramatic gains, with the total of graduate students increasing by 556, to 4,138, and the number of freshmen now at 4,752, up by 525. The graduate student total marks the first time it has surpassed the 4,000 level in WMU's history.

To Discuss Economy, Ethnic Community

The United States economy and America's ethnic community will be the subject of a free public talk at Western on Friday, Sept. 20, by Dr. Herrington J. Bryce, director of research, Joint Center for Political Studies, Washington, D.C.

Bryce's lecture, from 10-11:30 a.m. in room 2750 Knauss Hall, will include a question and answer period.

William Murrain, director of the Office of Minority Student Services, which is sponsoring Bryce's lecture, describes the Joint Center for Political Studies as a "think tank" of black economists who advise strategies to American minorities on economic, political and social issues related to industrial, governmental and social organizations.

Set Open House Sunday

Western's new Student Recreation Building, featuring the Lawson Ice Arena and the Gabel Natatorium, will hold an open house from 1-5 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 22, for interested faculty, staff, students and their families.

Collective Bargaining

The topic "Collective Bargaining for WMU?" will be discussed pro and con at the first of five Academic Forums at 4 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 26, in 3750 Knauss Hall.

The topic will be presented by Dr. Raymond Zelder, chairman of the University's economics department. Dr. Arthur Falk, associate professor of philosophy, will present arguments in favor of the issue, while Dr. Chester Hunt, sociology professor, will oppose him.

Prior to the start of the first of the 1974-75 Academic Forums, a sherry hour will be held in the third floor lobby at 3:30 p.m. The program is open to the entire WMU community.

Flu Shots Available

Western's Health Center is currently offering flu inoculations to all students, faculty and staff members on Monday through Friday from 8-10 a.m.

For those who have previously received an inoculation, only one shot is necessary, according to Hugh A. Simpson, Health Center administrative assistant. Others are urged to have two inoculations at a two-month interval. The cost is $3 per shot.

Western Michigan University Judicial Procedures Approved

The following University Judicial Hearing procedures were adopted by the Student Services Council in February, 1973. They, in turn, were submitted to the Student Senate and Faculty Senate for review. Final approval of the document was given by the Board of Trustees on April 20, 1973. They will be incorporated in the Code of Student Life. They are as follows:

Sec. 300.00—INTRODUCTION

The basic fundamentals of a fair hearing through due process of law will be provided for students charged with violating University rules and regulations. Disciplinary procedures, which are established for the enforcement of regulations, are expected to serve the important purpose of rehabilitation and re-education of the student. It is expected that members of the University from time to time will make recommendations regarding changes in these rules and procedures in a responsible fashion.

Any student accused of violating a regulation shall have the right to appear at his election either before an Administrative Official or before those members of a duly constituted judicial body who will be acting as judges on such hearings. Responsibility for disciplinary agencies and procedures to rule on infractions of University regulations shall rest with the Vice President for Student Services. All such officials and bodies shall adhere to the basic fundamentals of due process as stated below:

Sec. 301.00—DUE PROCESS

The following shall serve as procedural guidelines with respect to the conduct of formal hearings in disciplinary matters. The several duly constituted judicial bodies (or appropriate administrative officials, where the student so elects) shall implement these guidelines. (Note: Where the hearing involves a student group, the due process provisions herein shall apply to its designated student representative).

Sec. 301.01—

The student shall be notified by the Office of University Judiciaries that he is accused of violating a regulation as follows: Written notice shall be either delivered to the student or mailed to his registered student address stating 1) the charges (with sufficient particularity to enable him to prepare a defense); 2) a forewarning of possible consequences; 3) his rights to Hearings and other due process protections as set forth in this Article for Judicial Process.

Sec. 301.02—

The student shall be notified that he may elect one of three courses of action.

a. Within three school days the student may voluntarily admit the alleged violation, waive in writing his rights to student hearing and such other due process protections and request, in writing, that the Administrative Official take whatever action seems appropriate. Note: Such student may revoke his admission (during the following 24 hour period (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and Holidays) by delivering a written revocation thereof to either such Administrative Official or to his office on campus. Should the student so elect to admit such violation, he shall be notified that he is entitled to appeal to the Court of Four for a de novo hearing on the question of the propriety of the penalty, which appeal must be filed within five (5) school days of such Administrative Official decision.

b. The student may admit the alleged violation and request a hearing within three school days before the appropriate Judicial Body or Administrative Official.

c. The student may deny the alleged violation, in which case the Administrative Official either shall dismiss the charge or shall refer the charge to the appropriate Judicial Body (unless the student elects in writing to have the Administrative Official hear the case).

Sec. 301.03—

Except where immediate suspension is deemed necessary under circumstances described hereafter, the student shall be entitled to the following at least 72 hours

(10 school days if suspension or expulsion is a possible consequence) prior to the hearing:

a. Mailing of written notification of the time and place of the hearing to the registered student address.

b. A written statement of the charges with sufficient particularity to enable the student to prepare his defense, which statement shall include a warning of possible consequences.

Sec. 301.04—

The student shall be permitted to inspect at the Office of University Judiciaries not less than 24 hours prior to hearing, any affidavits or exhibits which the University intends to submit at the hearing.

Sec. 301.05—

The student shall be entitled to appear in person and to present his defense to the Judicial Body, or Administrative Official, and may call witnesses in his behalf. The student may also elect not to appear before the Judicial Body or Administrative Official. Should he elect not to appear, the hearing shall be held in his absence. The failure of a student to appear shall not be taken as indicative of guilt and must be noted without prejudice.

Sec. 301.06—

A student shall have the right to the assistance of a person of his own choosing, including legal counsel.

Sec. 301.07—

The student shall be permitted to hear the evidence against him and shall be given the names of the witnesses against him and an oral or written report on the facts to which each witness testifies.

Sec. 301.08—

The student shall be entitled to refuse to answer questions.

Sec. 301.09—

Those who hear the case shall determine the facts of each case solely on the evidence presented at the hearing.

Sec. 301.10—

It is the responsibility of the chairman of each of the disciplinary committees to make a record of the events at the hearing.

Sec. 301.11—

The student is entitled to a fair and expeditious hearing before a person or judicial body which is impartial.

Sec. 301.12—

The student shall be entitled to an explanation of the reasons for any decision rendered against him.

Sec. 301.13—

No disciplinary action shall be taken on grounds which are not supported by any substantial evidence.

Sec. 301.14—

The student shall be notified of his right to appeal in writing from the decision of the Judicial Body or Administrative Official. Should the student appeal, any decision by the Judicial Body or Administrative Official shall be held in suspense until acted upon by a higher body or person except in cases of summary suspension.

Sec. 301.15—

All hearings coming before the Student Judiciary, or Court of Four shall be closed unless the person charged asks for an open hearing. In such cases, those persons that are observers shall adhere to the role of an observer. The defendant shall notify the Office of University Judiciaries when he answers the charge if he wishes an open hearing. The chairman of the various judicial bodies shall make the arrangements to provide a place for the open hearings.

Sec. 301.16—

The student shall be entitled to ask questions of the witnesses who give testimony. At the discretion of the chairman or the judicial body, the student's advisor may also question the witnesses.

Sec. 302.00—JUDICIAL STRUCTURE

The guidelines herein above stated shall be implemented by the following judicial bodies and administrative official procedures.

Sec. 303.00—STUDENT JUDICIARY

Sec. 303.1—Composition:

The Student Judiciary shall consist of nine (9) justices and eleven (11) alternates, any five (5) of whom will constitute a quorum.

Four (4) justices to serve a term of one year and five (5) justices to serve a term of two (2) years. Alternates shall serve one (1) year terms.

b. Alternates shall be selected in the same manner as regular justices and shall appear on an established list in numerical order. They shall be contacted to serve in order of their appearance on the list but only enough will be contacted to secure a quorum.

Sec. 303.03—Procedures:

Complaints to the Judiciary are brought by the Dean of Students or his/her delegate (herein termed the Administrative Official) either upon his/her motion or upon the request of any member of the University community, or by the accused student or student group. At the student's election, such complaint may be heard by the Administrative Official (who shall be the Dean of Students or his/her delegate) instead. Details as to the procedures for hearings shall be specified in the Student Judiciary Court Rules adopted by this Judiciary and approved by the Student Services Council.

Sec. 303.04—Appeals:

Either the student, the student group or the Administrative Official may initiate an appeal to the Court of Four within five (5) school days of the Student Judiciary's decision or of the Administrative Official's decision. This appeal shall state in writing the grounds of appeal. Within ten (10) school days of receipt of notice of an appeal, the Court of Four shall: 1) grant a hearing de novo if the student (having admitted a violation) has appealed the propriety of the Administrative Official's penalty; and otherwise 2) review the case and decide as follows:

a. There are sufficient reasons for another hearing. In this case the Court of Four will conduct a hearing de novo if the appeal is either by the Administrative Official or if the accused student or student groups so request, otherwise the hearing will be on record from the hearing below.

b. There are not sufficient reasons for another hearing. In this case the decision of the Student Judiciary shall stand, unless the student, student group or Administrative Official appeals to the President of the University.

c. An appeal by a student from any disciplinary proceeding shall not result in a more severe penalty.

Sec. 303.05—Decisions:

After hearing a case, the Student Judiciary (or the Administrative Official) may decide as follows:

b. Guilty: A violation of a regulation has been proven and the Student Judiciary or Administrative Official may select from the following penalties:

In addition, they may withdraw any or all of the following privileges: (a) the operation of an automobile on campus; (b) the holding of an office in a campus organization; (c) the representation of the University in any inter-University events.

v. Suspension: The Judiciary, subject to an appeal to the Court of Four and then to the President, may suspend a student for a definite period of time or until a stated condition is met.

vi. Dismissal: The Judiciary may dismiss a student for an indefinite period of time, subject to an appeal to the Court of Four and then to the President.

vii. Other: The Judiciary may take other action that may seem appropriate for any given case.

Sec. 304.00—COURT OF FOUR

A Court of Four appointed as herein provided shall constitute the court of last resort in the University Judiciary system.

Sec. 304.01—Composition:

A Court of Four shall be convened upon receipt by the chairman of the Court of Four of a written appeal as required herein. The members of the Court, one from the faculty, one from the administration and two from the student body shall be appointed by the Faculty Senate, President of the University and Student Senate respectively. The Court of Four shall elect one of its members as chairman.

Sec. 304.02—Jurisdiction:

The Court of Four shall consider appeals from students or Administrative Official who objects to the ruling of a lower judicial body, or who have asked to appear before such a body and have been denied a hearing; or from students or student groups who elected an administrative decision by the Administrative Official in lieu of a hearing by the Student Judiciary and are appealing therefrom.

a. In the case of an individual, the student may submit an appeal, which must be in writing to the Court of Four, indicating the reasons for his appeal. The Court of Four shall grant a hearing de novo if the student has admitted a violation and then appeals from the propriety of the Administrative Official's penalty. Otherwise, the Court of Four shall convene and the Chairman shall then request all evidence upon which the previous decision was made. The Court of Four shall review the evidence together with the student's written statement, and shall decide whether there are, or are not, sufficient reasons for another hearing. The Court of Four may direct the lower judicial body or Administrative Official to hear or rehear the case. If the Court of Four decides to hear the case, it will conduct a hearing de novo if the appeal is either by the Administrative Official or other representative of the University, or if the accused student so requests, otherwise, the hearing will be on the record from the hearing below. If the Court of Four decides not to hear the case the decision of the lower body or Administrative Official is final unless appealed by either the complainant or the accused student to the President.

b. In the case of an appeal from a student group, the same procedure is followed, except that a designated representative of the group shall file the appeal.

Sec. 304.03—Procedures:

Appeals and cases are brought to the Court of Four by a student, student group or by the Administrative Official. A minimum of three justices must be present to conduct a hearing. Details as to the procedures of the hearing shall be specified in the Court of Four Court Rules adopted by this judiciary and approved by the Student Services Council.

Sec. 304.04—Appeals:

All decisions of the Court of Four with respect to individual and group actions are final unless appealed by the student, student group or by the Administrative Official to the President within five (5) school days of the Court of Four's decision. Sec. 304.05—Decisions:

After hearing a case, the Court of Four may decide as follows:

a. NOT GUILTY: No violation of a regulation has been proven.

b. GUILTY: A violation of a regulation has been proven, and the Court of Four may select from the seven types of penalties listed under Section 303.05, subject to the provision of Section 303.04 c.

Sec. 305.00—EMERGENCY CASES

Sec. 305.01—Mass Disruption:

Notwithstanding the foregoing procedures governing the ordinary administration of these Regulations, if it shall be clearly evident to the President of the University that disruption of University functions exists, he shall handle it as stated in Public Act 26 of 1970.

The President may issue an order directed to persons subject to these Regulations, named or unknown, to cease and desist forthwith their actions which create or contribute to the said condition. Upon issuance and within the emergency period, the President, or his deputy shall read the order aloud in a manner likely to be heard by the students to whom it is directed. After allowing such persons a reasonable period of time to comply with the order, the President may order the immediate interim suspension of all students failing to comply with the order within such reasonable time; provided, however, that students complying with such an order shall not be thereafter immune to discipline pursuant to these rules.

Within three (3) school days of any such suspension a hearing will be held on the charges. The Student Judiciary may divide into panels or deputize auxiliary members to hear and determine such cases, as may appear to the Student Judiciary to be necessary.

Sec. 305.02—Summary Suspension:

Summary suspension is an immediate removal from the University community or an individual violating major University regulations should it be deemed that said individual's presence on this campus constitutes a clear and present danger to himself or the University community. A hearing will be held within three (3) school days on the charges.

Sec. 306.00—MISCELLANEOUS JUDICIAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING PROCEDURES

The following additional judicial procedures and provisions shall apply to all judiciaries established herein and shall also apply to hearings before the Administrative Official.

(Note: The terms Chairman of the Judiciary and Judiciary when used herein after in Section 306 shall mean the Administrative Official where the student or student group has so elected the alternative administrative hearing.)

Sec. 306.01—The Chairman of Each

Judiciary:

He shall have authority to:

a. Rule upon offers of proof and receive relevant evidence.

b. Regulate the course of the hearing, and, if appropriate or necessary, summarily adjudge disciplinary penalties against students who unreasonably obstruct or impair its proceedings in its presence, or order removal of such students from the hearing, or both.

c. Strike all evidence of a witness refusing to answer any proper question unless the answer would involve privileged matter.

d. Dispose of motions and procedural matters or requests.

e. Schedule filing of briefs and proposed findings by the student, student group, Administrative Official, or complainant.

f. Take any other actions necessary to conduct the hearing.

g. Other hearing justices may question any ruling by the Chairman but such matters, unless otherwise convenient should be decided in closed session. Such other justices may, with the approval of the Chairman, question any of the witnesses.

Sec. 306.02—Rules of Evidence:

The Judiciary and Chairman are not bound by the common law or statutory rules of evidence. Evidence having reasonable probative (provable) value shall be admitted; but irrelevant, immaterial, repetitious and hearsay evidence shall be excluded. Effect shall be given to the laws of privilege and relevancy materiality and probative force shall govern proof on all questions of fact.

Sec. 306.03—Judicial Order:

Without limitation by enumeration, each judiciary established herein is empowered to maintain order and decorum during proceedings before them, to summarily impose discipline upon any student in violation of its oral or written rules of conduct for the hearing, to order any person from the hearing room for misconduct that impairs the proceedings, and otherwise regulate admission to the hearing as the judiciary in its discretion finds necessary.

Sec. 306.04—Hearing and Procedures:

Following are procedures to be followed in the hearings:

a. Papers may be served by mail or by delivery to the person.

b. Action before a judiciary is commenced by the filing of a charge of misconduct with the Office of University Judiciaries with a statement that a copy has been mailed or provided to the student against whom the charge is made. The Office of University Judiciaries shall cause a copy of these rules to be provided to the student and shall notify the student that he has three (3) days within which to respond to the charge in writing.

c. Answer: The student shall within three (3) school days from the service of the charge file an answer thereto. The student shall specifically admit, deny, or explain each of the facts alleged in the charge, unless the student is without knowledge in which case he shall so state, such statement being a denial. All allegations in the charge, if no answer is filed, shall be considered a denial.

d. Where to file: The answer shall be filed with the Office of University Judiciaries. The answer shall contain the address of the student, and if represented, the name and address of his representative, and shall be signed by the student. The student's signature constitutes a representation by him that he has read the answer; that to the best of his knowledge, information and belief it is true and that it is not made to delay. If the answer is not signed, or if signed to delay or with the intent to falsify or misrepresent the fact, it may be stricken and the action may proceed as if no answer were filed.

e. Extension of time for filing: The Office of University Judiciaries may extend the time for filing the answer, for cause, upon written request.

f. Amendment: The student may amend his answer at any time prior to the hearing, upon leave of the Office of University Judiciaries upon such terms as are deemed just, and as of right in any case in which the charge is amended, within the time fixed by the Office of University Judiciaries.

g. The Chairman shall, upon receipt of the charge and answer from the Office of University Judiciaries, furnish the other members of the Judiciary with copies of the charges, answer and statement of issues and set the matter for hearing.

h. Time Limits: The judiciary shall hear the case within 15 school days of filing of the complaint.

i. All facts in the case shall be heard, the evidence weighed, and a decision shall be rendered by the majority vote as to the innocence or guilt of the accused. If found guilty, a penalty among those specified for such judiciary shall be imposed. The accused shall be notified in writing of the decision reached, the reasons therefore and of the penalty imposed.

j. A record shall be kept by each judiciary of all hearings specifying name(s) of the accused, the charge(s) made, the date of the hearing and the names of the justices hearing the case, a summary of the substantial evidence, the decision reached and the grounds therefore.

k. Any time a staff member, or representative of the University Judiciaries meets with any judicial body concerning a hearing the student and his advisor must be present.

Sec. 306.05—Jurisdiction of Administrative Official:

If the student or student group elects to have the designated Administrative Official hear the charge rather than the Student Judiciary, such official is vested with the same original and appellate jurisdiction as possessed by such parallel Judicial body.

Sec. 306.06—Appeal from Decisions of Administrative and Judiciary Hearings:

Any appeal from a Judiciary or Administrative Official must be on one or more of the following grounds (which must be stated in the appeal).

a. The finding of the judiciary or other person or body was inconsistent with the evidence.

b. The conduct of the proceedings before the judiciary or other person or body was unfair.

c. The sanction imposed was unauthorized or unreasonable.

d. The findings of the judiciary or other person or body was based on misinterpretation or misapplication of the rules and regulations of the University.

Sec. 307.00—MISCELLANEOUS

Sec. 307.01—Disqualifications of Justices:

A justice shall disqualify himself in the event that he feels he cannot render an impartial decision in a case for any reason, self-interest or otherwise. A justice shall be disqualified from hearing a case whenever:

a. He is a witness for any party.

b. He is a party to the case.

c. There is sufficient reason to believe he cannot be fair and impartial, including but not limited to, where he is interested in the outcome.

Any party may challenge a member of the Judiciary by showing substantial reason for believing that the member cannot be fair and impartial. Such challenge shall be made in the form of a motion presented to the Judicial body as a whole and $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members of the Judicial body present, exclusive of the challenged member, may grant such challenge, the vote of less than $\frac{2}{3}$ for disqualification shall entitle the challenged member to sit. Such motion shall be immediately considered and voted on by the Judicial body. The parties may make only one challenge at a time and such challenge shall be ruled upon before the next is presented. No party shall make a challenge except for cause and the presiding Judiciary member may reject a challenge or challenges when on their face they appear dilatory and not for cause. If a challenge is made upon the presiding member, he shall disqualify himself and the remaining justices shall hear the challenge provided the minimum number is present.

Sec. 307.02—Impeachment of Judiciary Members:

Upon receipt of the written complaint alleging facts which demonstrate that a judiciary member is preventing, obstructing or otherwise impairing the administration of justice, the President of the University shall instruct the Vice President for Student Services, or his officer-designate, to investigate and gather evidence of the charges and report his findings to the President.

If, upon completion of such investigation and report, the President believes that probable cause exists for finding a breach of judicial trust, he shall convene a Court of Impeachment. Justices of the Court of Impeachment shall be selected as follows:

One by the President of the University, one by the President of the Faculty Senate, and one by the President of the Student Body. Should either of the designated officers fail to appoint a member of the Court of Impeachment, within 48 hours of a request by the President to do so, the President may act and appoint one member from the student body or one member from the faculty to the seat so left vacant. The Vice President of Student Services or his officer-designate shall present the charges and evidence and act as complainant for the impeachment hearing. Such impeachment hearing shall follow the established judiciary procedure. A judiciary member shall be removed from office upon a $\frac{2}{3}$ vote of the Court of Impeachment.
