Goulet Opens Choice Series

Singing star Robert Goulet will open Western's "Patron's Choice Series" with a concert on Friday, Sept. 27.
The topic, with Goulet in both shows will be nightclub comedian Ronnie Schell.
Tickets are still available at the Auditorium.

Music Dept. to Present New Structures in Sound Series

Western's department of music will utilize the History Wind Ensemble, directed by Carl Bjerregaard.
The electronic jazz-rock ensemble will utilize miscellaneous woodwind instruments, strings, keyboards and trumpet along with a mini-Moog synthesizer and vocals to perform two works with curious titles, "Elaine's Gut Truck" by Geoff Strading and "Erika's Beautiful Eyes" by Ladd McIntosh.

Collective Bargaining

The topic "Collective Bargaining for WMU?" will be discussed pro and con at the first of five Academic Forums at 4 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 26, in 3750 Knauss Hall.
The forum will be presented by Dr. Raymond Zelder, chairman of the University's economics department. Dr. Arthur Falk, associate professor of philosophy, will present arguments in favor of the issue, while Dr. Chester Hunt, sociology professor, will oppose him.

Flu Shots Available

Western's Health Center is currently offering flu innoculations to all students, faculty and staff members on Monday through Friday from 8-10 a.m. and 3-5 p.m.
For those who have previously received an innoculation, only one shot is needed. While students are required to bring eligible documentation with them to the Health Center offices, all others are urged to have two innoculations at a two-month interval. The cost is $3 per shot.

Workshop Tuesday on Archives, Regional History Collections

An in-service faculty workshop, sponsored by Western's Division of Instruction Development, is held Tuesday, Sept. 24, at three separate campus locations.
The workshops, centering on the University Archives and the Regional History Collections at WMU, are open to all WMU faculty as part of a faculty enrichment program which will focus on classroom presentations, student projects and professional research.
The major resource person at the initial workshop series will be Dr. Timothy L. Smith, professor of education and history at Johns Hopkins University. He is also director of the Program on American Religious History.

Expand VA Services; Open New Offices

Expanded services for area military service veterans are now available at Western under a new VA Administration program that has two full-time VA representatives on campus. They are Stan Coleman and Larry Castle, both veterans and both WMU graduate students. They are presently housed in the Registrar's Office, 6210 Administration Building, but they plan to move to the auditorium's Schlicker organ-one of America's ethnic community will include a question and answer session, Joint Center for Political Studies, Washington, D.C. 20036.

Girl Struck; Set Memorial Services

Memorial services for Barbara Lynn Gould, 18, will be held at noon Friday, Sept. 27, in Kanley Chapel. A freshman in psychology, she was fatally injured Monday afternoon when she was struck by a runaway beverage truck on a federal highway near Janesville, Wis. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Gould of Sterling, Ill.

Enrollment Up; Numbers 21,113

Western's 1974 fall semester enrollment of 21,113 is up almost 300 over a year ago, according to Clayton Maus, dean of admissions, records and registration. Last fall's enrollment was 20,825, or 191 less than now.
Two classes have registered dramatic increases among freshmen. The number of freshmen increased by 56, to 4,130, and the number of freshmen now at the 4,732, up by 523.
The greatest student total marks the first time it has surpassed the 4,000 level in WMU's history.

To Discuss Economy, Ethnic Community

The United States economy and America's ethnic community will be the subject of a free public talk at Western, Sept. 29, by Dr. Herrington J. Bryce, director of research, Joint Center for Political Studies, Washington, D.C.
Bryce's lecture, from 10:11:30 a.m. in room 2750 Knauss Hall, will include a question and answer period.

Set Open House Sunday

Western's new Student Recreation Building, featuring the Lawson Ice Arena and the Gabel Natatorium, will hold an open house from 1-5 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 22, for interested faculty, staff, students and their families.

Smith is an experienced archivist who has greatly helped faculty colleagues utilize archival material for their own research and teaching activities. On Monday, Sept. 23, he scheduled several meetings with faculty members at various times as scheduled by those departments.
His presentations on "Archival Material as a Resource for the Classroom and Professional Research" will be given on Sept. 24 at 8:30 a.m., Room 2064, Industrial and Engineering Technology Building; at 10 a.m. in the Fossian Sangren Room, Sangren Hall; and at 10:30 a.m. Room 105, North Hall, East Campus.
Smith is responsible for a doctoral program in American religious history at Johns Hopkins. In the past, he has taught at Eastern Nazarene College, Quincy, Mass., for seven years; served as chairman of the American Studies Department at East Texas State College for three years; and then joined the University of Minnesota faculty before going to Johns Hopkins.
The following University Judicial Hearing procedures were adopted by the Student Government on February 26, 1973. They are provided for students charged with violating University Judicial Disciplinary procedures, which are established for the enforcement of regulations, to serve the important purpose of rehabilitation and re-education of the student. It is expected that hearing and appeal procedures time to time will make recommendations regarding changes in these rules and procedures in a responsible fashion.

Any student accused of violating a regulation shall have the right to appear at his hearing before an Administrative Official or before those members of the Student Services Council in February, 1973. They will be incorporated with sufficient particularity to enable the student to prepare his defense, which statement shall include a warning of possible consequences.

The following University Judicial Hearing procedures are entitled to the following at least 72 hours before the hearing:
