A group of paintings by prominent American artist, Aaron Bohrod, are on display through Oct. 24 in 2700 Knauss Hall. They are open to the public daily, Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Dr. Benjamin Beck, the Brookfield Zoo's curator of primates and an intern in the field of primatology, will be a visiting scholar here Thursday and Friday. He will present a free public lecture on "Baboons, Chimpanzees and Tools" at 6 o'clock tonight in 2760 Knauss Hall.

Faculty should look for a letter from the Student Health Center .Pharmacy which formerly were available from the Communications & Transportation Office, are now carried in the Central Stores at the Physical Plant building. They will continue to be available at no charge and may be obtained from Central Stores in the same manner as with other supplies.

The Student Employment Referral Service consists of the sewing pool for the use of faculty and staff. The students in this pool have indicated an interest in sewing on a temporary basis. They have documented their experience and have provided examples of samples of work. Faculty and staff are urged to contact the Student Employment Referral Service at 383-1064 for the information on this pool or other pools (hand work, secretarial, babylining) within this office.

Richard Vine, vice president and winemaker for the Warner Vineyards, Paw Paw, will speak at a free public biology seminar at 4 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 23, in 291 Wood Hall. He will discuss the grapevine, its fruit and the process required to produce wine.

More than 350 persons attended a special open house last weekend at the School of Homesteading, located just north of Bangor, where Dr. Maynard Kaufman, WMU associate professor of religion, is supervisor. On display was an anaerobic digester that is under construction for producing methane gas from animal manure for use as household fuel.

A special open house last weekend at the School of Homesteading, located just north of Bangor, where Dr. Maynard Kaufman, WMU associate professor of religion, is supervisor. On display was an anaerobic digester that is under construction for producing methane gas from animal manure for use as household fuel.

Truckers Meet Friday

Personnel appointments, departmental changes and a revised tenure policy are on the agenda for the monthly meeting of the Western Michigan University Board of Trustees to be held at 1:35 p.m. Friday, Oct. 18, here in the University Student Center.

DANCERS TO PERFORM HERE — The Alvin Ailey City Center Dance Theatre will perform at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 22, in Miller Auditorium as part of a 3-day residency program. In conjunction with the residency, the main concert, which is the second event of International Concerts 74-75 series, is scheduled for 8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 22, in Miller Auditorium.

Now a company of more than 20 exciting young dancers, they have thrilled audiences around the world and have prompted critics to highest praise. When Alvin Ailey founded the company in 1958, he called it the Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater and under this name it grew and expanded until 1972 when it became a constituent of New York's City Center of Music and Drama, Inc.

The Alvin Ailey City Center Dance Theatre will be here at Western from Oct. 21 through 23 for a three day residency program. In conjunction with the residency, the main concert, which is the second event of International Concerts 74-75 series, is scheduled for 8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 22, in Miller Auditorium.

Tickets for the concert series are available at the Miller Auditorium ticket office and prices range from $2 to $6.

Health Center, WMU Pledge Medical Care

In a joint statement issued Sunday, WMU Health Center staff physicians pledged to continue to provide medical care for Western's students past a previously announced Nov. 4 effective date for a mass resignation by the medical doctors.

Tom Coyne, WMU vice president for student services, explained that the current staff physicians will stay on at the Health Center under the new agreement.

"Previous information has been misinterpreted," Coyne said. "We merely wanted to have the salary of three of our physicians raised to an acceptable minimum annual salary.

Our primary concern is to negotiate a new type of relationship with the University to improve and expand the health care programs on campus," Coyne explained. "Previous agreement, that they continued physicians available for the spring and summer sessions and not enough medical doctors for the peak loads in the fall and winter semesters." Coyne said that we can only provide better service with a medical group that has the capability of calling in a greater number of physicians than what the University can presently do under the existing arrangement. All eight of the physicians who have resigned are members of such a medical group that has current standing emergency services in the Northwestern Michigan area.

The ninth WMU Health Center physician will retire later this year.

They further explained that the Nov. 4 resignation deadline was "to conform with good policy and to set a mutually agreed upon deadline" under which to negotiate a new agreement.

Coyne had stated Saturday afternoon that the University was negotiating with the current Health Center physicians as well as with other local and area physicians.

Coyne Sunday expressed the belief that a new arrangement is feasible and he hopes that one can be established in the very near future.

Food Supervisor Dies

Richard L. Ketelaar, 46, unit supervisor of the campus food service units during his nine year career at Western. He previously had served in the Marine Corps for 20 years. Ketelaar is survived by his wife, Dorothy, three sons and two daughters.

Food Supervisor Dies

Richard L. Ketelaar, 46, unit supervisor of the campus food service units during his nine year career at Western. He previously had served in the Marine Corps for 20 years. Ketelaar is survived by his wife, Dorothy, three sons and two daughters.
Five faculty members were presented Teaching Excellence Awards during WMU's annual homecoming buffet luncheon Saturday in the University Student Center. The annual awards are given by the WMU Alumni Association.

The recipients are: Thomas L. Gossman, associate professor of general business, law area; Dr. Paul L. Maier, professor of history; Lurjeta C. McCray, assistant professor of dance; Dr. George K. Stegman, associate professor of engineering and technology; and Dr. Jess M. McCray, assistant professor of teacher education.

Along with the award is a check for $1,000 to each of the recipients. This is the eighth year the awards have been given, with a total of 33 faculty members honored during this period. William Griffin of Kalamazoo, president of the WMU Alumni Association, made the presentations.

Gossman, a Western faculty member since 1970, earned B.S. (1963) and A.M. (1966) degrees from Indiana University and entered private law practice at Kalamazoo, Ind., where he was born and raised. He then joined the faculty of Northwest Missouri State University, Marysville, Mo., serving 1966-70. He was also a municipal judge at Marysville, Jan. 1, 1966 to Aug. 1, 1970.

Dr. Maier joined WMU in 1959, two years after receiving a Ph.D. degree from the Iowa State Teachers College at Ames. He is a registered Lutheran minister and a former school teacher. He earned B.A. and M.A. degrees from Columbia Seminary in 1932 and 1935, respectively, and a M.A. from Harvard. He is the author of numerous articles, published in journals and magazines and has written four very successful books. Among these, the essence of life of Jesus Christ from an historical perspective. He was born in St. Louis, Mo., the son of Dr. Walter A. Maier, the originator of the famed Lutheran Hour radio program. Maier's first book, "A Man Spoke, A World Listened," was a biography of his father.

McCray, a 1967 WMU graduate, earned a M.A. here in 1972. She served as a part time dance instructor in the Women's Physical Education Department 1968-70 until joining the faculty full time in Sept., 1970. She has been a participant in numerous seminars around the nation as a consultant in choreography, and has choreographed many student performances at WMU as well as at playhouses and educational institutions around campus.

Dr. Stegman, a WMU graduate in 1962, earned M.S. and Ph.D. degrees at the University of Wisconsin-Stout, Mononmince, Wis., and is a Ph.D. from the University of Utah in 1960. He was born in Detroit.

Dr. Stegman, a WMU professor in 1959, earned his Ph.D. from the University of Utah in 1960, and his doctorate at Wayne State University, Detroit, in 1955. He was born in Detroit.

Dr. Walker joined WMU's faculty in 1956 after spending a year at the C.S. Mott Foundation Leadership Training Program at Flint. He received his B.S. and M.A. degrees from the University of Utah in 1960 and 1964, and his Ph.D. at Michigan State University in 1964. He then joined the Michigan State University faculty in 1964. He has written several published articles on a study of high school dropouts and has appeared in several television programs on open-learning environment and professional learning. Currently, he is a consultant to the U.S. Office of Education and the Michigan Department of Education. He was born and raised in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Wind Ensemble Presents Concert

The University Wind Ensemble, under the direction of Carl Berdregard, will present its first 1974-75 concert at 3 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 20, in the Laura V. Shaw Theatre.

Trent Kynaston, assistant professor of music, will be featured as saxophone soloist in Igor Ilah's "Concerto for Alto Saxophone and Wind Orchestra."

The 40-member Wind Ensemble also will perform "Panfares Por Britannicus" by Jovell, "Sonatina fur Blaser" by Richard Strauss, Shinn's "Three Folksongs" and "Circus Overture" by Schumann.

Middle School Teachers Conference Here Oct. 25

Teachers from throughout Michigan's lower peninsula will gather here Oct. 25 for WMU's 19th Middle and Junior High School Conference. The theme is "Better Tools for Middle Schools." Dr. Thomas Ryan, chairman of WMU's department of teacher education, will extend the welcome.

Luncheon speaker for the conference will be Dr. Clara Chiara, WMU professor of teacher education, who will discuss "Who's in the Middle in the Middle School?" Additional information is available through the WMU Division of Continuing Education.

Representates State on Program

James VanDusen, assistant professor of instructional technology, represented Michigan at a recent training program on emission control held at Colorado State University, Ft. Collins, sponsored by the Environmental Protection Agency.

The project was designed to develop training materials in the emission control area as a response to the need for training of auto mechanics in the new muffler device which is required on all 1975 cars.

Artists/Teachers Meet on Campus

Leading artist-teachers from the United States and Canada will meet with arts educators from Michigan for the 1974 Inter-Arts Conference Oct. 19-21.

Under the theme "Artists and Teachers Together," the two-day gathering is planned to explore new approaches in inter-related arts education and their effect on classroom teaching.

Among those serving as conference leaders are John Baldwin, Michigan State University, who will discuss "University Theatre, Children and Drama"; Mimi Chenfeld, Ohio State University, "Creative Writing and Children's Movement"; R. Murray Schafer, Simon Fraser University, British Columbia, leading Canadian composer; and three members of the staff of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York City.

Common interest in inter-relating the arts prompted the organization of the Inter-Arts Consortium, a rep"
Ice Show Opens Wed.

Seven performances of "Holiday on Ice" will be presented in Western Michigan University's Lawson Ice Arena beginning Wednesday, Oct. 23. Tickets range from $3.50 on Wednesday through Saturday, plus $2.30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 26-27, and $6 at the door. Tickets at Miller Auditorium are $5.50, $4.50 and $4.00, except juniors (16 and under) will be admitted for half price Wednesday and Sunday evenings, plus Saturday afternoon.

Open House
At New Center

An open house at the newly established Susan B. Anthony Center at the Continuing Education Center, 2210 Wilbur St., is set for 3:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 21, to introduce staff personnel and programs to the WMU community.

The Center, an extension of Western's student services division, was developed by the Commission on Continuing Education in cooperation with the University Counseling Center and several University departments.

According to Laura Manis, an assistant professor in the Counseling Center at the University Counseling Center, "the Center will provide a visible location where new innovative programs can be developed and used to meet the needs brought about as a result of changing social roles.

The Center will offer several workshops and programs for men and women, personal counseling by Counseling Center professionals from 1-4 p.m. Tuesdays, and a variety of special services.

For further information call the Center at 344-4462.

Job Openings

Below is a listing of the position openings currently being posted by the University Personnel Department, for current University employees.

Regular full-time and regular part-time employees interested in applying for these positions should submit a Job Opportunity Program application form to the Personnel Office, Joseph Work, director, during the posting period.

ERC Night Supervisor, T-1 (H-04), Educational Resources Center—posted 10/11-10/17

Clerk/Cashier, C-1 (H-04) Campus Bookstore—posted 10/11-10/17

System Programmer, E-11 Computer Center—posted 10/11-10/17

Secretary I, C-3 (H-04) Academic Advising, E-14 Academic Affairs—posted 10/10-10/17

Secretary I, C-3 (H-04), Anthropology—posted 10/11-10/17

Secretary/Receptionist, C-3 (H-04) Academic Advising Office—posted 10/15 thru 10/21

Operator/Accounting, T-5 (H-05) WMUK (Div. of Instructional Communications)—posted 10/15-10/17

Accounting Clerk, C-3 (H-04) Budget and Finance—posted 10/15-10/20

Budget Officer, E-11 Budget and Finance—posted 10/15-10/20

Assistant Supervisor Food Service Unit, E-08 Food Service—posted 10/16-10/22

Secretary II, C-3 (H-05), Honors College—posted 10/17-10/23

String Quartet
Performs Oct. 25

Western's department of music will present the third program of the Friday Night Chamber Music Series beginning at 8 p.m. in the Faculty String Quartet with Gerald Fischbach and Oliver Parkes, violins; Joseph Work, viola; and Herbert Butler, cello. This program will be held in 3760 Knauss Hall.

Show Frostic Film
Continuously Today

A 13-minute videotape of Michigan artist/writer/creative printer Gwen Frostic will be shown on Channel 4 closed circuit television throughout the day Thursday, Oct. 17, here on campus.

Produced by the Division of Instructional Communications, the videotape will be shown from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. daily.

The吊poon, Vermont, native was known for her sociological studies in the Philippines and was the first editor of the Philippine Sociological Review.

Job Openings

University Police Get Radar

WMU's police department has acquired a portable radar unit and is using it to enforce the 25 m.p.h. campus speed limit at midnight Monday, Oct. 14, as an added safety measure to cut down on traffic accidents.

"Since the vast majority of our campus traffic is on foot, it is imperative that automobile drivers and motorcyclists slow down for their own safety and that of the pedestrian," commented Capt. John Cose, uniform division commander of the WMU Public Safety Office.

"It is a well established fact that if you can reduce speed, you can reduce your accident rate and, more importantly, the severity of the accident," Cose said. "We're getting complaints of speeding here on the campus."

Cose reported that, in the first six months of this year, there were 133 property damage accidents, 13 personal injury accidents and 51 hit and run accidents on the WMU campus. Since July 1, there have been 28 property damage accidents, 10 personal injury accidents, 16 hit and run accidents, one fatality and 27 private property accidents; the latter is a new category that usually involves parking lot accidents.

University police personnel are being trained in the operation of the new radar unit by a qualified manufacturer's instructor. The unit

AWARD DR. HUNT
Fulbright Grant

Dr. Chester L. Hunt, WMU professor of sociology, has been awarded a Fulbright grant to lecture in the Philippines, beginning June 6, 1975.

During the semester he is there, Hunt will present lectures on sociological theory and research at the Central Philippine University in Iloilo City. The school has an enrollment of over 5,000 and ranks as the most influential educational institution in the area.

Hunt has been active in Philippine sociology since first going to the country in 1952. He has since served a stead of the sociology department at the University of the Philippines and has taught at Silliman University there. Two of his books are widely used in that country. He also was one of the founders of the Philippine Sociological Society and was the first editor of the Philippine Sociological Review.

Offer Pakistan Study Support

A limited number of fellowships in Pakistan Studies for 1975-76 are now being offered through the American Institute of Pakistan Studies.

The institute, an independent organization whose aim is to promote research on Pakistan, is governed by a board of trustees affiliated with 27 universities and colleges in the U.S. Dr. Lawrence Ziring, WMU professor of political science, is secretary of the group of which the university is a member.

Applications for summer study and other grants beginning next September are available from Ziring.

University Police Get Radar

University Police Sgt. David Kakkuri demonstrates the department's new portable radar unit that has been acquired and is being used on campus as of midnight last Monday.

Cose pointed out that motor violations will be written under Michigan state law, not University ordinance, and that WMU does not realize any revenue from any moving violation fine; the money goes to the State of Michigan General Fund.
Broncos Visit Marshall Sat.

"We're simply going to have to regroup and will need an excellent performance in order to win on Saturday," said Marshall Coach Bill Doiolite in looking ahead to the coming game with Marshall University at Huntington, W. Va.

Last week, the Broncos dropped a 31-24 decision to Toledo, the team's third straight setback, and the fourth loss in six starts this fall.

Harriers Run In Wisconsin

Western Michigan's cross country team heads out on the road this weekend to compete in the fourth annual Tom Jones Invitational at Madison, Wis., on Saturday. The meet will be a 5-mile affair.

The Broncos are coming off a convincing 17-44 win over Mid-American rival Ohio University here last Saturday, and Coach Jack Shaw looks to the upcoming meet as an important one for his club.

Soccer Squad Hosts Purdue

Now sporting a fine 4-2 record, the Western Michigan soccer team will host a visit by the Purdue Boilermakers this Saturday at 10:30 a.m. in Waldo Stadium.

The past weekend, Coach Pete Ghin's team lost to Bowling Green, 2-0(39,730),(271,794), and outscored Toledo 6-2.

Badminton Tourney Ends

The intramural badminton singles tournament was won by Has- san Nastir, who defeated three opponents before defeating Baha Roodin Ghani in the final, 15-3 and 15-10. Ghani drew a bye the first round and then defeated three opponents before meeting Morshad in the final match. A total of 13 players competed.

The doubles tournament was won by the double combination as he teamed with Rahim Omar to take the title. Ghani and Rahim defeated Hassan and Nastir in the final match 15-10, 15-9 respectively. The tournament was played on a round robin sched- ule with five teams entered. Ghani and Omar had a perfect 4-0 record.

Badminton Intramural Badminton double tournament was scheduled for later in the semester with Nov. 1 as the entry deadline. Each team will consist of four men with teams playing in a league.

Computer Center

The WMU Computer Center has GPSS (General Purpose Simulation System) installed and operational for the PDP-10 time sharing Com- puter. Leading a team of computer discrete simulation language that can be applied effectively to a broad range of problems. It is suitable for non-programmers. Up to October 1, 1974, there have been 834 successful executions of GPSS on the PDP-10 by users. For addition- al information, call Bill Grunel, manager, Computer Applications (3-0095) or Dr. Thomas Mantel, department of management (3-6066).

Campus Calendar

Oct. 17 - Visiting Scholar Mimi Chenfeld conducts workshops in Creative Movement & Creative Writing, Walwood Hall, all day.

Oct. 17 - Lecture by Dr. Benjamin Zob, on "Baboons, Chinpanzees and Tools," 3760 Knauss Hall, 7:30 p.m.

Oct. 18 - Opera, "La Traviata," with Kalamazoo Symphony Orchestra, Miller Auditorium, 8 p.m.

Oct. 19 - Soccer, WMU vs. Purdue, Waldo Stadium, 10:30 a.m.

Oct. 19 - Cascade of Marching Bands, Waldo Stadium, 2 p.m.

Oct. 20 - University Wind Ensemble Concert, Shaw Theatre, 3 p.m.

Oct. 21-23 - Dance residency by Alvin Ailey Dance Company, daily.

Oct. 22 - Alvin Ailey City Center Dance Theatre, Miller Auditorium, 6 p.m.

Oct. 23 - "Holiday on Ice" Show, Lawson Ice Arena, 8 p.m. nightly; band, 2:30 p.m.; Sun., 6 p.m.

Oct. 23 - Librarianship colloquium, Clara Jones, Detroit Public Li- brary, G-130 Waldo Library, 2:30 p.m.

Oct. 24 - Lecture, "The Many Dilemmas of Communication" by Lucian Spataro, Ohio University, 5760 Knauss Hall, 7:30 p.m.

Oct. 24 - United Nations Day

Oct. 25 - Faculty Chamber Music, String Quartet, Oakland Recital Hall, 8 p.m.

Oct. 25 - Football, WMU vs. Ohio U. (Parents' Day), Waldo Stadium, 1:30 p.m.

Oct. 27 - Time changes from Eastern Daylight to Eastern Standard Time - move clocks back one hour.

Plan Aftermath of Halftime Shows

The first annual Cavalcade of Bands, a colorful and exciting marching contest and show, will be staged on the astroturf of Waldo Stadium Saturday, Oct. 19. It will feature some of the most outstanding high school marching bands in Michigan.

Each band, performing in its own halftime show style, will be judged by six adjudicators on various aspects, including music, marching and show design. One of the primary aims of the Cavalcade will be to offer the audience a program in a wide variety of marching band styles of the highest caliber.

On the same Saturday evening, three different clinics will be presented for the benefit of participating as well as observing band students and their directors. These clinics will deal with flags and rifles, use of multiple percussion in the drum line, and drum and bugle style and the marching band.

Following high schools will be sending their marching band and auxiliary units to participate in the Cavalcade contest: Battle Creek Pennfield, Roy Swayfield, director; DeVore Fader, director; Chesaning, James King, director; Cowdell, Paul Paret, director; Danville, Jon Francis, director; Flushing, R. Winston Blackford, di- rector; Marlette, James Fader, director; Otisville Lakeville, Dr. Wonn Torben, director; Reed City, Jerry Thornon, director; South Haven, Robert Boerner, director; and Three Oaks River Valley, Jeff Cole, di- rector.

This new event is sponsored jointly by WMU's Marching Band and the Alpha Sinfonia, profession- ional music fraternity. Coordinat- ing the events of the day are Rich- ard Scudder, director, the WMU Marching Band and assistant di- rector Don Baker.

Tickets for the afternoon Cavala- cade of Bands show are available at Kalamazoo area merchants in- cluding Discount Records, Don Dil- lon's Music Center, Grinnell's in the Mall, Hill Hall Music, Lowry Orga- n and Piano Center in the West Main Mall, Midwest Music Service, Stev- en's Record Shop and Oscar's on the Hippie, for the price of $2.50. Tickets are also available at the WMU Fieldhouse, all WMU Marching Band members, and all Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia members, as well as at the gate. Tickets are $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for children 12 years and under.

Cite Intramural Golf Winners

Winners of three different leag- ues in the intramural golf tournament have been announced.

The Fraternity League champion was Sigma Alpha Epsilon, with a total score of 342 with 35.6 average. Members of the winning team were Keith Armstrong, Dan McGinnis, Doug Jackson and M. Collins. The runner- up position was taken by Tau Kappa Epsilon (TKE) with a score of 344. Making up the TKE team were Bob Gorga, Kevin O'Toole, Jim Bakers and Jim VanWormer.

The individual medalist for the fra- ternity competition was McGinnis who had a 76.

In the Residence Hall competi- tion, Flexhouse Pac took the title with a combined score of 337. The Pac consisted of Curt Pusche, Bob Danford, Bill Centers and M. Felger. The runner-up position in the competition were the Buffalos who scored a 336. Members of the Buffalos team were Barry Killia, Jim Johnson and Noyce Strahl. Medalist winner for Residence Hall competi- tion was Pusche who carded a 77.

The Independent competition was won by Flexhouse Pac with a combined score of 333. T. Smith, Dave Nebach- er, S. Hunt and B. Smith made up the winning team. In the Individual Division, the title F 'n A's were only two strokes back with a 335. The F 'n A's were High Stark, Tom Brown, Jack Hamme and Joe Spoerel. Spoerel won the individual championship for the Independent Division with a 75. This was also good for over- all individual medalist winner for the tourna- ments.

Co-Host Trusts, New Tax Seminar

More than 500 area attorneys have been invited to a New Tax Laws Seminar at the West- marinar at noon Thursday, Oct. 24, here in the Student Center, sponsored by The Foundation and Trust Company of Michigan and WMU. This is the 16th annual law- yer's conference for American Na- tional, but the first meeting co- hosted by WMU.

Philip Converse, vice president, Robert F. Sharpe and Co., Inc., and the national audit firm, will speak on "Prospects of Future Tax Legis- lation" and "The Charitable Trust and Tax Law." He has served as director of development for estate planning at Millsaps College, Jackson, Miss., and was director of estate planning and deferred giv- ing for the University of Tennessee System five campuses.

Cited in 1972 by the U.S. Jaycees as one of the outstanding young men in America, Converse serves as consultant to the Mott Foundation in the field of community education. He has worked on train- ing and dissemination programs designed to build an area on a local basis in the field of Community Education. According to Mott, "There are areas of current concern in which Dr. Weaver is uniquely qualified to help the Foundation.

Mott said that the Foundation is in the process of assessing its fu- ture role in the development of community education in America because of two critical factors. First, there are emerging Federal and State legislative actions implementing the 1974 Education Act, and, second, there is need to maintain quality and momentum in community edu- cation's growth. "Specifically, we must answer the question of what community education will look like in 1979," he said.

In addition to his duties as con- sultant to the Mott Foundation, Weaver will direct the National Doctoral Training Laboratory in Flint, Mich., sponsored jointly by WMU and the WMU Development Office.

Entry Deadline Set

Entries for intramural soccer are due at 7 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 17, at the Rules Clinic, room 105, Gary Center. All doubles ladder entries are due Friday, Oct. 18.

In addition, entries are due on Oct. 25 for team badminton; Nov. 1 for team tennis; and Nov. 8 for swimming.