Visitor To 'Skin'

Skinner Tonight

Daniel C. Dennett, professor of philosophy at Tufts University, will give a public lecture titled "Skinner Skinned." Professor Jack Michaels of the WMU psychology department dedicated to furthering the sciences of marine archeology and environmental ecology. In addition, it features Building.

The pre-holiday basketball tournament continues Thursday, Dec. 5, at the Gary Center Pool. Winter semester schedules will be available at the Intramural Office on Monday, Dec. 9.

The final faculty-student dialogue committee to begin discussing c/t classification appeals, and will meet every Tuesday morning until decisions are reached on all appeals, according to the president of the committee.

The clerical/technical appeals committee met Nov. 10 for the first time to begin discussing c/t classification appeals, and will meet every Tuesday morning until decisions are reached on all appeals, according to the president of the committee.

The concluding concert in the free, public festival will close the concert series in Sound program at 8 p.m.

Student/Faculty Luncheon Wednesday

The final faculty-student dialogue committee will meet from noon to 1 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 11, at the Wesley Foundation. Dr. Michael McCarrick, an assistant professor of Chemistry, will lead the discussion on "The Implications of Zero Economic Growth."

The dialogue luncheons will resume Wednesday, Jan. 15, at noon, and continue each Wednesday during winter semester. For further information contact the sponsors, Rev. Cal Martin, Interchurch Campus Ministry, 383-8140, or Rev. Kenneth Klime, Wesley Foundation, 383-8147.

C/T Appeals Being Heard

The clerical/technical appeals committee met Nov. 10 for the first time to begin discussing c/t classification appeals, and will meet every Tuesday morning until decisions are reached on all appeals, according to the president of the committee.

The pre-holiday basketball tournament continues Thursday, Dec. 5, at the Gary Center Pool. Winter semester schedules will be available at the Intramural Office on Monday, Dec. 9.

The final faculty-student dialogue committee to begin discussing c/t classification appeals, and will meet every Tuesday morning until decisions are reached on all appeals, according to the president of the committee.

The concluding concert in the free, public festival will close the concert series in Sound program at 8 p.m.

Student/Faculty Luncheon Wednesday

The final faculty-student dialogue committee will meet from noon to 1 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 11, at the Wesley Foundation. Dr. Michael McCarrick, an assistant professor of Chemistry, will lead the discussion on "The Implications of Zero Economic Growth."

The dialogue luncheons will resume Wednesday, Jan. 15, at noon, and continue each Wednesday during winter semester. For further information contact the sponsors, Rev. Cal Martin, Interchurch Campus Ministry, 383-8140, or Rev. Kenneth Klime, Wesley Foundation, 383-8147.

Poet Wendell Berry Visits Here Friday

The celebrated poet and environmentalist, Wendell Berry, will be here on campus Friday, Dec. 6, for an environmental discussion and an evening reading.

The discussion will be an informal exchange of views on current environmental issues, and will take place in the Faculty Lounge of the Student Center at 7 p.m. Friday. The reading will take place at 8 p.m. in the Kiva Room on the ground floor of the Student Services Building.

Berry has the unusual distinction of being a farmer and environmental writer as well as poet, novelist and college teacher. His most recent books of poems are "The Country of Marriage" and "Farming: A Month to Month Account." He has published two novels and three books of environmental essays along with five volumes of published poetry. He farms in Port Royal, Ky., and teaches at the University of Kentucky. Berry has received wide recognition for his writing, including Guggenheim Fellowship (1961) and a Rockefeller Foundation Grant in 1966.

His visit is sponsored by Currents, the magazine of student writing; the English department; and the environmental studies program.

Poet Wendell Berry Visits Here Friday

The celebrated poet and environmentalist, Wendell Berry, will be here on campus Friday, Dec. 6, for an environmental discussion and an evening reading.

The discussion will be an informal exchange of views on current environmental issues, and will take place in the Faculty Lounge of the Student Center at 7 p.m. Friday. The reading will take place at 8 p.m. in the Kiva Room on the ground floor of the Student Services Building.

Berry has the unusual distinction of being a farmer and environmental writer as well as poet, novelist and college teacher. His most recent books of poems are "The Country of Marriage" and "Farming: A Month to Month Account." He has published two novels and three books of environmental essays along with five volumes of published poetry. He farms in Port Royal, Ky., and teaches at the University of Kentucky. Berry has received wide recognition for his writing, including Guggenheim Fellowship (1961) and a Rockefeller Foundation Grant in 1966.

His visit is sponsored by Currents, the magazine of student writing; the English department; and the environmental studies program.

Poet Wendell Berry Visits Here Friday

The celebrated poet and environmentalist, Wendell Berry, will be here on campus Friday, Dec. 6, for an environmental discussion and an evening reading.

The discussion will be an informal exchange of views on current environmental issues, and will take place in the Faculty Lounge of the Student Center at 7 p.m. Friday. The reading will take place at 8 p.m. in the Kiva Room on the ground floor of the Student Services Building.

Berry has the unusual distinction of being a farmer and environmental writer as well as poet, novelist and college teacher. His most recent books of poems are "The Country of Marriage" and "Farming: A Month to Month Account." He has published two novels and three books of environmental essays along with five volumes of published poetry. He farms in Port Royal, Ky., and teaches at the University of Kentucky. Berry has received wide recognition for his writing, including Guggenheim Fellowship (1961) and a Rockefeller Foundation Grant in 1966.

His visit is sponsored by Currents, the magazine of student writing; the English department; and the environmental studies program.

Poet Wendell Berry Visits Here Friday

The celebrated poet and environmentalist, Wendell Berry, will be here on campus Friday, Dec. 6, for an environmental discussion and an evening reading.

The discussion will be an informal exchange of views on current environmental issues, and will take place in the Faculty Lounge of the Student Center at 7 p.m. Friday. The reading will take place at 8 p.m. in the Kiva Room on the ground floor of the Student Services Building.

Berry has the unusual distinction of being a farmer and environmental writer as well as poet, novelist and college teacher. His most recent books of poems are "The Country of Marriage" and "Farming: A Month to Month Account." He has published two novels and three books of environmental essays along with five volumes of published poetry. He farms in Port Royal, Ky., and teaches at the University of Kentucky. Berry has received wide recognition for his writing, including Guggenheim Fellowship (1961) and a Rockefeller Foundation Grant in 1966.

His visit is sponsored by Currents, the magazine of student writing; the English department; and the environmental studies program.
Placement Center Still Has Many Job Opportunities for Teachers

A college graduate's chances of finding a teaching job these days are about the same as the chance of finding a motor vehicle that is not an import.

"We get telephone calls from those who are skilled in teaching and from those who are not," Burgoyne said. "If you have a teaching degree and you have some experience teaching, you have a much better chance of getting a job." The board of trustees also found that the demand is greater for those who have had some experience teaching.

Board of Trustees Action

A minor technical change in faculty sick leave policy, remodeling projects and two resolutions—one for matching funds for a police radio network and a second for a juvenile delinquency prevention program—were approved Nov. 22 by the Western Board of Trustees.

The Trustees amended the Sept. 15, 1972, academic year faculty sick leave policy to read 680 hours rather than 600 hours. This action was recommended by the Faculty Senate and endorsed by the University personnel department, it treats academic year faculty similarly to other University groups.

Six Administration Building remodeling projects were approved: one for the reception-secretary area [$3,750], admissions office; $13,400 each for the vice president and associate vice president for academic affairs; $10,140, vice president for student services; and $3,645, assistant vice president for administration.

The University provided matching funds in the amount of $13,727 from the allocation to the department of public safety as required for receipt of a grant from the Michigan Office of Criminal Justice Programs for a communication system improvement development project. It will enable Western to supplement the Kalamazoo County Sheriff's Department radio communications system to be used as a backup system for emergencies throughout the county.

The board also designated cash matching funds for the continuation of the juvenile delinquency prevention program. It will support the Para-School Learning Center. This project designates $4,977, a $5,000 Kalamazoo Foundation grant to be the cash matching contribution by WMU.

Friday American Criminology V.P.

Dr. Paul C. Friday, associate professor of sociology and director of Western's criminal justice program, recently was elected vice president of the American Society of Criminology.

He previously served as a director of the ASC as well as chairperson of its international committee. He will be a program director for the Society's 1975 international meeting in Toronto.

Friday has written extensively in the field of comparative criminology and diversionary policies. He just returned to Kalamazoo after six months of lecturing and consulting in Europe. He was a visiting professor at the University of Pucinetti (Germany), an advisor to the German Commission on Crime and the Mass Media.

Math Colloquium Today

Dr. William Browne, professor of mathematics at Michigan State University, will speak at Western's mathematics colloquium at 4 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 5, in the Math Commons Room, sixth floor of Everett Hall. His topic will be "Applications of Commutative Rings and the Zariski-Lipman Conjecture."

Senior Recital Sunday

Mezzo-soprano Cheryl M. Stewart, a senior student from Lit- venia, will give a free public recital at 4:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 8, in the Recital Hall. A student of Marcela Faustman, professor of music at WMU, Miss Stewart's program will feature music of the Baroque and Classical periods. She will sing compositions by Bach, Handel, Haydn, Mozart, Frisby, Romburg and Johann Strauss.

Offer 127 Continuing Education Courses

WMU's Continuing Education Division will offer 127 extension courses in all areas for the winter semester, which will be held in 170 classroom and laboratory settings. Courses are not cancelled due to an apparent lack of interest. Additional information can be obtained by contacting him in Walwood Union, 3635-190.
Hansen New Alumni Director

Frederick J. Hansen has been appointed as the new alumni director by the WMU Board of Trustees. He has been an associate director of alumni affairs for nine years at Bowling Green, Ohio, State University and received his bachelor's and master's degrees. He replaces Rick Markoff who resigned to devote full time to professional studies.

"Fred Hansen brings to our program of alumni affairs and development a great deal of experience, training and insight," the Board of Trustees remarked Frank H. Bents, WMU director of alumni affairs and development. "We are extremely fortunate to have him join our staff.

"He has thorough knowledge and a broad understanding of the field of alumni programs and their relationship to the alumni family and the academic community," Bents continued. "At BG Hansen established a complete computer file system, identifying alumni and special interest groups; and also was a key factor in their national outreach of alumni activities.

Bents noted that BG is one of the leading colleges in the field and just entered and already have reached the half-way point in securing gifts for their University Center that will also house the Development Office there. "Fred's close relationship with other Mid-American Conference schools, with the BG Foundation and with board members in the area the Student Alumni Association provide rich background for our plans here," he said.

"Fred Hansen was the unanimous choice of our selection committee, composed of the enrollment director, William Griffin; Dr. Myron L. Coulier, vice president for administration; and Dr. Robert J. Bentz, Development and Development professional staff and myself," Bents said.

October Gifts & Grants Total $243,312; Trustees Approve Pooled Income Fund

A total of $243,312.70 in gifts and grants to WMU in October was acknowledged Nov. 22 by the WMU Board of Trustees. The Board established a pooled income fund to augment the efforts of the University in soliciting private financial support.

"I feel strongly that we have established the University, the Foundation and Alumni and Student Alumni Association and the Community as our major contributors, and that we have a good kettle going," President for Finance Robert B. Wetnight told the Board. "The amounts just entered and already have reached the half-way point in securing gifts.

"We feel we have a good kettle going. We are off to a better than we expected start to the year," Wetnight said.

The grant will be used to develop leadership skills in the B.O.E.C. members, to provide in-service and pre-service instruction for education institutions to encourage their involvement in B.O.E.C., and to hold competitive events at the state, regional and national levels.

Also, the Michigan Office of Criminal Justice Programs has recommended a School of Social Work for the Parchman School Learning Center for the continuation of a juvenile delinquency program to encourage the development of programs and organizations that will work to make the state and local communities.

The B.O.E.C. also established a pooled income fund, which meets the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service, is a device by which persons wishing to donate small amounts can make contributions and work to encourage them to continue in the foundation.

Policy guidelines for implementation of the fund will be recommended at a later date.

DePeaux Painting Wins $1,000 Prize

An untitled painting by Richard DePeaux, WMU associate professor of humanities, has won a $1,000 prize awarded by the Michigan Focus 1974-75 exhibition jury. Michigan Focus 1974-75 opens the weekend of Dec. 6, with paintings shown in Flint, sculptures at the Detroit Institute of Arts, prints in Grand Rapids. The competition was judged by Robert Pincus, former editor of Architectural Magazine; Henry Hopkins, director, San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, and DePeaux. The University of Pennsylvania's Institute for Contemporary Art, and Yale University.

DePeaux's art is now on display in the Student Recreation Building, Knauss Hall, and at galleries in London and Tokyo.

VanDeVenter to Retire; Change Title

The retirement of a Western Michigan faculty member with 19 years of service to the University was approved by the WMU Board of Trustees.

Clarence N. VanDeventer, an associate professor of transportation technology, has served in that capacity since 1955 as an associate professor of engineering technology. He will retire with emeritus status April 26, 1975.

In addition to his teaching duties, VanDeventer was a student aviation advisor in the transportation technology department since 1955 as an associate director in Henry Hall, 1960-65, and in Elder Fox Halls, 1966-68. During VanDeventer's faculty, VanDeventer taught in the aviation department of Hammonds (Ind.) Technical Vocational High School. He earned his bachelor's degree in 1946 from Winona Teachers College.

Christmas Concert Here Dec. 15

In keeping with a tradition that encompasses more than a quarter of a century, Western's department of music will present its annual "Christmas gift" to the community at 7 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 15, in Miller Auditorium. Admission is free and open to the public.

The annual Christmas Concert will feature the performance of J. S. Bach's "Magnificat." The University Singers, the Orchestra and Choir will perform the original (1723) version of this famous work, which includes several rarely performed a capella chorales. Herbert Butler will conduct the "Magnificat," with the choir having been prepared by Mel Ivey.

"I assigned to the Virgin, the "Magnificat," has been traced back to the earliest years of Christianity. The text, which has many references to the Old Testament, is found in the Gospel of St. Luke when Mary goes to visit Elisabeth, the wife of the high priest Zacharius. Elisabeth "spoke out with a loud voice and said, Blessed art thou among women . . . and Mary said, A soul doth magnify the Lord." In the inspired song found its way into the liturgy as the conclusion of the Vespers. In the course of the ages it inspired innumerable arrangements and musical settings. Solos for the "Magnificat" include soprano Linda Schwartz, a vocal graduate assistant; senior vocal student Elizabeth Lawson; and bass, Alan Dyer, a senior from Detroit.

Also on the Christmas concert will be two works for brass by Gabrieli.

Seek Foreign Student Hosts

The Office of Foreign Student Affairs is expecting approximately 450 foreign students to enroll at Western for the coming Winter Semester.

These students will begin arriving around December 30 to participate in a pre-enrollment orientation program and to prepare for registration.

A number of the new students have families and it is hoped, the family in the area until suitable housing can be arranged. (NOTE: University housing is not available until January 3.) "Home-stay" placements are now being made through the Office of Foreign Student Affairs; however, additional families interested in hosting a student(s) are desperately needed.

Faculty and staff who would like to host a foreign student for several days prior to the start of the winter semester are asked to contact Mrs. Barbara Garland in the Office of Foreign Student Affairs, telephone 383-0969.

Seek Applications For Berlin Post

Applications are being accepted from Western faculty members for a 1975-76 teaching position at the Pädagogische Hochschule in West Berlin to participate in a student exchange program, according to Peter Krawutschke, an assistant professor for Foreign Language, and member of the Berlin Affiliation Committee.

The position, which includes a compensation package of $4,000 per month for a single faculty member, is available for either one year or will be divided into two one-semester positions, Krawutschke said. The compensation is variable depending on number of dependents, age and length of prior university service.

Primarily sought are inquiries from Western faculty who would like to teach English courses, Krawutschke said, but applicants from the fields of education, sociology, political science and psychology are also welcome.

Western has had an affiliation with the Pedagogische Hochschule since 1969, and students have been exchanged on an alternate year basis.

Interested faculty members should contact either Dr. Otto Teufel, 383-2219, or Peter Krawutschke, 383-0969, for further details.

Wans Accountancy Scholarship

Douglas R. Nienhuis, a WMU senior from Holland, has won a tuition scholarship in accountancy awarded by the Kalamazoo Accountants Association. He is a member of Beta Alpha Psi, honorary accounting fraternity.
Bronco Cagers

Home Saturday

Western's basketball team entertains Northern Iowa at 3 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 7, here in Read Fieldhouse. The Broncos hosted Eastern Michigan last night, the results of that game were not known at press time.

There will also be a preliminary contest Saturday at 12:45 p.m. when Kalamazoo College plays Goshen College in Read Fieldhouse.

Hockey Broncos Host Lake Forest

Western Michigan's men's ice hockey team hosts Lake Forest College at 7:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday in games that Coach Bill Neal and his squad hopes are the first steps toward another Central Collegiate Hockey Association tournament berth.

The Broncos, who along with Lake Forest and Buffalo compete in the CCHA Division II play, qualified for the league playoff fourth spot a year ago in view of a 2-1-1 edge in the Buffalo series. Lake Forest is new to the Division II ranks this winter.

Neal's club will carry a 4-1 mark into the weekend series in Lawson Arena after being stopped by unbeaten St. Clair College, 6-2, last Wednesday in Windsor, Ont.

Wrestlers Open In State Tourney

The Western Michigan wrestling team will begin its 1974-75 season this weekend in Ypsilanti at the annual Michigan Collegiate Tournament.

Coach George Hobbs is looking forward to the season opener, stating, "this is a big tournament and a fun tournament. All Michigan universities are eligible and most of them go.'"

Hobbs sees the Chipewa of Central Michigan as the favorites, with Michigan, Michigan State and the Broncos fighting for the next three spots.

Leading the Broncos are 1973-74 state champions Gary Martin and Bill Box, runner-up for loop honors at 190 a year ago.

To Honor Former Campus Minister

A portrait of the late Rev. Owen Akers will be dedicated at 4 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 8, here in the Kanley Chapel social room. Interested faculty, staff and students are invited.

Akers was a campus minister here for 24 years in the spring of 1973. The portrait is a gift from the United Campus Christian Fellowship and will be hung in the Akers family home. The city is giving in trust to WMU for display in his memory.

Campus Calendar

Dec. 5

- New Music Mini-Festival, Jazz Ensemble, Oakland Recital Hall, 8 p.m.

Dec. 6

- Comedy "Him" by e. c. cummings, Shaw Arena Theatre, 8 p.m.

- Norman Luboff Choir Christmas Show, Miller Auditorium, 8 p.m. (Sold out.)

- New Structures in Sound concert, Oakland Recital Hall, 8 p.m.

Dec. 7

- Hockey: WMU vs. Lake Forest College, Lawson Arena, 7:30 p.m.

- New Music Ensemble concert, Oakland Recital Hall, 8 p.m.

- Basketball: WMU vs. Northern Iowa, Read Fieldhouse, 8 p.m.

- University Symphonic Band concert, Miller Auditorium, 3 p.m.

- Kalamazoo Symphony with Michael Lorimer, guitarist, Miller Auditorium, 8 p.m.

Dec. 12

- Math Colloquium "Project SEED" by William A. Burdick, 11 A.M. (TBA)

- Annual WMU Christmas concert, Lawson Arena, 7:30 p.m.

- Hockey: WMU vs. Bowling Green, Lawson Arena, 7:30 p.m.

- Fall semester commencement, Read Fieldhouse, 7 p.m.

Admission charged.

---

SEED Director To Lecture Here

William A. Burdick, director of Project SEED (Special Elementary Education for the Disadvantaged) for Michigan, will conduct a mathematics colloquium at 11 a.m. Thursday, Dec. 12, in 1118 Rood Hall.

He will present a demonstration, making use of elementary school students from Kalamazoo, in which they will show their ability to do 11th and 12th grade mathematics problems. The youngsters, chosen at random from the public schools, will work with Burdick for only three or four classroom periods prior to the demonstration.

Sponsored by the state and the city, Project SEED teaches advanced mathematics to the disadvantaged child to raise his self-concept and achievement level. Burdick earned both his B.A. and M.A. degrees in mathematics from the University of Michigan and has done most of his work at WMU. His father is Dr. William L. Burdick, professor of general business at Western Michigan University.

The colloquium is open to all interested persons without charge.

Faculty, Staff Must Re-register Vehicles

Western's Department of Public Safety has announced that re-registration of faculty and staff vehicles will be completed at several campus locations now through Dec. 17.

All faculty and staff must re-register their vehicles by Jan. 1, 1975, when tickets will be issued to all cars with old faculty/staff stickers.

At the time of registration, at any of the locations or times listed below, the vehicle registration and faculty/staff identification is required. The new registration sticker must be placed in the lower right hand corner of the front windshield.

Dec. 5: Sangren Hall, main lobby, 8-11:30 a.m.; Wood Hall, main lobby, 1-4 p.m.

Dec. 6: Gary Center, Hall of Fame, 8-11:30 a.m.; University Student Center, 1-4 p.m.

Dec. 9: Brown Hall, main lobby, 8-11:30 a.m.; IEET Bldg., main lobby, 1-4 p.m.

Dec. 10: IEET Bldg., main lobby, 8-11:30 a.m.; Brown Hall, main lobby, 1-4 p.m.

Dec. 11: Rood Hall, main lobby, 8-11:30 a.m.; Rood Hall, main lobby, 1-4 p.m.

Dec. 12: Dunbar Hall, main lobby, 8-11:30 a.m.; Rood Hall, main lobby, 1-4 p.m.

Dec. 13: Student Services Bldg., main lobby, 8-11:30 a.m.; McCracken Hall, main lobby, 1-4 p.m.

Dec. 16: McCracken Hall, main lobby, 8-11:30 a.m.; Waldo Library, main lobby, 1-4 p.m.

Dec. 18: Waldo Library, main lobby, 8-11:30 a.m.

Display Moatz Sculptures

An exhibit of plastic sculptures done by Suzanne Moatz, WMU art instructor, is on display through December here in 2700 Knnaas Hall. The show includes several cast bronze sculptures done in Vacuum-fused, a material that is a laminated resin.

Trustees Meet Dec. 17

The next regular meeting of the Western Michigan University Board of Trustees will be held at 1:45 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 17, here in the University Student Center.