Implement C/T Study; Finish Hearing Appeals

The results of the C/T Classification hearings were announced Jan. 1. All University records have been adjusted to indicate the new "H" rank and grade codes for clerical/technical non-exempt staff, according to the Personnel Department.

Those individuals whose pay rates, as of Dec. 30, 1974, were below the minimum rate of their new salary grade, will receive an adjustment to the new minimum rate. Due to payroll processing the actual technical effective date of rate changes is the first day of pay period no. 28, Monday, Dec. 30, 1974. These changes will be reflected on the paychecks issued on Jan. 21.

Those individuals whose present pay rate is above the minimum (step 1) of their new salary grade, do not receive an additional adjustment Jan. 1. However, pay adjustments for the next fiscal year (normally July 1) will take into account "time-in-grade," according to the announcement.

The C/T Appeals Committee also has completed its deliberations on the 49 cases referred on the results of the study. Any salary grade or rate changes which are a result of an appeal will be reflected on the Jan. 21 paychecks. Individual notifications are being mailed to all appellants this week.

Seek Students Interested in Receiving Or Providing Tutorial Services Here

Several new appointments, including the coordinator of academic advising, registrar, director of registration and head football coach, were approved Dec. 17 by the WMU Board of Trustees.

Donald L. DeLong, an instructor of humanities in the College of General Studies, was named as University coordinator of academic advising, effective Jan. 6.

A change for the better for Dennis E. Boyle, registration, from director of registration to registrar, and the appointment of Mary Kaye Leamy, assistant director of registration and registrar, were approved Jan. 1, effective Jan. 1.

Boyle, who has been registration director since 1967, fills the reorganized position which was vacated Dec. 31 by Clayton Maus, retiring dean of records, registration and admissions. As registrar, Boyle will have responsibility for the areas of records and registration and will report directly to the vice president for administration, Dr. Myron L. Coulter, as will the admissions director.

"Boyle has been an extremely effective director, and his innovative approaches to the registration procedure, such as the initial on-campus and advanced registration process, have established Western as a university that has been frequently called upon by sister institutions for advice and counsel," Coulter said.

"Likewise," Coulter continued, "Mary Kaye Leamy has shown efficient operation of the registration procedures, and by virtue of her record of performance, has earned the confidence of the administration. We are pleased she has qualified herself very strongly for this position.

In other action, the Board accepted the resignation of William Doolittle, head coach, effective Nov. 18, and approved the appointment of Elliot Uzelac as head football coach, effective Dec. 12, for a three-year term. Uzelac, a WMU alumus, has been an assistant football coach at the University of Michigan.

MYRNA LOY will have the female lead in the reader's theatre production of George Bernard Shaw's "Don Juan in Hell" at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 21, in Miller Auditorium. Appearing with her will be Ricardo Montalban, Edward Mulhare and Kurt Kaszmer. Tickets are $2.50, $4 and $5.

Sabrack To Present Solo Flute Recital

Flutist Edwin Sabrack will present a free public solo recital at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 22, in Oak-land Recital Hall.

Sabrack is an administrative assistant in the WMU department of music, where he also teaches music theory and applied flute. His program will emphasize works for flute and chamber groups.

Assisting musicians will include Madeline Williamson, piano, Diane Bredeisen-Richardson, cello, and members of the University Symphonic Band, conducted by Carl Bjerggaard.

Special guest soloist will be soprano Susan Lillian Short, the current "Miss Michigan." In December, Miss Short received her Music degree in voice from Western Michigan University and performed Frank Marten's "Three Christmas Songs" and "One Flute Invisible" by Saint-Saens.

Geology Seminar Friday

Dr. Robert Newton, University of Chicago, will speak at a geology department seminar at 4 p.m. Friday, Jan. 17, in 1118 Rood Hall. His topic will be "Storage of CO2 in the Deep Earth."

Dames Schedule China Program

Dr. Alfred Ho, WMU professor of economics, will discuss his 1973 visit to mainland China and the University Dames tea at 1 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 23, in the Martin Luther Room of the University Student Center.

"We do caution students to seek tutorial assistance as soon as possible before insurmountable problems arise," said Johnson. "The best of tutors cannot work miracles. We also ask instructors to encourage their students to come to us as soon as they think this kind of service is advisable." She indicated that weekly sessions are held for specific courses that prove personally troublesome.

For those who have not tutored before, the WMU office offers guidance in establishing a personal relationship between the tutor and the student and in methods and techniques employers are using in specific academic disciplines. The office is also offering workshops in theories of tutoring and interested tutors.

In addition, a library skill special is available to provide assistance in the library and with the development of materials.

Offer Placement Series for Seniors

Western's Placement Center is conducting a series of placement seminars twice weekly for seniors who are planning careers in business, industry and government.

Each of the programs begins at 2 p.m. in 3560 Dunbar Hall and is given each Tuesday and Wednesday through Jan. 29. The first seminar is intended for students with internship and placement credentials; it was held earlier this week.

"Potential Employers and Correspondence" is the subject of Seminar II on Jan. 21 and 22. "The Employment Interview" will be the subject of Seminar III on Jan. 28 and 29. Following a discussion of the day's topic, each program will be a videotape of an actual job interview.

In addition to senior students, the series is also open to WMU alumni. The seminars are under the direction of Daniel C. Hinsberger, assistant director, and Dan O. Smithson, graduate assistant, in the University's Placement Center.

Chem Program Monday

Dr. Morton Raban of Wayne State University will speak at the WMU chemistry colloquium at 4 p.m. Monday, Jan. 20, in 5280 McClintock. The program is sponsored by the WMU chapter of the American Chemical Society.

Film Festival Jan. 23

Trustees Approve Code of Student Life

A new WMU Code of Student Life was approved by the Board of Trustees at its Dec. 17th meeting.

Distinguishing features of the new code that will help enhance the educational process, according to the Board, are the provisions dealing with possession of weapons, temporary suspension and the judicial process.

The Board's adoption of the new code reflects its awareness of the rapid change in the University administration must report back to the trustees within a 60-day period any reports concerning the current University policy requiring freshmen and sophomore students to reside in University residence halls. "The concern expressed by the Associated Student Government (ASG) certainly warrants this study," stated the Board's student services committee, composed of Trustees Mrs. Mildred Johnson, Mrs. Maury E. Parlet and Dr. Lisa Frank.

The code is to be continually reviewed for the purpose of improvement and to enhance the educational process, according to the Board committee. Western's Faculty Senate has also urged the immediate attention of the Trustees be given to the housing regulations; they have called a "total University concern which deserves serious investigation at this time." Dr. John E. H. Wagnon, WMU President, reported that the new code was unanimously approved by the Student Senate on Oct. 15. However, ASG President Michael P. Hatty reported that the new code was worded to be approved by the Student Senate on Dec. 17. Coyne further explained that "it is in conflict with our philosophy and . . . not in the best interests of the students."

Trustee Tom Conkling, student services, explained that the old code was approved in 1966 and sections of it had been updated periodically. He also noted that the new code had been in preparation for more than two years. Coyne said a working draft was originally prepared by dean of students Marie Stenson and assistant dean, Don Maxwell, and presented for review and recommendation by the Student Services Council (SSC).

Consisting of nine students, four faculty members and two administrator members, the SSC reported its approval of the new code to the ASG last winter. Coyne explained that the delay in receiving ASG approval was due partly to disputed student elections, disagreements on various sections and the semester ending before deliberations could be scheduled.

The Code of Student Life follows:

CODE OF STUDENT LIFE

(Approved by WMU Board of Trustees, December 17, 1974)

It is the intention of Western Michigan University to have the Faculty help in developing a responsible, intelligent University community by maintaining high standards of self-discipline and a sense of responsibility to the community.

ARTICLE I—GENERAL UNIVERSITY POLICY

Section 100.00: In all its relationships the University is to be a living model of the basis of race, religion, sex, age or nationality.

Section 100.01: Students are responsible for observing all federal and state laws as well as city ordinances and regula-TIONS OF WESTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY. All University regulations will result in disciplinary action.

Section 101.01: Any student who violates these provisions while on University premises or while using University facilities off campus, is subject to appropriate disciplinary action.

Section 101.02: Any student convicted of violation of any federal, state or city ordinance off campus shall not be subject to disciplinary action by the University administrative process he is found to constitute a clear and present danger to the University and/or himself.

Section 102.06: Each student must be given an identification card for which he or she is responsible. This card should be carried at all times and upon request and identification from University representatives, may be required to present the card for attendance, identification, and/or other necessary purposes.

Section 102.01: At the beginning of each semester or session, each student is required to validate his or her identification card through the Registration Office. This time, the second or correct schedule address shall be reported. Any change thereby request in the semester or through the semester shall be reported within three days to the Academic Records Office.

Section 103.00: If the University or its agencies have legitimate financial claims against a student, his or her privilege to re-register may be withheld.

Section 104.00: Fund raising and merchandising projects on campus are to be conducted in a manner that is in line with our philosophy and . . . not in the best interests of the students.

Section 105.00: HOUSING POLICIES AND REGULATIONS. It is the condition of enrollment at Western Michigan University that all Freshmen and Sophomore students live in residence hall on campus. The classification of the student is normally conducted with any consideration to his or her family background and hours earned that are acceptable to Western Michigan University.

Faculty members, Freshmen, and Sophomore students may live in housing of their own choosing.

Section 106.01: EXEMPTION OF REGULATIONS. A request for exemption from regulations to occupy housing other than a University residence hall may be granted by ALL FRESHMEN AND SOPHOMORE STUDENTS regardless of age, race, sex, marital status, or veteran status. Exemption requests must be submitted to the Office of Off-Campus Housing, Student Services Building, for approval. A form is provided for this purpose.

Section 106.02: GUIDELINES FOR GRANTING EXEMPTIONS.

a. Married Students—those living with their spouses.

b. Freshmen or Sophomore students—those who have served in the armed forces and have not been authorized by the University to continue their education off campus.

c. Part-Time Students—those living 5 hours or less during fall and winter semesters and 4 hours or less during spring and summer semesters.

d. Commuting Students—those living in the homes of their parents. A parent has the privilege of removing such students from the University housing arrangement before an ex-

se. Unique Circumstances—unwed mothers, severely physically handicapped, family, emotional, or extreme psychological problems, Bronson nurses in Truesdale Hall, seminary students in residence halls, and veterans of the Armed Forces.

The Board's adoption of the new code reflects its awareness of the rapid change in the University community by maintaining high standards of self-discipline and a sense of responsibility to the community.

ARTICLE II—UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS

Alfred Griffin, and supported by the teacher education department.

Coed Wins $1 Per Word

Cheryl Ann Howarth's skill in writing about the values of advertising has paid off for her at approximately a dollar per word.

The WMU junior from Farmington will receive the $1,900 Daven-son Art Scholarship awarded today in Detroit. The award will be made by the Art, Marketing, Communications, and Public Relations departments.

Pippen said, "Orchids illustrate one of the most sophisticated and bizarre families of flowering plants in the world." He will conduct experiments on the pollination factors, and genetics of orchids and believes that WMU's expanded collection will benefit orchid growers throughout Michigan.
