10 Legislators Visit Western

Western was visited Monday by 10 state legislators and other special guests who toured the campus and conferred with University officials about WMU's current and 1975-76 budget goals.

WMU President John T. Bernhard recently was awarded an honorary Doctor of Laws degree at the Chungnam National University of South Korea in Daejon, Korea. In special ceremonies, Dr. Bernhard was recognized for his "distinguished contributions to the interchange of American and Korean cultures as well as the development of education and culture."

WMU's Center for Korean Studies, directed by Dr. Andrew Nuber, was also cited as the first formal unit for study and research on Korea in the continental United States. It was established in 1972.

Bernhard, in accepting the honorary doctorate, noted that the goals of Chungnam and Western are very similar. "We both strive for the development of the nation and betterment of human welfare," he said.

HONORARY DOCTORATE—WMU President John T. Bernhard (left) is pictured above at recent ceremonies in Daejon, Korea, where he was awarded an honorary Doctor of Laws degree from Chungnam National University of South Korea. From left are: Dr. Bernhard, Prof. S. Y. Park, Chungnam dean of general studies; Dr. H. B. Park, president of Chungnam; and Dr. M. T. Kwon, dean of Chungnam's Graduate School. Bernhard and WMU's Center for Korean Studies were cited for their interest in and support of international programs.

Chungnam University Honors Bernhard, Western's Center for Korean Studies

While en route to Korea, Bernhard served as a consultant to the Taiwanese Ministry of Education. He and his wife, Ramona, visited the following institutions of higher education in Taiwan: National Taiwan University, Chung-hua University, Chiao-tung University, and the Tamkang College of Arts and Sciences in Taipai.

Senate Meets Tonight

Western's Faculty Senate will meet at 7 o'clock tonight in Room 1008 of the Adrian Board Tripoint Education Building.

The proposed agenda includes the following topics: "Statement of Role of Budget and Finance Council"; "Nominations for Senate President and Vice President"; "Faculty Research Fund Guidelines"; and "Proposed General Education Policy."

LEGISLATORS HERE—Pictured above are some of the 10 state legislators that visited the campus Monday. From left are: Rep. Wayne Sackett; Rep. Howard Wolpe, Rep. Dominic Jacobetti, chairman, House Appropriations Committee; Rep. Paul Rosenbaum, chairman, House Judiciary Committee; and Sen. Jerome Hart, chairman, Senate Appropriations Committee. In the background, from left, are: Rep. Thomas G. Sharpe, WMU Trustee Philip Watterson; Sen. Bill Huffman, chairman, Senate appropriations subcommittee on higher education. They toured the campus and conferred with University officials.

Asian Series Begins Tonight

A free Asian Studies film series begins tonight and will be held for eight additional Thursdays at 7 p.m. in 1104 Rood Hall.

Tonight's film is entitled "The New China—II"; it will look at self-reliance; one nation, many peoples; people's communities; and people's army.

Mann, Singers Here Tuesday

Miller Auditorium will present Johnny Mann and the Johnny Mann Singers at 8 p.m., Tuesday, Feb. 11. Their program is entitled "Stand Up and Cheer" is part of the 1974-75 Patron's Choice Series and will be held on the Western campus for one performance only.

Mann is probably best known as creator and director of the Mann Singers, a late-night Joey Bishop Show. He has served with the U.S. Army Field Band as arranger, composer, singer and instrumentalist. He did composing and arranging scores for several full-length motion pictures for Warner Bros., 20th Century Fox and Columbia Studios.

Remaining tickets are priced at $5 and $3.50, $6 tickets are completely sold out.

Spring Registration

Advance registration for Western's spring semester will continue through March 21, the registration office has announced.

The spring schedule of classes and registration forms are now available at 2010 Admin Building, where the completed forms may be delivered from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Students' schedules and fees' bills will be mailed to their local addresses the week of April 1, and payments are due April 18. The WMU spring session is from May 5 to June 25.

Set Luncheon Series

Western's International Student Luncheon is held every Wednesday at noon in the social room of the Kenyon Chapel.

There are no formal speeches, just an international dialogue and lots of people with unique international experiences, according to Don Van Hoeven, campus minister, who coordinates the program. The series is sponsored by the Campus Ministry in cooperation with Church Women United.
Continuing Education

One of the highlights of the annual Awareness Week sponsored by Western's Associated Women Students (AWS) is the Monday, Feb. 17, appearance on campus of Martha Griffiths, former Michigan congresswoman.

She will speak at 8 p.m. in the east ballroom, University Student Center, on "Equal Rights for Women," following a 6:30 p.m. dinner in the Gold Room. A former member of the House of Rep- resentatives Ways and Means Committee, she was a sponsor of the Equal Rights Amendment. At 9:30 p.m., there will be an informal get-together with Griffiths in the Student Center lounge.

A second nationally-prominent speaker during the week will be Karen DeCrow, an attorney, and president of the National Organization for Women, on Wednesday, Feb. 19, also at 8 p.m. in the Student Center east ballroom, following a 6:30 p.m. dinner in the Gold Room. The deadline for reservations for both dinners is Feb. 13.

DeCrow, an attorney, is noted for her book, "Sextist Justice," and many articles in national publications as well as for network news and TV appearances. She will be available for informal discussion 2:30-4:30 p.m., after her Student Center talk. A native of Grand Rapids, DeCrow was graduated around the subject of love, work, viola; and Miss Rupert, harp. The latter will resemble the subject of love, work, viola; and Miss Rupert, harp. The last group of songs which Dr. Zastrow will sing has been composed by Davy Fish with choreo-

Offer W.U. Course

Beginning Feb. 15

12-week televised college course for high school and secondary teachers will begin this month in cooperation with WMU.

"Human Relations and School Discipline" starts at 7:30 a.m., Feb. 15, 1975, on WMU-TV. Classes are 8:30 a.m. March 4 over WGVY-TV, Grand Rapids. The latter will repeat at 7:30 p.m. Tuesdays and 12:30 p.m. Thursdays.

Fees are $58 for two semester hours and six credits. Registration forms and additional information may be obtained from the WMU Division of Continuing Education.

A.W.S. Plans Awareness Week

Set AfrAmeriCan Chorale Concert

The first annual free concert of the AfrAmeriCan Chorale, under the direction of Phil- lips, will be given at 8 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 13, here in Kanley Chapel.

The program will include the combined efforts of Dr. LeRoi Ray, Jr., director of Black Americ- an Chorale, and Dr. Charles Houston, chairman of the department of education and adjunct professor of music.

The basic goal of the singers, according to Ray, is to perform authen- tic AfrAmeriCan folk music, both sacred and secular, to cre- ate interest in this art form within the community. Through the coop- erative efforts of many people in the community and at WMU, Ray noted, research and expression of the Black experience through Black music has been made possible.

"U.1. To Present"

"Tempest" Feb. 13-15

Shakespeare's "The Tempest" will be presented by University Theatre March 14-15, and 19-22 in the Laura V. Shaw Theatre.

Dr. Richard McMillan, director of University Theatre, said the play is "The Tempest" is a delightful, lively presentation of a story told by the sea. One of Shakespeare's masterpieces, the play was written around 1611 and is probably the last he wrote, with a plot which is loosely written by Shakespeare.

Livingston has designed the stage sets and costumes. The costumes were designed by Betty L. Ongley, and the lighting. Original music for this production has been com- posed by Dave Fehl with choreo-

Carnival of Venice

A faculty recital, sponsored by the Department of Music and the Faculty Senate, will be held Saturday, Feb. 15, at 8 p.m. in the Kalamazoo YMCA. The program will include a per-

AYBA Luncheon Start

Luncheon meetings for WMU faculty and graduate students are being held this week and next Monday in the University Student Center under the sponsorship of the Division of Instructional Communications, Office of Instructional Development.

The informal meetings will allow faculty to ask questions of per-

Soprano Presents Solo Recital

The department of music will present a free public solo faculty recital at 8 p.m. Friday, Feb. 14, in Oakland Room.

She will be accompanied by Mary Jane Rupert, an associate professor, and will perform "Songs of the Nightingale." The recital will begin at 8 p.m. in the YWCA, as part of a Saturday Susan B. Anthony Birthday Celebration.

Another speaker, Susan Stark, Detroit Free Press film critic, may be heard at 2 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 20, in 3282 Brown Hall, discussing women and Hollywood movies.

Tuesday, Feb. 18, will be filled by an 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. series of celebra-

African Lecture Tuesday Night

Richard Sigwalt of Western's College of General Studies' Non-Western World Program, will present the anthropology department col-

A.W.S. Plans Awareness Week

The first annual free concert of the AfrAmeriCan Chorale, under the direction of Philips, will be given at 8 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 13, here in Kanley Chapel.

The program will include the combined efforts of Dr. LeRoi Ray, Jr., director of Black Ameri-

The Tempest Feb. 13-15

Shakespeare's "The Tempest" will be presented by University Theatre on March 14-15, and 19-22, in the Laura V. Shaw Theatre.

Dr. Richard McMillan, director of University Theatre, said the play is "The Tempest" is a delightful, lively presentation of a story told by the sea. One of Shakespeare's masterpieces, the play was written around 1611 and is probably the last he wrote, with a plot which is loosely written by Shakespeare.

Livingston has designed the stage sets and costumes. The costumes were designed by Betty L. Ongley, and the lighting. Original music for this production has been composed by Dave Fehl with choreo-

Carnival of Venice

A faculty recital, sponsored by the Department of Music and the Faculty Senate, will be held Saturday, Feb. 15, at 8 p.m. in the Kalamazoo YMCA. The program will include a per-

AYBA Luncheon Start

Luncheon meetings for WMU faculty and graduate students are being held this week and next Monday in the University Student Center under the sponsorship of the Division of Instructional Communications, Office of Instructional Development.

The informal meetings will allow faculty to ask questions of per-

Soprano Presents Solo Recital

The department of music will present a free public solo faculty recital at 8 p.m. Friday, Feb. 14, in Oakland Room.

She will be accompanied by Mary Jane Rupert, an associate professor, and will perform "Songs of the Nightingale." The recital will begin at 8 p.m. in the YWCA, as part of a Saturday Susan B. Anthony Birthday Celebration.

Another speaker, Susan Stark, Detroit Free Press film critic, may be heard at 2 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 20, in 3282 Brown Hall, discussing women and Hollywood movies.

Tuesday, Feb. 18, will be filled by an 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. series of celebra-

African Lecture Tuesday Night

Richard Sigwalt of Western's College of General Studies' Non-Western World Program, will present the anthropology department col-

A.W.S. Plans Awareness Week

The first annual free concert of the AfrAmeriCan Chorale, under the direction of Philips, will be given at 8 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 13, here in Kanley Chapel.

The program will include the combined efforts of Dr. LeRoi Ray, Jr., director of Black Ameri-

The Tempest Feb. 13-15

Shakespeare's "The Tempest" will be presented by University Theatre on March 14-15, and 19-22, in the Laura V. Shaw Theatre.

Dr. Richard McMillan, director of University Theatre, said the play is "The Tempest" is a delightful, lively presentation of a story told by the sea. One of Shakespeare's masterpieces, the play was written around 1611 and is probably the last he wrote, with a plot which is loosely written by Shakespeare.

Livingston has designed the stage sets and costumes. The costumes were designed by Betty L. Ongley, and the lighting. Original music for this production has been composed by Dave Fehl with choreo-

Carnival of Venice

A faculty recital, sponsored by the Department of Music and the Faculty Senate, will be held Saturday, Feb. 15, at 8 p.m. in the Kalamazoo YMCA. The program will include a per-

AYBA Luncheon Start

Luncheon meetings for WMU faculty and graduate students are being held this week and next Monday in the University Student Center under the sponsorship of the Division of Instructional Communications, Office of Instructional Development.

The informal meetings will allow faculty to ask questions of per-

Soprano Presents Solo Recital

The department of music will present a free public solo faculty recital at 8 p.m. Friday, Feb. 14, in Oakland Room.

She will be accompanied by Mary Jane Rupert, an associate professor, and will perform "Songs of the Nightingale." The recital will begin at 8 p.m. in the YWCA, as part of a Saturday Susan B. Anthony Birthday Celebration.

Another speaker, Susan Stark, Detroit Free Press film critic, may be heard at 2 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 20, in 3282 Brown Hall, discussing women and Hollywood movies.

Tuesday, Feb. 18, will be filled by an 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. series of celebra-
University Theatre will present its Children's Theatre VIII February 17-22 in the Arena of Laura V. Shaw Theatre.

As in the past, the 1 p.m. weekday afternoon performances are open only to organized classroom groups already scheduled, but there will be four performances open to the general public. These performances will be presented at 4 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 17, and at 1 and 3 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 22.

Children's Experimental Theatre VIII is entitled "I Touch You—You're Touched" and is geared to children in the third grade. If it can be judged from shows in the past, however, it will probably prove as appealing to audiences of all ages.

Director Lydia Stillwell of the University theatre staff says, "The approach is again experimental."
The company—made up of the cast, production crew, music department assistants—and director Stillwell along with setting designer-technical director Vern Stillwell and costumer William Cooper—is working altogether a few weeks to develop the show's theme and dramatize it. They hope the results produced will be an entertaining, worthwhile, and appropriate play program for children. Audience participation is included in the show, and the audition will be seated on the floor, as usually.

Assisting the director are junior dance/communications major Tunc-kae Buan and senior CAS major Brien L. D'Allois, and in 317 Sot of St. Marie, Ontario, Canada, is stage manager.

Kindergarten associations serve as construction and set-up as well as running crews and contributors to the actual show content as an integral part of the company. They include junior CAS majors Julie L.
Brenner of Benton Harbor, an assistant director last year; and Wil-

Western News • Thursday, February 6, 1975 • Three

University Jazz Band, Trombonist Urbie Green To Perform Friday

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia and the department of music will present the University Jazz Lab Band in concerts at 8 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 7, and 1 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 10, in Miller Auditorium. General admission will be $1 per person.

Under the direction of Bobby Davidson, the first half of the program will feature a complete variety of big band styles including blues, rock, big band and straight ahead jazz. The arrangements are from the hands of Ray Brown, Count Basie, Buddy Rich, Thad Jones and others.

Trombonist Urbie Green will be the guest artist with the Jazz Lab Band during the second portion of the program. Green's first big break came with Jan Savitt's orchestra and his performance earned him accolades from the greats of the business. He then toured with Frankie Carle and Gene Krupa, and in 1950, he headed straight for New York, where he joined Woody Herman's great band and was the featured soloist in the famous "Blue Flame." Present, Green won the BEAT International Critics Award for "new star." In 1956, he opened the Benny Goodman show in Boston, followed by an engagement at New York's Waldorf Astoria, also with the band.

For a time, he was leader of the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra. Freedom of expression, challenge, and Green does record work mostly, has been featured on recordings with Krupa, Frank Carle, Hugo Winterhalter, Joe Reisman, Ray Block, Jackie Gleason, Bob Scobey, Ray Brown, and many others.

He has been called by Tony Bennett, Peggy Lee and Frank Sinatra, and his backing for their vocalizing has been part of the company. They include junior CAS majors Julie L. Brenner of Benton Harbor, an assistant director last year; and William B. Langlois of Kalamazoo, who is also major in art major.

For time, he was leader of the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra. Freedom of expression, challenge, and Green does record work mostly, has been featured on recordings with Krupa, Frank Carle, Hugo Winterhalter, Joe Reisman, Ray Block, Jackie Gleason, Bob Scobey, Ray Brown, and many others.

He has been called by Tony Bennett, Peggy Lee and Frank Sinatra, and his backing for their vocalizing has been part of the company. They include junior CAS majors Julie L. Brenner of Benton Harbor, an assistant director last year; and William B. Langlois of Kalamazoo, who is also major in art major.

For a time, he was leader of the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra. Freedom of expression, challenge, and Green does record work mostly, has been featured on recordings with Krupa, Frank Carle, Hugo Winterhalter, Joe Reisman, Ray Block, Jackie Gleason, Bob Scobey, Ray Brown, and many others.

He has been called by Tony Bennett, Peggy Lee and Frank Sinatra, and his backing for their vocalizing has been part of the company. They include junior CAS majors Julie L. Brenner of Benton Harbor, an assistant director last year; and William B. Langlois of Kalamazoo, who is also major in art major.

For a time, he was leader of the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra. Freedom of expression, challenge, and Green does record work mostly, has been featured on recordings with Krupa, Frank Carle, Hugo Winterhalter, Joe Reisman, Ray Block, Jackie Gleason, Bob Scobey, Ray Brown, and many others.

He has been called by Tony Bennett, Peggy Lee and Frank Sinatra, and his backing for their vocalizing has been part of the company. They include junior CAS majors Julie L. Brenner of Benton Harbor, an assistant director last year; and William B. Langlois of Kalamazoo, who is also major in art major.
Irish Wrestlers Here Tonight

Notre Dame's wrestling team visits its Central Michigan foe for a 7:30 p.m. dual against Western Michigan as the Broncos will attempt to even their mark.

Coach George Bobbs' club bowed, 22-17, to Mid-Western Conference foe Miami University here last Saturday, Western's record is 4-5.

The highlight of the meet from the Bronco standpoint was a pin by Bill Cox in 100-pound competition. The Flint senior now owns 16 career falls to rank second on the school's all-time list behind 1974 NCAA champion Doug Wyn.

Cox is 10-1 record this season with eight pins.

Western has faced Notre Dame 17 times in past years and has won with 15 wins, including a 24-17 triumph on the Irish campus last year.

The probable Bronco lineup is: 115-Joe Perrone (5-8), Lanning; 125-Jim Holmes (4-4), Battle Creek; 132-Phil Dieringer (7-7-1), Williams; 138-Doug Wynn, Cox has a 10-1 record this season with eight pins.

Western Western Michigan University, Tipoff at Ypsilanti is 7:30 p.m.

Western moved right into the thick of things here last Saturday by easily defeating the then MAC leader, Miami. Mike Soon is 86-73. The Broncos played Loyola last night in a non-conference game in Chicago; results were not known at press time.

The Broncos are 5-3 in the MAC, every team in the league has at least three setbacks.

Hockey Broncos

At Bowling Green

The biggest victory in Western Michigan's brief two-year varsity hockey existence came by an 8-2 count here last December against Bowling Green, but Bronco Coach Bill Neal is the first to acknowledge that things will be difficult for Saturday's rematch in Ohio.

"We know they've been talking about this one ever since they left Kalamazoo." he said.

At the time of the Brown and Gold triumph in Lawrence Arena, Bronze fans were second only to the Blue and Gold at that time, and second only to them at the collegiate coaches poll. Since that time, the Falcons have moved up one spot to ten, but own a fine 19-7-1 mark.

Western, meanwhile, has clinched a spot in the College Hockey Association playoffs for the second straight year. The Broncos could clinch a second-place sweep of Division II rivals last weekend with 10-3 and 7-4 wins at Buffalo to raise the overall record to 16-3.

St. Clair, Ont., one of the two teams to best Western this season, invaded Lawrence Ice Arena for a single contest at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 12.

Campus Calendar

Feb. 6: Swimming, WMU vs. Oakland and Loyola, Gabel Pool, 7 p.m.
Feb. 6: Women's basketball, WMU vs. Grand Rapids Jr. College and Calvin College, Road Fieldhouse, 6:30 and 8 p.m.
Feb. 6: Mathematical Phonics, Michigan State, Everett Tower, 4 p.m.
Feb. 6: Wrestling, WMU vs. Notre Dame, Gary Center, 7:30 p.m.
Feb. 7: Jazz Band concert, Urbanie Green, trombonist, Miller Auditorium, 5 p.m.
Feb. 9: Violinists of Delmoni, guest soloist, University Symphony Concert, Miller Auditorium, 3 p.m.
Feb. 11: Black Art exhibition, Miller Auditorium.
Feb. 11: Johnny Mac and "Stand Up and Cheer" concert, Miller Auditorium, 8 p.m.
Feb. 11: Anthropology colloquium by Richard Sigwalt, 118 Moore Hall, 3 p.m.
Feb. 12: HOCKEY, WMU vs. St. Clair (Ontario), Lawson Arena, 7:30 p.m.
Feb. 12: "Lecture, "Human Sexuality and the Family" by Mrs. Ann Ashmore, west ballroom, Student Center, 7:30 p.m.
Feb. 12: "Lecture, "Multinational Corporations and Technological Change" by George Macdonald, Union, 7:30 p.m.
Feb. 12: Women's swimming, WMU vs. Lake Forest, Gary Center pool, 7 p.m.
Feb. 12: "Ash Wednesday and Lincoln's Birthday."
Feb. 12: "Search Workshop for Women begins, Davis Room Walwood Union, 12:30 p.m.
Feb. 13: "Indoor track, WMU vs. Northern Illinois, Read Fieldhouse, 7 p.m.
Feb. 13: Military Science Dept. Field Day, Oakland Gym, 6 p.m.
Feb. 13: "African American Chorale concert, Kanley Chapel, 8 p.m.
Feb. 14: "Faculty recital, Joyce Zastrow, soprano, Oakland Recital Hall, 8 p.m.
Feb. 13: Mathematics colloquium, Dr. Preston Hammer, Grand Valley State, Everett Tower, 3 p.m.
Feb. 14: "Women's basketball, WMU vs. Marshall, Read Fieldhouse, 7 p.m.
Feb. 14: "A.W.S. Awareness Week.
Feb. 15: Swimming, WMU vs. Central Michigan, Gabel Pool, 1 p.m.
Feb. 15: "Women's basketball, WMU vs. Aquinas College, Oakland Recital Hall, Gym, 10 a.m. and Marshall, 12 noon.
Feb. 16: University Symphonic Band concert, Miller Auditorium, 3 p.m.

*Admission charged.

P.E. Workshops Friday, Saturday

WMU will present a series of workshops Friday and Saturday, Feb. 7-8, on "Individualizing Instruction for Physical Education." The two-hour sessions will be in the Gary Physical Education Center.

The free Friday workshops for WMU faculty and students are at 8 a.m. on "College Level," at 10 a.m. on "Elementary and Middle School Level," and at 1 p.m. on "Secondary Level."

The Saturday workshops for Kalamazoo area teachers, with a $2 registration fee payable at the door, are: 8 a.m. on "Elementary and Middle School Level," at 10 a.m. on "Secondary Level."

Dr. Anthony Mannino, professor of physical education at Purdue University, will conduct the workshops. He'll discuss the design and implementation of individualized instruction packets, contingency contracts, self-prescribed programs, systems analysis programs and evaluation techniques.

In the past, Mannino has stimulated professional organizations and educational institutions across the county to initiate many innovative physical education methods.

The workshops are co-sponsored by WMU men's and women's physical education departments, Office of Instructional Development and Continuing Education Division.

To Honor Whitney Young Scholars

Mrs. Ann Ashmore Poussaint, a social worker and clinical psychologist in private practice, will speak at the Whitney Young Scholars Award Program at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 12, here in the West Ballroom of the Student Center.

Her topic "Love and Intimacy" will focus upon relationships between the family, with particular emphasis upon the black family. The program is open to the public. Music will be provided by the Afro-American Chorale.

Saturday, Feb. 15, a day after the big event, Dr. Philip M. Denenfeld, All faculty members are eligible for the league, so form your team now. Contact the Intramural Office with any questions regarding the league, 393-0440.

To Honor Whitney Young Scholars

Mrs. Ann Ashmore Poussaint, a social worker and clinical psychologist in private practice, will speak at the Whitney Young Scholars Award Program at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 12, here in the West Ballroom of the Student Center.

Her topic "Love and Intimacy" will focus upon relationships between family, with particular emphasis upon the black family. The program is open to the public. Music will be provided by the Afro-American Chorale.

An hour noon Faculty Volleyball League

A noon hour Faculty Volleyball League is now being formed. Enrollments due Friday at the Intramural Office. The league will be played on a round robin basis and a round robin basis in a satisfying manner of entries.

All games will be played at noon Saturday.

Defending champions are "The Old Timers" who were captained by Phil Desenberg. All faculty members are eligible for the league, so form your team now. Contact the Intramural Office with any questions regarding the league, 393-0440.

Gymnasts at Valpo

Individually, the 1975 WMU women's gymnastics team is having a fine season. So far, as a team, the Broncettes are winless. The gymnasts, under Coach George Hobbs' club bowed, 22-17, to Mid-Western Conference "Player of the Week" for his efforts in basketball games against top-ranked Notre Dame and Miami.

Swimmers in Ontario

Western's women's swimming team, fresh from two important victories at home, travel to the University of Windsor Saturday for a quartermatch with the home team and swimmers from the University of Toronto and Adrian College.

In action at Gary Center Pool last week, the Western tankers easily handled Eastern Michigan University, 71-50, and Adrian College, 78-42.

Women Cagers Here Tonight

Just off a full week of victories, Western's women's basketball teams prepare to take on Grand Valley State and Western Michigan College in evening contests tonight at Read Fieldhouse, before hitting the road with games at Indiana State and Indiana University Friday and Saturday.

Tonight's games against 1974 state champion Calvin are at 6:30 and 8:00 p.m.

In action last week, the Broncettes won in convincing and record-breaking fashion, defeating all six foes.

Bronco Swimmers At Home Tonight

After raising its record to 6-2 with a 69-44 win over Bowling Green this past Saturday, the Western Michigan swimmers welcome Loyola and Oakland University to Gabel Natatorium at 7 o'clock tonight.

Cite Kurzen's Play

WMU junior guard Jim Kurzen has been named Mid-Western Conference "Player of the Week" for his efforts in basketball games against top-ranked Notre Dame and Miami.

Women Bowlers on Top

Western's Women's Michigan Intercollegiate Bowling League leaders roll into action this week-end at the bowling alleys of various university regions Friday and Saturday. Concurrent with the bowling, WMU's defending national table tennis champion, Janice Martin, will be competing.

Women Bowlers on Top

Western's Women's Michigan Intercollegiate Bowling League leaders roll into action this week-end at the bowling alleys of various university regions Friday and Saturday. Concurrent with the bowling, WMU's defending national table tennis champion, Janice Martin, will be competing.

Swimmers in Ontario

Western's women's swimming team, fresh from two important victories at home, travel to the University of Windsor Saturday for a quartermatch with the home team and swimmers from the University of Toronto and Adrian College.

In action at Gary Center Pool last week, the Western tankers easily handled Eastern Michigan University, 71-50, and Adrian College, 78-42.

Gymnasts at Valpo

Individually, the 1975 WMU women's gymnastics team is having a fine season. So far, as a team, the Broncettes are winless. The gymnasts, under Coach George Hobbs' club bowed, 22-17, to Mid-Western Conference "Player of the Week" for his efforts in basketball games against top-ranked Notre Dame and Miami.

Swimmers in Ontario

Western's women's swimming team, fresh from two important victories at home, travel to the University of Windsor Saturday for a quartermatch with the home team and swimmers from the University of Toronto and Adrian College.

In action at Gary Center Pool last week, the Western tankers easily handled Eastern Michigan University, 71-50, and Adrian College, 78-42.

Gymnasts at Valpo

Individually, the 1975 WMU women's gymnastics team is having a fine season. So far, as a team, the Broncettes are winless. The gymnasts, under Coach George Hobbs' club bowed, 22-17, to Mid-Western Conference "Player of the Week" for his efforts in basketball games against top-ranked Notre Dame and Miami.