Campus Briefs

Nita Hardie will speak on "Politics and Change Making" at the next public meeting of Western's Commission on the Status of Women at noon Thursday, Feb. 20, in 159 Student Center.

The new telephone number for the School of Science's counseling office is 383-0545.

The doctoral examination of Alclid N. Pelletier for the degree of Doctor of Education will be held at 10 a.m. Friday, Feb. 20, in the counseling conference room, 3109 Sanders Hall. His topic will be: "The Revolving Door Syndrome." All interested persons are invited to attend.

As of Feb. 20, the Computer Center has announced that all users files not accessed since Dec. 30 will be transferred to magnetic tape and maintained in the integrity of our total access date. The access date is updated by reading, updating or running the file.

In order to recover a purged file, a user must request that it be reinstated through the PLEASE computer center notice to the manager of Computer Center Operations.

Bernhard Says Proposed Budget Is 'Unacceptable'

WMU officials indicated today that they intend "to bend every effort in Lansing" to get a greater increase in the 1975-76 state appropriation than the "unacceptable level" that has been recommended by Gov. William G. Milliken.

President John T. Bernhard noted that the Governor's recommend budget is $34,379,000 for Western only and 4.5 per cent in net new money as compared to WMU's 1974-75 state appropriation of $32,983,000.

"Actually, the Governor's recommended budget provides only 3.2 per cent or $1,084,000 in new money for all salary increases, price level increases for equipment and supplies and any improvement or change since he has specifically earmarked $34,379,000 for projected cost increases in utilities and $60,000 for implementation of our new College of Health and Human Service," explained Dr. Bernhard.

"Obviously, this is a disappointing and an unacceptable level to maintain the viability of our total program," he said. "We intend to bend every effort in Lansing to get a greater increase." Bernhard pointed out that the Governor's recommended budget is "only the first step in a very long and involved series of steps in the state appropriations process that typically goes into July." He indicated that the next steps are a series of both legislative and fiscal agency hearings in Lansing, prior to floor action in the legislature and final approval by the Governor.

Appoint Two Trustees

Gov. William G. Milliken Tuesday reappointed one Western Michigan University trustee and named a new one.

Dr. Julius Franks, Jr., 52, a Grand Rapids dentist, was reappointed and J. Michael Kemp, 31, a Kalamazoo attorney, was appointed to the Board. Both appointments are for eight years and both require Senate confirmation.

Kemp replaces Philip N. Watters of Cascade; he had served on the Board since it was established in 1964 and his current term has expired Dec. 31, 1974. Dr. Franks also is an original WMU trustee.

Kemp received his B.S. degree in history in 1965 and J.D. degree with honors in 1966 from George Washington University. He is a partner in the firm of Howard and Howard.

He is associated with the Kalamazoo law firm of Howard and Howard and recently was elected Republican county chairman. Kemp and his wife, Connie, have two children: Jeff, 6; and Julie, 3.

Dr. Franks, a former University of Michigan All-American football player, received his bachelor's degree in 1947 and his dentistry degree in 1951 from the U. of M. Originally from Hamtramck, Mich., he moved to Grand Rapids in 1951 when he started his dentistry practice there. He has four children: Cheryl, 29; Robert, 18; Beverly, 16; and Frederick, 15.

Fifth Mediterranean Institute Planned

WMU's fifth Mediterranean World Institute is set for July 22-24, 1975. A unique traveling seminar, the institute comprises 40 students and faculty who will jet to Europe and then travel via tour bus to a Mediterranean cruise aboard the S.S. "Achille Lauro," a 24,000-ton liner that will stop at eight Mediterranean ports of call.

Shipboard lectures on Ancient and Medieval/Modern Mediterranean Civilization, plus excursions to important sites and monuments at each port of call net student participation.

Total cost for the tour is $1399, plus taxes. Additional information and application forms are available from the Honors College or the department of history offices at WMU.

Plan Special Affirmative Action Series

A program designed to alert WMU staff members to the need to actively work toward the implementation of the new Affirmative Action Plan has been scheduled for Feb. 25-26 on campus. Resident personnel from the Battle Creek Civil Rights office, the Chicago regional office of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, the Women's Bureau in Lansing, and WMU staff will participate in a two-day series of programs and workshops the University Student Center.

In a letter to all University academic and non-academic administrators, WMU President John T. Bernhard noted that adherence to the plan is voluntary, but he encouraged "maximum participation."

"Inasmuch as none of the four programs will take place during the work day for approximately three or four half hours, it will be necessary to release staff without penalty or threat of disrupting the smooth operation of your department," he said.

To prevent clearing central offices to allow all staff to attend a session, an additional program is scheduled for 7-9 p.m. Feb. 26 in the Student Center. The affirmative action plan was adopted by the WMU Board of Trustees at the Dec. 17, 1974, meeting.

Appoint Two Trustees

Western Trustee

YFCA President

WMU Trustee Mrs. Mildred Johnson recently was elected the first woman president of the Muskegon YFCA, the 3-year-old merged YMCA and YWCA in that city.

A former member of the Muskegon YWCA board and past president of the state chapter of the American Association of University Women, she will conclude a 2-year term next month as president of the local historical society in Muskegon. She recently learned of her inclusion in the London publication, "Who's Who -in the World of Women." Mrs. Johnson also was cited "Who's Who in the World of Women," Mrs. Johnson also was cited. Mrs. Johnson is the immediate past vice president of the WMU Alumni Association.

Hardie Recital Feb. 17

Baritone, Thomas Hardie, will present a free public solo voice recital at 8 p.m. Monday, Feb. 17 in Oakland Recital Hall. He will be accompanied by Dr. J. Henry Heits, both are faculty members in the WMU department of music.

Hardie will perform a number of music literature including Heinrich Schuetz's "Cantata for Four Trombones" and a French brass song, "Flight For Heaven." He will also do a Handel aria and some French Chansons.

PLANT TALK—Karen Doyle, a WMU junior in biology from Grosse Pointe, takes advantage of the semi-tropical climate and a special station in Western's greenhouse. She has stopped to chat with a few of her friends. The 70 degree temperature is a pleasant contrast to the chilling cold outside this week.
Engineering Open House Wednesday

As a part of National Engineers' Week, Western will hold an open house from 3 to 6 p.m., Wednesday, Feb. 19, in the Engineering and Technology Building.

High school, junior college and free public demonstrations and tours will be at the 3 p.m. keynote address in room 3034 on "Breakthrough in Emissions Technology" by Jose F. Reueque, Muskogean. He is sponsor for emissions research at Teledyne-Continental Motors.

His talk will deal with a new concept supported by unique carburetion and ignition systems, in Continental Motors' New Red Seal engine. The engine, which will be shown, meets 1975 emission standards with standard devices.

Other presentations will include "The Engineering of Paper" by Dr. Raymond L. Jones, head of WMU's department of paper science and engineering, at 4:30 p.m. in 1610 McCracken Hall. "The view of the Louislder Paper Research and Development Center" will be offered. The Foundrinier paper machine will be in operation throughout the afternoon, actually making paper.

WOMEN'S STUDIES will provide "Peace Corps Apartments. Three WMU students in the technology department, LaVerne Honors College lounge in Hillside on Tuesday at 5 p.m. in room 2050. At the same time, L. D. Ryan, associate professor of industrial engineering, will give a presentation on "Automotive Emissions-The State of the Art" will be discussed by two speakers, Ana Fox as Mirada; and Sheila Duncey as Ariel. Tickets are still available.

Black History Week Continues

Black History Week continues here on campus tonight with a special concert at 8 o'clock in Kenton Chapel by the AfroAmerican Choir, directed by Dr. Romeo E. Phillips of Kalamazoo College. Admission is free and the public is invited.

There will be a film festival from 7-9 p.m. Friday in 3710 Knauss Hall. Again, the public is invited at no charge.

A panel will present research papers dealing with black music at 5 p.m. Sunday in Kalamazoo's North Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Alvin Poussaint, M.D., associate professor of medicine at Harvard Medical School, will give a public presentation on "The Role of the Black Psychiatrist and the Black Psychologist," and with the School of Social Work to talk on "Separatism and Beyond."

Women's Scholarship Deadline March 1

The League of Women Voters of Kalamazoo has announced a March 1 deadline for applications by WMU women students for the annual Arden J. Elsasser Memorial Scholarship.

Valued at $150, the award is open to both undergraduates and graduates who are majoring in political science, have a grade average of "B" overall, and are at least second semester seniors.

Applications should be sent to the chairman of the WMU political science department. The winner will be announced about April 1.

Two Faculty, Two Emeriti in Hospital

Two faculty members, Dr. Richard T. Burke and Dr. John J. Josten, who were seriously injured in a December automobile accident, recently were transferred to Mary Free Bed Hospital, 920 Cherry, S.E., in Grand Rapids. Burke is in Room 326 and Josten is in Room 323.

Two emeriti faculty members are ill and in Kalamazoo's two local hospitals: They are: Dr. William R. Brown, emeritus professor of English; Borroughs Hospital; and Miss LaVerne Argabright, emeritus associate professor of biology, Bronson Hospital.

The final 7 p.m. lecture-presentation in room 3037 will be given by Gene Kaiser, director of electrical research and development, Consumers Power Co. Jackson. His topic will be "New Sources of Electrical Energy."

Demonstrations of equipment throughout the afternoon and evening will include measuring the effects of the catalytic converter, development with the computer, computer applications to industrial engineering and drafting, a PDP 8 and numerical control machine.

Asian Studies Forum Today

An Asian Studies Forum will be held at 3:30 this afternoon at the Honors College lounge in Hillside Apartments by WMU students—all former Peace Corps volunteers—will provide "Peace Corps Perspectives on Asia."

Speakers and their topics are: Chris Busick, Nepal; John Guia, India; and Dari Anden, Holland.

Shelbottz Straw Get Top Posts

Two WMU faculty members have been elected to the top two leadership positions in the north central regional of the Geological Society of America (GSA).

Dr. Lloyd J. Shelbottz, professor of geology department, and Dr. W. Thomas Straw, associate professor of geology, were elected as vice chairman, respectively, in a recent mail vote of the approximately 1,010 members in 10 states, plus Ontario, Canada. Their 1-year terms in office will begin in mid-May. Both are Kalamazoo natives.

The Society membership includes professional geologists, including educators, researchers and personnel in the applied areas of geosciences. The 10 states in the north central section are Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, North Dakota, Ohio and Wisconsin.

Shelbottz is completing a 3-year term on the north central section's management board, but will now continue to serve on that council as an ex officio member. He is the immediate past president of the east central section of the National Association of Geology Teachers. Straw currently is president of the Michigan Basin Geological Society, an affiliate of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists.

Expand AV Center

House Gallery Art Shows Opens Saturday

The first art show of winter semester at The House Gallery, the WMU student-operated gallery at 840 Steers St., is scheduled to open with a public reception from 6-9 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 19.

The show consists of paintings by WMU students Mrs. Susan Small, Michael Knock and Carol Parker. It will run through Feb. 26. Gallery hours are from 12-4 p.m. Monday-Friday. The Gallery has been in operation for two years, presenting the works of graduating seniors and other art majors.

The Western News

The Western News is published by the Office of Student Publications. Classes are in session during fall and winter sessions.

Crushed to disseminate news to the entire University community, the news may be read in its entirety in a roll of the newsprint or online. Should you wish to reproduce a copy or a section of some accompanying illustrations, please contact the news office. Illinois, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Copyright 1975, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.
Annual Dance Department Concert Features

Three Miller Performances February 21-22

Western’s department of dance will present its annual concert Friday and Saturday, Feb. 21-22, in Miller Auditorium.

Dance selections include jazz, contemporary and avant-garde works choreographed by students and faculty. All dancers are members of the University Dance Ensemble and Wind Ensemble, touring company. Concert will begin at 8 o’clock both nights, with a special matinee at 2 p.m. Saturday.

All student works selected for this year’s program were auditioned last fall during the department’s “Studio Evening,” a set time for faculty and students to preview work in progress.

Winners include Pam Vogel of Dordtorn, Frank Polino of New Buffalo, and Kristi Kriest of Grand Rapids. They also had their dances chosen for performance at last year’s dance concert. Other student winners include: Kathryn Geib, Tom Gopserman, Diane Rider, Patricia Williams, Halperin, Karin Engstrom and Karen Smith.

Festival selections will feature Loretta McCray’s work “Opus 40” and Clara Gambale’s “Solo Flight No. 1” through a Silver Chime and a second work, “Eveo,” which was previewed last fall at the College of Fine Arts convocation. A variety of musical accompaniments also will be included. Music from WMU’s musical group, the Brass Octet, and tape and film also will be used.

Concert tickets, at $2 general admission, are available at the Miller Auditorium box office.

Chorale, Wind Ensemble Plan Joint Concert

The department of music will present a special combined concert by the University Chorale and the University Wind Ensemble at 3 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 24, in Miller Auditorium. These two ensembles are under the direction of Mel Ivey and Carl Bjerregaard, respectively.

This combined concert provides a unique opportunity for performance of major works which require both voices and winds. Three of these compositions have been programmed, including “El Sol” by Carlos Chavez. The “Symphony of Psalms” by Igor Stravinsky and the “Apostrophe” from the “Funeral and Triumphant Symphony” by Hector Berlioz will be performed. The University Chorale also will perform “Lark” by Aaron Copland, and the University Wind Ensemble will play “Adagio” by Joaquin Rodrigo.

This same concert will be presented in Muskegon on Feb. 21 and in Grand Rapids on Feb. 22. Sixty trombones represent the first time in the University’s history that a band and choir have toured jointly.

Latin American Lectures Begin

Dr. Dale Harpstead, chairman, department of crop and soil science at Michigan State University, will give the first in a series of lectures on Latin America today here at Western.

He will speak at 11 a.m. in 370 Wood Hall on “The Relationship Between Nutrition and Population to Varying Agricultural Systems.” His topic at 7:30 p.m. in 3700 Wood Hall will be “How Adequate Nutrition Be Attained in a Subsistence Society?”

Harpstead’s free public lectures are sponsored by the Latin American Program of WMU’s Institute of International and Interdisciplinary Studies. Other speakers are scheduled for Feb. 20 and Feb. 26.

Honors College Plans

Tobogganing Party

A tobogganing party at Maple Glen City Park, sponsored by the Honors College, will take place from 1-5 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 22.

A two dollar fee covers tobogganing, dinner, refreshments, transportation from the Honors College.

Besides tobogganing, facilities for ice skating and cross country skiing also are available. Interested persons should bring their own equipment.

Anyone interested should sign up at the Honors College by Monday, Feb. 17.

Western Debaters

2-4 at Kent State

Western’s debate team had two wins and four losses in the annual Kent State University debate tournament. The two weekend event was held in Kent, Ohio. Team members were Mary Ashman of Grand Rapids and Rosemary Celler of Kalamazoo, both freshmen.

They debated the topic “Resolved: the power of the press should be significantly curtailed.” The team is supervised by Dr. Chester Hunt, professor of sociology, and coached by James Mark and a graduate assistant in general studies.

African Archeology Series Wednesday

One of the foremost experts on African archeology, Prof. Thurland Shaw of Cambridge University, England, will visit here Wednesday, Feb. 19, for a series of discussions and a free public lecture.

He will speak on “Africa—Why Was It Called Backward?” at 7:30 p.m. in 3770 Knauss Hall. During the day, Shaw will confer with faculty and students about his years of field experience and published works. His visit is sponsored by the department of history.

Anthropology Sets

Two Tuesday Talks

Dr. Tom King, a leading authority on legislation to protect prehistoric and historic cultural resources, will be presenting two lectures here on campus Tuesday, Feb. 18.

At 1 p.m. in Room 116 Moore Hall, he will speak on the anthropology department’s Cultural Resource Management class on the topic of archaeology. King will also give a more general lecture, “Archaeology and the State,” at 8 p.m. in 116 Moore Hall. Public attendance is welcome at both lectures.

Math Colloquium Wed.

Dr. Jan Kmenta, a member of the economics department faculty at the University of Michigan, will conduct a public mathematics colloquium here Wednesday, Feb. 19.

He will speak at 4 p.m. in the Math Commons Room, Everett Tower, on “The Nature of Economic Models of Economic Behavior.” Refreshments will be served at 3:30 p.m.

Job Openings

Below is a listing of the position openings currently being posted by the University Personnel Department, for current University employees.

Regular full-time and regular part-time employees interested in applying for these positions should submit a Job Opportunity Program application form to the Personnel Department during the posting period.

Assistant Professor, Continuing, Instructional, Mathematics—posted 2/10-2/17

Assistant Professor, Continuing, Instructional, Biology—posted 2/10-2/17

Assistant Professor, Continuing, Instructional, Psychology—posted 2/10-2/17

Assistant Professor, Temporary 1 Year, Instructional, Biotechnology—posted 2/10-2/17

Assistant Professor, Continuing, Instructional, Special Education—posted 2/10-2/17

Secretary II, 6-06, Geology—posted 2/7/13

Secretary II, H-05, Music—posted 2/7/13

Secretary I, H-04, Graduate College—posted 2/7/13

Accounting Assistant II, H-07, Asst. to V.P. for Finance—posted 2/7-13

Academic Auditor II, H-06, Academic Records—posted 2/7-13

Secretary I, 1-14, Teacher Education—posted 2/10-2/14
Cagers Journey To Ohio Sat.

Western's varsity men's basketball squad found itself one-game removed from the Mid-American Conference lead with a full week of practice to get ready for Saturday's game at Ohio University.

After weekend activity, Miami climbed to the top spot with a 6-3 record, followed by Bowling Green, 6-4; Central Michigan, 4-3, with both WMU and Toledo at 5-4.

A narrow 62-60 setback at Eastern Michigan after the last night's game with St. Clair, turned in outstanding efforts in the overtime 3-2 victory over favored Illinois at Chicago Circle.

To Ohio Sat.

Western's ice hockey Broncos journey to Chicago Saturday to skate against the University of Illinois at Chicago College.

Coach Bill Neal's squad went into last night's game with St. Clair, Ohio, with a 17-3 mark after last Saturday night's sudden death overtime 3-2 victory over favored Bowling Green on Ohio ice.

St. Clair is one of only two teams to defeat WMU this season; that was by a 6-2 count in Canada on Thanksgiving eve. Results of last night's game were not known at press time.

Hockey Broncos

WMU's varsity men's swimming team hosted Central Michigan at 11 a.m. in the Student Recreation Building.

The Bronco squad, which currently owns a 17-3 record, recently won a second straight Division II championship with a perfect 9-0 record and outscoring Lake Forest, 75-30.

Snapping a two-meet losing string over Central Michigan, Lake Forest, 4-3, Central Michigan, 4-3, and Toledo Saturday, their first home loss after six victories.

Swimmers Host Central Michigan

WMU's varsity men's swimming team hosts Central Michigan at 11 a.m. in the Student Recreation Building.

The Bronco squad, which currently owns a 17-3 record, recently won a second straight Division II championship with a perfect 9-0 record and outscoring Lake Forest, 75-30.

Women Gymnasts

Beat Eastern III.

The WMU gymnastics team finally capped their first victory of the season Saturday, defeating Eastern Illinois, 62.90 to 54.0. Valparaiso University posted 42 points by Western with a score of 68.90 to 62.90.

Sophomore August Lipey continued her victorious trend by winning the "All-Around" competition.

Western Coed Defends Crown

Western's defending women's national table tennis champion, Diane Martin, successfully defended the national portion of her title by winning in regional competition at Central Michigan University last week.

She will now represent the national competition portion which is slated for April 24-26 at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Meanwhile in regional bowling competition, the Broncettes bowling team lost their first game to Central Michigan. CMU will now represent this region in the national competition.

Women Cagers Home Friday

Western's varsity women's basketball team entertains Marshall University at 7 p.m. Friday here in Read Fieldhouse. Their Saturday opponent will be Aquinas College.

Western Wrestlers At Wayne State

Snapping a two-meet losing string will be Western Michigan's wrestling objective on Friday evening in Detroit against Wayne State University.

In each of WMU's last two outings, a 22-17 setback against Miami and a 36-3 win over Central Michigan, the outcome wasn't decided until the final match.

Coach George Hobs' team currently stands 4-6 and has one meet left at Eastern Michigan after the upcoming activity.

Swimming

To Check Division I

Hockey Status

Western will make formal application for membership in Division I for the National Collegiate Athletic Association for April 24-26 at the University of Michigan.

Six of WMU's nine sports are at Division I levels, with the first two being Aquinas College.

Judy Martin of Brewster, who was announced as the new academic chairman of the WMU Institute of International and Area Studies, has published the book "Chile and Peru: Two Paths to Social Justice." Edited by Dr. Leila Bradfield, chairperson of Latin American Studies at WMU, the 154-page paperback is now on sale.

Band Concert Sunday

The University Symphonic Band will present its winter concert free to the public at 3 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 16, in Miller Auditorium.

The ensemble is directed by Carl Bjerregaard.