Western News

Volume 1, Number 24

Western Michigan University

March 20, 1975

---

Campus Briefs

The doctoral examination of Paul W. Trombley for the degree of Doctor of Education will be held Wednesday, April 2, at 2 p.m. in the Educational Resources Center Conference Room, Sangren Hall. His topic will be: "A Study of Undergraduate Student Financial Need at Western Michigan University for the 1974-75 Academic Year." All interested persons are invited to attend.

The doctoral examination of John S. Lore for the degree of Doctor of Education will be held Thursday, March 26, at 1 p.m. in 3106 Sangren Hall. His topic will be: "Perceived Responsibility for Implied Consent: An Evaluation of Michigan's Six-Step Model for Development of a Community Education Program for Older Adults." All interested persons are invited to attend.

The doctoral examination of Eric C. Smith for the degree of Doctor of Education will be held Wednesday, March 26, at 1 p.m. in 3106 Sangren Hall. His topic will be: "A Study of Counseling Orientations, Theoretical Model, Counselor Effectiveness." All interested persons are invited to attend.

The doctoral examination of Clara R. Benedetti for the degree of Doctor of Education will be held Thursday, March 27, at 10:30 a.m. in 3106 Sangren Hall. Her topic will be: "A Comparison of Leadership Styles and Personal Characteristics of Women in Educational Administration and Women in Business Administration." All interested persons are invited to attend.

The doctoral examination of Edward B. Gilbeau for the degree of Doctor of Education will be held Friday, March 28, at 10 a.m. in 3106 Sangren Hall. His topic will be: "An Exploratory Study of Selected Relationships Among Counseling Orientations, Theoretical Orientations, Personality and Counselor Effectiveness." All interested persons are invited to attend.

The doctoral examination of Fred A. Richardson for the degree of Doctor of Education will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, March 26, in 3106 Sangren Hall. His topic will be: "An Exploratory Research Project to Determine the Impact and Perceived Responsibility for Implementing Michigan's Six-Step Model of Program Accountability by Selected Superintendents." All interested persons are invited to attend.

ASG Deadline Today

Today, March 20, is the deadline for applications for the positions of Off Campus Senator, Senator-at-Large and the Executive Board of the Associated Student Government. Application forms are available at the ASG office in the Student Services Building, according to Robert J. Hammond, ASG senior and elections director. The ASG elections will be held Wednesday, March 26.

CAMS OPERA OPENS—Foullon's modern opera, "Dialogues of the Carmelites," directed by William C. Appel and Dr. Robert L. Smith, will be produced by the WMU department of music and University Theatre at 8 p.m. Thursday through Saturday, March 28-30, in Shaw Theatre. Star- ring in this true story of a Carmelite community during the French revo- lution, from left, are: Sarra Bune, Eugenia Hamilton and Dixie Hamilton. It won the 1967 Best Opera Award. Reserve seat tickets are $3.00; reserv- ations can be made by calling Shaw Theatre, 383-1760. (WMU Newshole)

Residence Hall Policy Change Action By Trustees Expected

The Board of Trustees is expected to act on a proposed residence hall policy change at its monthly meeting at 1-15 p.m. Friday (March 21) here in the University Student Center.

As introduced at last month's meeting, the plan would eliminate the regulation requiring freshmen and sophomores to live on campus and it would establish an Auxiliary Fund Reserve to protect the Uni- versity's fiscal integrity in the pay- ment of its bonded indebtedness.

If adopted, the plan calls for an increase of $1.00 per credit hour in Western's tuition rate; the current cost for resident undergraduates is $30 per credit hour.

The Trustees also will discuss the 1975-76 student housing rates and the out-of-state student fee rate for next year.

Student Registration

WMU students who plan to at- tend classes during the spring ses- sion should advance register as soon as possible, according to Mary K. Leamy, director of registration.

DECA Conference

The yearly Faculty Recognition Dinner will be held at 5:30 p.m. Saturday, April 15, in the North Ballroom, University Student Cen- ter. Dinner reservations, at $3.25 each, may be made with Robert L. Culp, Gary P.E. Center, 383-1760.

Plagiarism Charge Found Justifiable

"In accordance with a recommen- dation presented on February 18, 1975 by the Faculty Grievance Committee, I wish to in- form that a charge of plagiarism against a faculty member was duly con- sidered by the committee, was found justifiable, and appropriate administrative action has been taken."

"Also in accordance with commit- tee recommendations, all names re- lated to this specific case will re- main confidential." (WMU Vice President)

Gabel Pool Reopened

The Gabel Natatorium pool at Western, closed since February 26 because of a potential danger of a 5 x 5 feet underwater window breaking, was re-opened last Monday.

After the water level was lowered to below the window, the tempered glass was replaced with a stainless steel plate which will re- main in place until the glass manu- facturer can make a tempered glass window capable of withstanding the water pressure. The windowcapable of withstanding the water pressure made by the same manu- facturer as Western's had broken in two pools in New York.
Papermaker Award

Dr. Stephen I. Kukolich, professor of paper science and engineering, has been named "Papermaker of the Year" by the Michigan Division, Paper Institute Management Association (PIMA).

Stott Elected CLA Secretary

Dr. Jon C. Stott, WMU associate professor of English, recently was elected to the executive board of the Children's Literature Association (CLA) at its national conference in Williamsburg Va.

In his position, the highest elected officer of the association, Stott will chair all executive and general membership meetings, and will participate in the absence of the executive secretary.

A member of the CLA's founding board, Stott has been active in the association since its inception in 1973. He is a consulting editor of the association's journal, "Children's Literature," the Great Excluded," and has represented the association at many conferences and meetings.

He has been a member of Western's faculty since 1968, Stott has written several articles on children's literature and has represented the association at many conferences and meetings.

Cameron Wins Ludwig Award

Carlton C. Cameron, senior vice president, St. Regis Paper Co., Batavia, Ill., has been awarded a $10,000 scholarship by the American Paper Institute (API), in recognition of his contributions to the paper industry.

Texas A&M University at College Station has named Cameron as the recipient of the American Paper Institute Scholarship, sponsored by the American Paper Institute (API).

Cameron is a member of the Texas A&M University at College Station, the American Paper Institute (API), and the American Paper Institute (API) Foundation.

Military Ball Eventful

Western's annual military ball, sponsored by the military science department on March 15 in Galen Auditorium, was attended by 75 persons. Lt. Col. Samuel W. Focer, Jr., head of the military science department, was master of ceremonies.

Notable guests included Dr. W. C. Cato, College of Applied Sciences; John U. Caton, director of the Military Science Department; Dr. Robert J. Cato, director of the Academic Counseling Center; Col. John A. Caton, Director of Applied Sciences, and their spouses.

Buckep E. Worsham,ok, Ct, Ohio, who took ROTC courses at Western, was sworn into the U.S. Army as a 2nd Lieutenant, during the ball.

Mrs. Gladys Rowe Dies

Funeral services were held Wednesday in her native Traverse City for Mrs. Gladys L. Rowe, associate professor emeritus, who died Sunday at a Kalamazoo hospital.

Mrs. Rowe was a native of Traverse City and served five years as a teacher at Western's training center in Kalamazoo, Michigan State University as a supervisor in home economics. She remained there until 1938 when she joined the Michigan Department of Public Instruction, becoming an academic counselor. She then worked for four years as a consultant in home economics and family life education.

Mrs. Rowe then rejoined Western's faculty in 1950 as an assistant professor and taught there until her 1967 retirement.

She served as president of the Michigan Home Economics Association in 1960-61.

Mrs. Rowe received a B.A. in 1924 and an M.A. in 1955, both in home economics, from Michigan State University.

Her husband, Bernard Rowe of Traverse City, and her niece, Dr. David Love of Traverse City, survive.

Preservation Hall Jazz Band

To Perform April 2 at Miller Auditorium

The world famous Preservation Hall Jazz Band will be at Miller Auditorium at 8 p.m. Wednesday, April 2, as the final event of the 1974-75 Patron's Choice Series.

The band is currently on tour through the Midwest with a home in sale New Orleans, where the members of the band will partake in the birth of the American art form. Each member has memories of the days when "... they spelled it right," as they spelled it in the days of the century, was taking form and shaping itself from a separate kind of music.

They were in the bands that marched to and from the cemetery for funerals, in the wagons that drove up and down the French Quarter streets and battled it out when two bands met at a corner.

The band that will appear here on campus includes Cle Frazier, drums; Allan Jaffe, tuba; Percy Heyer; trumpet; Wilie J. Humphrey, clarinet; Sing Miller, piano, and Jim Robinson, trombone. Tickets are $5.00, $4.00, and $3.00 and may be reserved by calling the Miller Auditorium office.

Job Openings

Below is a listing of the position openings currently being posted by the Personnel Department, for current University employees.

Regular full-time and regular part-time employees interested in applying for these positions should submit a Job Opportunity Program application form to the Personnel Department during the posting period.

Title Catalog Tech., H-04, University Libraries-posted 3/13/3-18
Secretary I, H-04, Central Food Office-posted 3/14/3-20
Secretary Administrative, H-04, Alumni Development & Affairs-posted 3/14/3-20
Tutor Aide II, H-07, Ed Leadership Center-posted 3/19/3-25
Secretary I, H-04, Communication Arts & Sciences - posted 3/20/3-26

Gives Korean Talk

Dr. C. I. Eugene Kim, WMU professor of political science, presented a paper at the recent Inter- University Seminar on Asian Forces and Society held at the University of Chicago, Chi.

Kim, along with the complete Library's length study on "The Military Rule in South Korea," the pencils donated by the Military Science Department on March 15 in Galen Auditorium, sponsored by the American Paper Institute (API).

Proctor and Gamble Products, Inc. was a major sponsor of the event, which was attended by 75 persons. Lt. Col. Samuel W. Focer, Jr., head of the military science department, was master of ceremonies.

Notable guests included Dr. W. C. Cato, College of Applied Sciences; John U. Caton, director of the Military Science Department; Dr. Robert J. Cato, director of the Academic Counseling Center; Col. John A. Caton, Director of Applied Sciences, and their spouses.

Buckep E. Worsham,ok, Ct, Ohio, who took ROTC courses at Western, was sworn into the U.S. Army as a 2nd Lieutenant, during the ball.

Mrs. Gladys Rowe Dies

Funeral services were held Wednesday in her native Traverse City for Mrs. Gladys L. Rowe, associate professor emeritus, who died Sunday at a Kalamazoo hospital.

Mrs. Rowe was a native of Traverse City and served five years as a teacher at Western's training center in Kalamazoo, Michigan State University as a supervisor in home economics. She remained there until 1938 when she joined the Michigan Department of Public Instruction, becoming an academic counselor. She then worked for four years as a consultant in home economics and family life education.

Mrs. Rowe then rejoined Western's faculty in 1950 as an assistant professor and taught there until her 1967 retirement.

She served as president of the Michigan Home Economics Association in 1960-61.

Mrs. Rowe received a B.A. in 1924 and an M.A. in 1955, both in home economics, from Michigan State University.

Her husband, Bernard Rowe of Traverse City, and her niece, Dr. David Love of Traverse City, survive.

Preservation Hall Jazz Band

To Perform April 2 at Miller Auditorium

The world famous Preservation Hall Jazz Band will be at Miller Auditorium at 8 p.m. Wednesday, April 2, as the final event of the 1974-75 Patron's Choice Series.

The band is currently on tour through the Midwest with a home in sale New Orleans, where the members of the band will partake in the birth of the American art form. Each member has memories of the days when "... they spelled it right," as they spelled it in the days of the century, was taking form and shaping itself from a separate kind of music.

They were in the bands that marched to and from the cemetery for funerals, in the wagons that drove up and down the French Quarter streets and battled it out when two bands met at a corner.

The band that will appear here on campus includes Cle Frazier, drums; Allan Jaffe, tuba; Percy Heyer; trumpet; Wilie J. Humphrey, clarinet; Sing Miller, piano, and Jim Robinson, trombone. Tickets are $5.00, $4.00, and $3.00 and may be reserved by calling the Miller Auditorium office.

Job Openings

Below is a listing of the position openings currently being posted by the Personnel Department, for current University employees.

Regular full-time and regular part-time employees interested in applying for these positions should submit a Job Opportunity Program application form to the Personnel Department during the posting period.

Title Catalog Tech., H-04, University Libraries-posted 3/13/3-18
Secretary I, H-04, Central Food Office-posted 3/14/3-20
Secretary Administrative, H-04, Alumni Development & Affairs-posted 3/14/3-20
Tutor Aide II, H-07, Ed Leadership Center-posted 3/19/3-25
Secretary I, H-04, Communication Arts & Sciences - posted 3/20/3-26

Gives Korean Talk

Dr. C. I. Eugene Kim, WMU professor of political science, presented a paper at the recent Inter-University Seminar on Asian Forces and Society held at the University of Chicago, Chi.

Kim, along with the complete Library's length study on "The Military Rule in South Korea," the pencils donated by the Military Science Department on March 15 in Galen Auditorium, sponsored by the American Paper Institute (API).

Proctor and Gamble Products, Inc. was a major sponsor of the event, which was attended by 75 persons. Lt. Col. Samuel W. Focer, Jr., head of the military science department, was master of ceremonies.

Notable guests included Dr. W. C. Cato, College of Applied Sciences; John U. Caton, director of the Military Science Department; Dr. Robert J. Cato, director of the Academic Counseling Center; Col. John A. Caton, Director of Applied Sciences, and their spouses.

Buckep E. Worsham,ok, Ct, Ohio, who took ROTC courses at Western, was sworn into the U.S. Army as a 2nd Lieutenant, during the ball.

Mrs. Gladys Rowe Dies

Funeral services were held Wednesday in her native Traverse City for Mrs. Gladys L. Rowe, associate professor emeritus, who died Sunday at a Kalamazoo hospital.

Mrs. Rowe was a native of Traverse City and served five years as a teacher at Western's training center in Kalamazoo, Michigan State University as a supervisor in home economics. She remained there until 1938 when she joined the Michigan Department of Public Instruction, becoming an academic counselor. She then worked for four years as a consultant in home economics and family life education.

Mrs. Rowe then rejoined Western's faculty in 1950 as an assistant professor and taught there until her 1967 retirement.

She served as president of the Michigan Home Economics Association in 1960-61.

Mrs. Rowe received a B.A. in 1924 and an M.A. in 1955, both in home economics, from Michigan State University.

Her husband, Bernard Rowe of Traverse City, and her niece, Dr. David Love of Traverse City, survive.
religious directory
now available
the office of religious activities now has available the 1975 edition of the "kalamazoo directory of religious organizations and leadership." this guide provides a listing of places of worship and leaders by denomination. it is hoped that the directory will be helpful to those who are attending services for the first time. in addition to a listing of churches and chapels, it includes sections on special assignments in the kalamazoo area such as hospital chaplains, directors of religious organizations and leaders of local religious clubs.

poetry reading
richard hage, director of creative writing at the university of montana, will read selections from his own poetry at 8 p.m., march 31, in 3321 brown hall, in a free public reading sponsored by the wm u english department.
curiously serving as a visiting professor at the university of colorado, hage is author of four books of poetry and has published this spring's hage has twice won the helen bullis award from poetry northwest magazine and has received the theodore roethke prize for his poems.
hage received his bachelor's degree in arts and ma degrees from the university of montana and in 1967-68 went to europe on a rockefeller creative writing fellowship.

religious directory
now available
the office of religious activities now has available the 1975 edition of the "kalamazoo directory of religious organizations and leadership." this guide provides a listing of places of worship and leaders by denomination. it is hoped that the directory will be helpful to those who are attending services for the first time. in addition to a listing of churches and chapels, it includes sections on special assignments in the kalamazoo area such as hospital chaplains, directors of religious organizations and leaders of local religious clubs.

to visit wm u march 24-26
the cliff keuter dance company will be in residence on the campus, presenting a revolutionary repertory through a series of workshops and performances, march 24-26.

the residency, sponsored by the department of music and the college of fine arts, will include a beginning and intermediate level drawing class both on monday and wednesday, as well as two special sessions — on june 29 for the professional actor at 6:30 p.m. monday and an Improvising workshop on sunday, march 24 at 3:00 p.m. all sessions will be held either in willow union or oakland gym. for specific details contact the department of dance.

theodore roethke poetry prize
joseph condic, assistant professor of humanities in western's college of general studies, has been selected to kalamazoo after six weeks of writing and conferences in yugoslavia.

theodore roethke poetry prize
joseph condic, assistant professor of humanities in western's college of general studies, has been selected to kalamazoo after six weeks of writing and conferences in yugoslavia.

he spent a week at the university of zagreb working with internationally known physical chemist, dr. ivan supel, who was a visiting scholar to wmu a year ago. condic has been translating supel's latest book on "science, knowledge, and humanism," from croatian into english.

during his visit, he participated in a symposium on science and peace at zagreb university. the conference delegates heard scientists and scholars from throughout the world discuss the ethical implications of science and the role of scientists in actively working for a peaceful world.

while there, condic represented wmu in a post-graduate course on the philosophy of science and ethics at lutheran university. he accepted an invitation to return to yugoslavia in 1976 to lecture on "theology of causality derived from the aristotelian tradition" at the inter-university centre there.

publish cain article
as was written by dr. mary cain, professor of teacher education, has been published in the january-february issue of the journal "elementary english."

entitled "the literate children of british primary schools," it describes the development of language reading program for young children used in many british schools. a condensed version of dr. cain's article has been selected to appear in "the education digest."

theodore roethke poetry prize
joseph condic, assistant professor of humanities in western's college of general studies, has been selected to kalamazoo after six weeks of writing and conferences in yugoslavia.

he spent a week at the university of zagreb working with internationally known physical chemist, dr. ivan supel, who was a visiting scholar to wmu a year ago. condic has been translating supel's latest book on "science, knowledge, and humanism," from croatian into english.

during his visit, he participated in a symposium on science and peace at zagreb university. the conference delegates heard scientists and scholars from throughout the world discuss the ethical implications of science and the role of scientists in actively working for a peaceful world.

while there, condic represented wmu in a post-graduate course on the philosophy of science and ethics at lutheran university. he accepted an invitation to return to yugoslavia in 1976 to lecture on "theology of causality derived from the aristotelian tradition" at the inter-university centre there.

describe wmu program
at national meeting
four wmu faculty members from the teacher education department described a wmu program with three school districts, designed to develop individualized teaching and elementary teaching practices, at a recent national conference in new orleans, la.

the four wmu faculty members from the teacher education department described a wmu program with three school districts, designed to develop individualized teaching and elementary teaching practices, at a recent national conference in new orleans, la.

dr. james boose, professor; dr. james w. burns, associate professor; ronald a. crowell, assistant professor; and dr. richard dore, associate professor, discussed the development, implementation and impact of the two year in-service education programs with classroom districts at fremont, grand haven and mona shores.

the conference, conducted by the association for supervision and curriculum development, also examined ways of providing more effective approaches toward the professional development of teachers.

describe wmu program
at national meeting
four wmu faculty members from the teacher education department described a wmu program with three school districts, designed to develop individualized teaching and elementary teaching practices, at a recent national conference in new orleans, la.

dr. james boose, professor; dr. james w. burns, associate professor; ronald a. crowell, assistant professor; and dr. richard dore, associate professor, discussed the development, implementation and impact of the two year in-service education programs with classroom districts at fremont, grand haven and mona shores.

the conference, conducted by the association for supervision and curriculum development, also examined ways of providing more effective approaches toward the professional development of teachers.

salute concert
series promotion
"up the arts," the campaign to promote western's 1974-75 international concert series, has been supported by arts management, a national news service in new york city for fine arts administrators and patrons.

"long and careful planning, on-target promotion, and an easily remembered and heavily publicized campaign slogan" are recognized as "key ingredients." the series in the front page story of the november-december issue of the newsletter. the article states that the campaign "stimulated new awareness of the wide interest in classical music among arts and education promoters. dr. ralph blocksma, chief of plastic surgery at the university of zagreb, is developing a new surgical technique described a waum program with three school districts, designed to develop individualized teaching and elementary teaching practices, at a recent national conference in new orleans, la.

the fourth in a series of open houses for "non-traditional" women students will be held tuesday, march 25, from 12:00 to 2:00 p.m. in the suzan b. anthony center in the canterbury center. the purpose is to encourage informal faculty/student discussion and to acquaint women with the center and its services.

the last open house in the series will be april 9, 7:30-9 p.m., at the sba center.
7 Athletes Win Gary Scholarships

Seven WMU athletes, representing a like number of sports, were cited last night as winners of 1975 M. J. "Mike" Gary Scholarships in recognition of both athletic and academic achievements.

Recipients are: Mark Lundell, Southfield junior, in biology, football; Jim Kozers, Dalton, Ohio, junior, in earth science, basketball; John Bornea, Kalamazoo senior, in American studies, track; Lee Weitzman, Detroit junior, in sociology, ice hockey; Mike Hurley, Albion senior, in political science, golf; Duane Lueneburg, Escanaba senior, in accounting; and Bob Cole, Kalamazoo senior, in Spanish, soccer.

They were honored at the third annual Brown and Gold Athletic Banquet here in the Student Center.

Campus Calendar

March 20-April 11—WOMANFORM photo exhibit by Lyndwood Bartley, poems by John Woods, Space, 2700 Knauss Hall, daily

March 20—Mathematics colloquium, Prof. Kuang-Yen Shih, Univ. of Michigan, Math Commons Room, 3020 Friedmann Hall, 4 p.m.

March 22—Opera "Dialogues of the Camellies," Shaw Theatre, 8 p.m.

March 23—Water Sprites Synchronized Swimming Show, Gavel Pool, 8 p.m. nightly, 2 p.m. Saturday.

March 25—Organ recital by Clyde Holloway, Indiana University, Miller Auditorium, 3 p.m.

March 25—Cliff Keuter Dance Company, Miller Auditorium, 8 p.m.

March 25—Tuba Ensemble and tuba and narrator on "The Tuba"; his lecture will include facts on the various tuba models—how to choose them and how they sound. Varner is a professor of tuba at Ball State University and a special consultant for the Tuba Music Company and Rudolf Meitl Tubas. He is actively involved with the development and design of new instruments.

March 26—Arthur E. S. Granger, the 30-voice group that will perform the "Tuba Music Galore" will begin. Works for solo euphonium, solo tuba, tuba trio, tuba quartet, tuba ensemble, tuba and narrator, and tuba and tape will be performed. Styles of music including rock, jazz, avant-garde, and classical will be heard. WMU's tuba professor, Robert Whelch, will perform along with the WMU Tuba Ensemble and the Kalamazoo Tuba Orchestra.

To Discuss Sports Financing Tonight

A free, open panel discussion of sports financing at WMU will be held at 3 p.m. tonight, March 20, in the lounge of LeFevre Hall, University Student Center.

The Valley Two Community Faculty/Student Forum will consider the opening question: "What is the Present Imbalance of Funds Allocated to Men's Intercollegiate Sports Compared to Women's?" Their talk is sponsored by the Faculty Women's Club.

Faculty/Student Seminar

A faculty/student seminar on "Public Policy, Planning, and Black Regionalism" will be given by Dr. Robert W. Kaufman, director, WMU Institute of Public Affairs, 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 25, in 3020 Friedmann Hall. It's open to faculty, staff and students.

The Institute of Public Affairs helped draft the by-laws of Region III and has carried out several studies and projects for it.

Math Talk Today

Dr. Kuang-Yen Shih, professor of mathematics at the University of Michigan, will conduct WMU's public mathematics colloquium, at 4 o'clock today, March 20, in the Math Commons Room, Everett Tower.

His topic: "Automorphic Functions and Quadratic Differential Formulas" will be served at 3:30 p.m.

On March 27, Dr. James R. Bailey, associate professor of mathematics at WMU, will speak on "The Teaching of Mathematics to Young Children," at 4 p.m. in the Math Commons Room.

Faculty Women Luncheon

The Faculty Women's Club luncheon will be held 12:15 p.m. Saturday, April 12, in the West Ballroom, University Student Center, and will give two presentations here on March 25.

At 3 p.m. in 118 Moore Hall, he will speak on "The Use of Film in Documenting Cultures" as part of the anthropology department's colloquium series. At 7:30 p.m. in 2730 Knauss Hall, he will show his wide range of filmed materials on social structure and life in a rural Irish community, "The Village." A talk and a screening on the Irish Village in Film and Literature.

The events are sponsored by WMU's departments of anthropology, English and instructional communications.

Area Season Finale April 1-5

The University Theatre will present its final Arena Theatre production of "The Tuba" and "Tuba Music Galore" will be the themes of a spring genre of music, beginning at 7 p.m. Tuesday, March 25, in Oakland Recital Hall.

Guest artist J. Leslie Varner will talk about "The Tuba," his lecture will include facts on the various tuba models—how to choose them and how they sound. Varner is a professor of tuba at Ball State University and a special consultant for the Tuba Music Company and Rudolf Meitl Tubas. He is actively involved with the development and design of new instruments.

"Tuba Music Galore" will begin. Works for solo euphonium, solo tuba, tuba trio, tuba quartet, tuba ensemble, tuba and narrator, and tuba and tape will be performed. Styles of music including rock, jazz, avant-garde, and classical will be heard. WMU's tuba professor, Robert Whelch, will perform along with the WMU Tuba Ensemble and the Kalamazoo Tuba Orchestra.

Meridian J. C. Chorus Here

The Meridian Junior College Goss Chorus will be featured in "A Night of Music" at 7:30 p.m. March 26 in Western's Kanley Chapel.

The free public program, sponsored by the WMU Undergraduate Admissions and Minority Student Services offices and Black Business Student Association, is part of the group's two day visit here.

They will appear with the Young Gospel Singers of Kalamazoo at next Wednesday's performance and entertain the students at Lincoln School during their stay.

They were featured in Janurary of 1974 to commemorate black religious music during Black Awareness Week. Directed by Rev. E. S. Cranger, the 80-voice group is made up of students from Kalamazoo, Michigan, and Michigan.

Philosophy Lecture

Dr. Wade Rohison, professor of philosophy at Kalamazoo College, will give a free public lecture at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 26, in the Lounge of the Layton V. Shaw Theatre box office is accepting reservations for only these tickets, the box office will open for reservations and walk-in sales Monday, March 24.