

Vol. I, No. 7

Western Michigan University

June 19, 1975

TRUSTEES WILL MEET TOMORROW

Several academic personnel appointments and reappointments, as well as routine year-end allotment adjustments to the General Fund budget for 1974-75, are on the agenda for the Friday, June 20, meeting of the University's Board of Trustees. It begins at 1:45 p.m. in the University Student Center.

OPEN HOUSE TUESDAY FOR "MRS. J"

The University Student Center has designated Tuesday, June 24, as "L.B.J. Day" in honor of Leila-Bell Jaqua, secretary to the building director and reservation secretary of the Student Center since the building was opened in 1957. She has been employed by the University since 1953.

All the many friends of "Mrs. J" are invited to an open house from 9 to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. in the Student Center office. Coffee and punch will be served.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

June

- *19-21 Comedy "The Good Doctor" by Neil Simon, Arena Theatre, 8 p.m.
- 30-July 3 Basketball camp by the National Junior Pro Association, Read Fieldhouse, daily
- 25 Spring session ends
- 30 Registration for summer session, Read Fieldhouse, 8 a.m.-3 p.m.

July

- 1 Classes begin for summer session

*Admission charged

ONE FINAL REMINDER

The Central Stores area--warehousing, office, custodial and maintenance supplies --will be closed for inventory June 25, 26 and 27. Any orders received after noon on Tuesday, June 24, will be processed after July 1

ORIENTATION BEGINS SUNDAY

The first group of 180 freshmen who are enrolled for the fall semester at the University arrive on campus Sunday, June 22. They are part of approximately 2,700-2,800 expected for three days and two nights of counseling, testing, class registration and campus tours. They will be under the guidance of 40 student leaders especially trained to help the newcomers adjust to life at WMU. Norman Russell, assistant to the Vice President for Student Services, is director of Orientation.

GORSKI NAMED GENERAL MANAGER

David Gorski, a senior from Emmett, Mich., will serve as general manager of the University's student-operated radio stations, WIDR and WIDR-FM, for the fall semester. He was named to the position by the stations' executive board. WIDR is the closed circuit dormitory radio station, while WIDR-FM is scheduled to begin broadcasting test signals shortly to the metropolitan Kalamazoo area.

JOB OPENINGS LISTED

Below is a listing of the position openings currently being posted by the University Personnel Department for current University employees. Regular full-time and part-time employees interested in applying for these positions should submit a Job Opportunity Program application form to the Personnel Department during the posting period.

Secretary I, H-04, College of Arts & Sciences - posted 6/13 - 6/19

Secretary I, H-04, Teacher Education (TWO POSITIONS) - posted 6/13 - 6/19

Account Clerk II, H-04, Accounting - posted 6/13 - 6/19

Secretary I, H-04, Part-time, Librarianship - posted 6/16 - 6/20

Administrative Assistant Senior, E-14, Health Center - posted 6/16 - 6/20

INSTRUCTIONAL POSITIONS POSTED

Below is a listing of the instructional position openings currently being announced by the Personnel Department. For additional information, please refer to the posting boards on campus, or contact the Employment Office in Personnel.

Assistant Professor, Temporary 1 year (TWO POSITIONS) - Electrical Engineering - posted 6/13 - 6/19

Assistant Professor, Temporary 1 year, Transportation Tech. - posted 6/13 - 6/19

Assistant Professor, Temporary 1 year, Occupational Therapy - posted 6/13 - 6/19

Assistant Professor, Temporary 1 year, Anthropology - posted 6/16 - 6/20

Assistant Professor, Temporary 1 year, Economics - posted 6/16 - 6/20

Instructor, Temporary 1 year, Geology - posted 6/18 - 6/24

WMUK-FM TO BROADCAST SPECIAL CONCERT

At 9 p.m. on July 4, the University's FM radio station will broadcast a special concert featuring pianist Andre Watts with the Reading (Pa.) Symphony Orchestra. Entitled "A Celebration of American Music at Ford's Theatre," the program will include compositions by Copland, MacDowell and Ives-Schumann. WMUK-FM can be heard at 102.1 on the dial.

CAMPUS BRIEFS

Dr. Charles B. Keely, associate professor of sociology, presented a paper on "Recent Philippine and Asian Immigration to the United States" at the June 2-6 International Conference on Philippine Migration in Honolulu. The paper was co-authored by John Fox, a doctoral student in sociology.

Dr. Yousef Alavi, professor of mathematics, presided at the recent meeting of the Michigan section of the Mathematical Association of America. He was chairman of the state organization for the past year.

Dr. Robert Griffin, assistant professor of modern and classical languages, has written an article which was published in the current issue of The Modern Language Journal. It is entitled "The Report of the National Commission on the Reform of Secondary Education: Its Implications for Foreign Language Education."

John Woods, professor of English, will conduct a poetry workshop June 23-27 at the South Bend Writers Conference, South Bend, Indiana.

UNIVERSITY STUDENT CENTER SCHEDULE

The following is the schedule for the Student Center on June 25, 26, 27, 28, 29 and 30:

Wednesday, June 25--building and counter will close at 5 p.m.; snack bar will close at 2:45 p.m.; all other areas at regularly scheduled time.

Thursday and Friday, June 26 and 27--building and counter open 7:15 a.m. to 4:15 p.m.; public cafeteria open for coffee and rolls 9 to 11 a.m.; lunch from 11:15 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.; styling shop, bookstore, games area, snack bar, Gold Room and craft shop closed.

Saturday, June 28--building closed.

Sunday, June 29--building and counter open from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.; public cafeteria open from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Monday, June 30--all areas open on Summer Session schedule except styling shop which opens Tuesday, July 1.

Walwood Union will be closed June 25-July 1; reopens Wednesday, July 2, on summer schedule.

Goldsworth Valley Snack Bar will close and not reopen until the fall semester.

GRADUATE ASSISTANT NEEDED

An opening for a graduate assistant in the Alumni Affairs and Development Office is available for fall semester (1975), winter semester (1976) and Spring session (1976). Applicant must have news writing capabilities and an interest in doing extensive work in the publications field. Pay for the three semesters will total $2,900. For information, contact Frank H. Bentz, director, Alumni Affairs and Development.

NOTICE

The Student Recreation Building will be closed Friday, July 4, for the Independence Day holiday.

WHEN HELP IS NEEDED...

Applicants with skills in all types of part-time work, ranging from secretarial to custodial, are available through the Student Employment Referral Service on campus. For more information, call 383-1806, or visit the S.E.R.S. office on the third floor of the Student Services Building.