Editor's Comments

The fall issue of Reading Horizons contains articles by three outstanding individuals on the campus of Western Michigan University. Dr. Kristen D. Juul is the new Director of Special Education and is a former student of the university.

Miss Emeline McCowen is third grade teacher in the Campus School and is well known for her teaching ability, especially in the area of critical reading.

Mrs. Blanche Bush, a member of the staff of the Psycho-Educational Clinic, is making a significant contribution in her classes in Adult Reading and in the course Introduction to Learning and Adjustment.
