

WMU Occupational Therapy Oral History Collection Release Form

Thank you for your contribution to capturing the next 100 years of WMU's Occupational Therapy program! Your contribution will be part of the WMU Occupational Therapy Oral History Collection.

By signing this form, you give your permission for your interview to be published in WMU's Institutional Repository, ScholarWorks. Capturing the intellectual output and institutional history of WMU, ScholarWorks is an online access and preservation platform maintained and curated by Western Michigan University Libraries.

Your audio or video interview will be openly accessible to researchers and the general public for educational purposes. WMU may use your interview for research, presentation, publication and promotional purposes. Please note that contributing your date of birth is optional; this is a standard data field when creating digital collections, and is not essential to your participation.

I agree to the uses of these materials as described above, except for any restrictions, noted below.

Name (please print): Kelly Kislowski

Signature: Kelly Kislowski

Date: July 23, 2022

Graduation year: 2019

DOB (optional): 09/04/96

Preferred contact information: (219)7893925 call/text

Project Directors: Dr. Ann Chapleau (Occupational Therapy) & Prof. Amy Bocko (WMU Libraries)

Restriction description:

