“Updated Findings on College Learning in the United States”

November 3, 2011

5:00 p.m.

2000 Schneider Hall

Extending the findings on the first two years of college in “Academically Adrift: Limited Learning on College Campuses” (2011), the lecture will present the analysis of the complete four years of student longitudinal data (Fall 2005-Spring 2009) and will also look at how these students are faring in the current U.S. economic crisis.

Richard Arum’s visit is co-sponsored by the Haworth College of Business, the Lee Honors College, the Office for Assessment and Undergraduate Studies, and the Office of the Provost.
