NINETEEN SIXTY

BROWN

and GOLD

Barbara McBride, Business Manager
It's back to school for some 8500 Western students. Coming from all corners of the state, many other states, and some foreign countries, students are immediately caught up in the college atmosphere and campus life. The first day finds all students unloading cars, cleaning and arranging rooms, meeting old and new friends, and gathering at the University Student Center to make and renew other friendships. Yes! School has truly started for another year.
The first week seems to be half the battle of the semester. We struggle through registration, bookstore lines, check book lists, and purchase supplies. Our quest for knowledge then leads us in search of the right building and classroom. Classes begin, and we find ourselves caught up in a whirl of homework to last throughout the semester.
The first week draws to a close and activities again prevail. The Freshman Carnival, popular among all classes, brings the spirit of competition for the winning carnival booth.

Dance Mixers and Sorority-Fraternity rushing give us another outlet for activities and friends. The IFC Mass Rush and the Panhellenic Rush are held during the second week of school to familiarize students with the various fraternities and sororities on campus.
the First Week

PANHELLENIC RUSHING brings forth sorority girls.

WE MEET NEW friends at the many dance mixers.
A FAMILIAR PLACE of worship for many students is Kanley Chapel.

GIRLS SOON LEARN of the signing out regulations.

Classes scarcely begin before we form many habits that remain with us during the year. Signing out and late studies become daily occurrences with many students. But weekends bring other events. There are the football games on Saturday and the quiet relaxation of Sunday worship.

BURNING THE MIDNIGHT oil.
Many Routine Habits

WESTERN PLAYS HOST to area bands for the annual Band Day Game.
During the first month of school the students become acquainted with the many services that the university provides. Students also find ways that they may be of service to the university and to each other. We learn of the RHA blood drive, the many assemblies and the transportation available.

Faculty members also participate in group activities. As the school year gets underway they hold many gatherings and parties.
THE SCHOOL OF Liberal Arts sponsored the opera "La Boheme."

Familiar Campus Services

SHALL WE RIDE the bus or hitch?
Homecoming, with all its gay festivities, is a time for the entire campus to participate. The fun begins with the hoe-down day and the jazz concert on Friday. A huge bonfire adds to the Friday night activities. Many students work into the night putting the final touches on the many house displays and floats that make their appearance on Saturday. The parade through town and the game add to the excitement, all of which is climaxed with two top name bands playing for the Homecoming Dances.
THE HILTOPPERS PROVIDED entertainment at the jazz concert.

A HUGE CROWD saw Western win the Homecoming game.

WE DANCED FOR many hours.

THE QUEEN'S FLOAT.
Homecoming is never complete without a queen and court. Weeks ahead, various campus organizations each select a girl to enter the competition. The final week the excitement mounts as the selection is narrowed to ten, then five, and finally the queen is selected. Davis Hall had the honor of selecting Queen Gayle as their candidate.

HOMECOMING COURT: ROW 1, Linda Bush, Queen Gayle Runciman; ROW 2, Dianna Dee Brock, Kathleen Mileski, Sandra Eddy.
Contributing to the education of students are the well planned university assemblies and plays. The first play of the season was a presentation of George Bernard Shaw's "Arms and the Man." Shortly after this the School of Education sponsored a talk by the noted educator Dr. Henry Steele Commanger.
A MUSICAL PRODUCTION of "The Most Happy Fellow."
It's the Christmas season, and we go shopping. But, any shopping trip in Kalamazoo is never complete without walking along the Mall or through Bronson Park, both gayly decorated. The snow may be deep and the weather cold, but we hardly notice the winter as we stare at the wonders of Kalamazoo.
As the Christmas vacation draws near the anticipation mounts. We look for rides to distant cities, and begin to pack. But there is still time for the activities prior to vacation. The various music groups join together and present the annual Christmas Concert. Attendance at this and the final game before vacation help to create the Christmas spirit.
Returning from the Christmas vacation our education is again enriched by the assembly programs of the University. January brought the return of the Canadian Players to Western. Central High School Auditorium was filled for their excellent performance of "The Cherry Orchard."
INTRODUCTION TO THE Greek World.

VOCAL ENTERTAINMENT WAS provided by Judy Swanlund at Carnicus.

Finals Draw Near

A BIT OF magic is provided the Carnicus audience by Dave Hauer.
Nearing finals we pause to enjoy the entertainment of Carnicus. A variety of entertainment is provided and all proceeds going to charity. The semester is not complete however, without the traditional Panhellenic Ball. This is the introduction of sorority pledges into the world of the Greeks.

Activities cease, and studies become the only thoughts to enter our minds. Finals draw near, and we wonder, "Why didn't I start to study sooner?" Seeking quiet seclusion, many students are found to be in Waldo Library.
THE FUTURE IS here for January graduates.

Another Semester Ended

THAT LAST MINUTE cramming.
A new semester begins, and we are again caught up in the various elements of campus life. We register, buy books, attend classes and await the weekend for the famed Men's Union Snow Carnival. Although the weatherman did not allow for the traditional snow sculptures, all other events were held as usual. The fun carnival brought a first place trophy to Delta Chi. An added feature this year was the beatnik gathering in the Student Center, complete with Phyllis Queen reading poetry.

A New Semester
ENTERTAINING WMU AUDIENCE is the entire cast of "The Lady in the Moon."

GLOW, BEAM, AND Shine, the three Moon brothers.

Western’s theatre audience was entertained to new heights this year by the combined talents of Brown and Gold Fantasies author, Jerry Smith and director Daniel Turon. Colorful costuming, plus unusual scenery and lighting, created the desired effects for the entertaining plot of "The Lady in the Moon."

Brown and Gold
Indeed the all student production centering around the theme of an earth man falling in love with the daughter of the Moon Lady was a new twist in show business at Western. Excitement was added when a white rat, brought to the moon by the earth men, escapes. The danger of a green cheese vault robbery and the loss of valuable information into the hands of questionable Moon Men becomes paramount. But a fantasies ending is in store with happiness winning out over all forces of evil.

"The Lady in the Moon" was well received by the audience at all five performances and surely gives future Fantasies authors a new mark to aim for.
The second semester was filled with enlightenment upon many subjects. Guest speakers, from many areas, made a dynamic impact upon the campus. During February the School of Business sponsored another fine assembly program featuring the noted author, Mr. Vance Packard. His latest book, The Status Seekers, became the topic for discussion.

During March one week was devoted to the annual University Conference on Religion. Numerous speakers of all denominations visited the campus for informal lectures and classroom discussions.
March became a month to remember with the many plays and assemblies. Saint Patrick's Day was the opening of Sean O'Casey's "Cock-a-Doodle-Dandy." This coincided with the opening of the Festival of Arts earlier in the week. An entire month was devoted to the Tenth Annual Festival of Arts.

The Soviet Union was the topic for World Affairs Week. Panel discussions and speakers emphasized various aspects of Russian life. Among the speakers was the noted author of 'I Led Three Lives,' Mr. Herb Philbrick.
Military Events

With the coming of spring there are numerous university events and an even greater number of student initiated activities. Among the campus events are the Military Ball, complete with royalty, and the ROTC review, honoring outstanding cadets.

Springtime also provides the opportunity for many long anticipated activities. It's the time to think of that Florida vacation, washing cars and of course spring dating.
SPRING VACATION MEANS a trip to Florida for many students.

A CHANGE IN appearance for spring.

WARM WEATHER PROVIDES an opportunity for walking.
Among the favorite campus programs are the annual Sorority Sing and Fraternity Sing held each spring. The various Greek organizations practice months in advance for the sings. Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia is the traditional sponsor of Fraternity Sing and Sigma Alpha Iota the sponsor of Sorority Sing.

A very special program is held during the early part of May. This is the annual Arista Rose Day at which time outstanding senior women are given special recognition. The women who are honored are leaders in scholastic ability or campus organizations.
IT'S ON THE green for this early morning golfer.

STRIKE THREE BECOMES a familiar cry during spring.

TIME OUT FROM study with frisbee action.
Two of the much anticipated social activities of the year are the Greek Week festivities and the Cotillion. Greek Week, an annual event, is set aside at Western for the promotion of Greek relations. Activities range all the way from bicycle races and swimming meets to a semi-formal dance which tops off the entire week of festivity. Members from all Greek organizations on campus work together on the project to make it a success and, when the big week finally arrives, all the individual groups merge into one big family of "Greeks." To top off the social year at Western is the long anticipated "Cotillion." It is the only formal dance of the year, the boys don tuxedos and the girls are given 2:00 a.m. late permission.

A FAST EXCHANGE in the Greek Week bicycle race.

FREE CORSAGES ARE provided by the Men's Union.
SPORTING EVENTS ARE a favorite form of competition for the Greeks.

A Last Break Before Finals

HONORING FRESHMEN GIRLS the Daisy Chain leads to the June Breakfast.

With the pressure of finals upon us, there is little time for any activities. Sororities take a final break before finals by holding house parties at Lake Michigan. Once finals have begun the last activity of the year is the annual June Breakfast. Freshman honor students form a Daisy Chain leading to the Student Center, where the breakfast is held. This is a final tribute to outstanding women.

SORORITIES TAKE a final escape to house parties before finals begin.

What would Western do without APO? Perhaps this sounds a little dramatic, but have you ever stopped to think what Western would be like without Alpha Phi Omega to guide bewildered students through our increasingly hectic registration? Or what a mess our campus would be without the willing workers to clean up after such events as the Freshman Penny Carnival? Life isn't all work for the men of the national service fraternity. A year will see them participating in various social activities to break the "monotony" of too much work. In addition to all the regular activities, this spring saw the Gamma Phi chapter at Western hosting the state convention. To carry on service projects which require financial backing APO sponsors the annual "Ugly Man Contest" on campus.

Gamma Delta

Gamma Delta is the international association of Lutheran college and university students. With the twin goals of promoting Christian knowledge and service, the Alpha Psi chapter, one of 160 in North America, each year sponsors a variety of religious, cultural, social and service activities. The center of Gamma Delta’s program, of course, is the series of worship services held each Sunday during the school year in Kanley Chapel. These services are open to all students and faculty. Regular Sunday evening supper meetings are held at the Lutheran Student Center.

Lutheran Student Organization

Highlights of the year included the annual initiation banquet in November, at which 63 new members were added; the Christmas Coffee in December; Winter Camp in January; and the regional Gamma Delta convention in March. Kappa Phi members combine the goals centering about religious ideals, service and social activities. Kappa Phi, a national Methodist sorority, has been on Western's campus since 1954. During this time the group has done much in the way of concentrating on service projects, worship experiences, outings and social events. At a fall weekend retreat, the girls have an opportunity to deepen their lives spiritually as well as create a close fellowship with each other.

Peg Slater has acted as president of the organization this year; Helen Higgins, first vice-president; Alice Becker, second vice-president; Nina Holderman, recording secretary; Maryrose Dorn, corresponding secretary; Noreen Werden, treasurer; and Diane Erickson, chaplain. Wesley Foundation

THE DIRECTOR TALKS it over.

Student-led worship services, a students choir and drama group, deputations to nearby churches, missionary projects, state and national conferences and a variety of social functions are all part of what goes into the Wesley Foundation. An organization of Methodist preference students, the Wesley Foundation strives to emphasize spiritual thought and living and to provide its members with opportunity to develop leadership and to participate in social activities. Classes in Bible, Vesper services, the promotion of parties, fellowship suppers, church league basketball, and Friday pop-ins keep the group busy the year around.

Other activities that go into making up a busy life for the publicity director are student news releases that appear in hometown newspapers and acting as advisor for the yearbook.

PUBLISHED EVERY THREE months, the WMU News Magazine is widely distributed.
A creative arts magazine, Calliope, is an outlet for students with a flair for expression. It is an all student published magazine and appears twice a year. Brown and Gold

From out of scads of typed papers, copy which needs to be rewritten, pictures which need to be sorted and proofs which need to be checked, actually emerges the yearbook of Western Michigan University.

Plans are started with the selection of staff members the previous year, and the work doesn’t stop until the books are distributed to students. The long hours, lasting through vacations for many staff members, are never over until the new staff members are appointed.

Carol Walsh, Assistant Editor

Barbara McBride, Business Manager

John R. Hefferan, Editor
CHECKING ENGRAVING PROOFS are Mary McDonald and Wes Stafford.

PLANS TAKE SHAPE for James Lauer and Charles Harvey.

Staff Members

COMBINING THEIR TALENTS for the yearbook are Kathy Sedor, Barbe Woodford, Bonnie Bailey, Karen Daniels, and Karen Thompson.
THE TALENTS OF Phillip Frye, Lloyd Peterson, and Dave Seaman were combined to supply the yearbook with photographs.

THE TY HOUSE is the home of the Brown and Gold and Western Herald.

Before the staff has time to get organized they find themselves caught in a whirl of yearbook work. Publishing the yearbook is an exciting challenge for anyone who likes to "live" yearbook and do all other things on the run.

But the end always comes; and out of the chaos emerges the finished book. The old staff can sit back and relax; the doors are open for the new staff to enter and take on all of the problems and nerve-racking, but enjoyable, experiences.

Heading the staff this year were John Hefferan, editor; Barbara McBride, business manager; Carol Walsh, assistant editor; Mary McDonald, copy editor; Wes Stafford, sports editor; James Lauer, art editor, and Charles Harvey, advertising manager.
The clattering of typewriters never stops in the upstairs of the Ty House, as the Herald staff works fast and furiously to produce a bi-weekly publication. The staff of approximately thirty members works without a journalism advisor. All editorial policies of the Herald are left to the editor's discretion.

The Wednesday and Friday editions are eagerly awaited for the many articles of interest. Highlights are the editorials, special features, and "Letters to the Editor" column.

Parvin Lee, Editor

MAKING UP AN issue of the Herald are Jim Zeno, Susan Peterson, Nancy Bond, Ray Buckley, Karen Trofast, Carl Buehler.
Western Herald

The personal satisfaction of the responsibility of publishing Western's bi-weekly newspaper is greater than the monetary rewards for these staff members. The many long hours spent working are evidenced when each issue of the Herald appears on campus.

Western Herald Staff

DICK BEZILE LEAPS across the goal line to score against Marshall.

Varsity Football
Coach Merle J. Schlosser led his "59" squad to another 4-5 record, and to fifth place in the much keener competition of the Mid-American Conference. Lovell Coleman and several others will be greatly missed through graduation by the "60" squad, but Coach Schlosser has a good returning force for the fall campaign.

SKIP MUGGS DIVES out of bounds, but fails to complete the pass against Washington.

LEROY REPISCHAK (55) dives to block the Kent State center.
Western Michigan University's Broncos opened their 1959 football season against their sister school rival in Mount Pleasant. The Broncos showed a great deal of promise despite the 21-15 loss, through the excellent play of Lovell Coleman and of sophomore quarterbacks Don Seekell and Ed Chlebek, and linemen Mike Snodgrass and Jim VaChon.

Mid-American Conference title defenders, Miami, handed us our first defeat in conference play, but the next week Western's gridiron men came through with a sparkling win over the Marshall eleven, to the tune of 52-0. This tied up our conference record and gave a great show to the 10,000 fans who attended our band day game. The Marshall win was a real team effort with four players scoring. This included a 99-yard pass interception in the last seconds before half-time by Dick Bezile, and the excellent passing of Ed Chlebek who completed three passes into the end zone.
Through the recovery of key fumbles and the excellent tackling of second team Little-All-American, Clarence Cheatham, we pushed down the Rockets of Toledo to again even up our MAC record. Western was edged by Ohio University, but came back to win over Kent State. Although scoring only once, Lovell Coleman made several excellent drives.

This year Western renewed its old rivalry with the University of Detroit. Mud and snow hampered the play of both teams. Western fought hard and well making the Titans earn their 14-0 win.
Lovell Coleman was the target of all Western's foes, but despite their efforts to hold him down, he led the team in rushing with 466 yards for 126 carries and an average of 3.7 yards per carry. Coleman, who was forced to miss two games because of a shoulder injury, still managed to lead the team in the scoring department with 34 points. He was also high man in the kickoff return column with 152 yards for eight carries. The powerful senior from Hamtramck was a truly great ball player for WMU, and he will be greatly missed by the grid men next season.
Western will graduate ten men of the varsity squad; including Lovell Coleman, Skip Mugg, Jesse Madden, Clarence Cheatham, and Ted Binkowski. Prospects are good for the "60" team, as there will be returning men in almost every position in the line and backfield.

Sophomores Ed Chlebek and Don Seekell led the passing column with 555 and 466 yards respectively and showing great potential in the backfield. In the pass receiving column, Jesse Madden led the squad in total yards with 297. He was followed by another graduating senior, Henry "Skip" Mugg, with his 233 yards. Mugg was the only Bronco to make second team MAC.

With this returning strength and with the hopefuls from the Frosh squad, Coach Schlosser and the team look forward to a very promising 1960 season.

EVADING THREE TITAN players, Dave Cooke picks up Bronco yardage.

A PERFECT PASS to Rich Jeric (83) gives Western another first down against Washington.

In great contrast to last season's 2-20 record, Coach Don Boven's basketball five finished with a winning 13-11 record. Western had a 5-7 Mid-American Conference record for fifth place. The Bronco squad steadily improved with each game, bringing more and more excitement to the fans. Led by starters Ron Robinson, Bob Bolton, and Sam Key, the Broncos poured in a total of 1,886, points establishing a new season record. The team average was also the highest in the school's history, as the Broncos netted an average of 78.5 points per game.

Western opened against the Wildcats of Northwestern and gave the Big Ten school some moments to remember. Despite several rallies Northwestern was victorious 80-66. The Broncos bounced back to defeat Assumption University in the opening home game 106-62, setting a new high scoring record for the WMU field house. Central Michigan was the next victim of the Broncos, when they too felt the 106 point blast, as WMU tied the record set just two days earlier, beating Central 106-45.
Western lost three in a row to MAC teams then came back to defeat Western Ontario 79-55. The Broncos defeated Valparaiso in the Motor City Tournament and went to the final game against the University of Detroit. The Titans provided strong competition, taking an early lead which the Broncos could not overcome.

Returning to MAC competition, Western defeated favored Bowling Green 63-60 in a thriller right down to the final seconds. Later in the season Bowling Green tried to avenge the loss but again fell to the fast moving Broncos 87-85.

SAM KEY GOES high in the air for a shot against Central Michigan.

CENTRAL MICHIGAN PLAYERS become entangled in an attempt to prevent Western from scoring.
Sophomore forward Ron Robinson was very impressive all season long. He scored a total of 393 points with a shooting percentage of .450 from the field and .750 from the foul line. Robinson was exceptionally good on fast break scoring, as were teammates Bob James, Earl McNeal, Sam Key, and Ernie Scott. Key, who alternated between guard and forward positions, had a season total of 262 points. His offensive and defensive abilities proved a real menace to opponents. Bob James led the team in the points per game column with a 20.9 average for the fifteen games he played. Bob “Sticks” Bolton became Coach Boven’s most effective weapon at the center position. The 6’10” cager improved tremendously throughout the season, seeing plenty of action. Bob excelled in scoring and rebounds, getting 267 points and 241 rebounds in the twenty-four games.

The 1960-61 squad will have many returning lettermen, and should have a great deal of depth and experience. Returning for this campaign will be Ron Robinson, Sam Key, Bob Bolton, Ernie Scott, Earl McNeal, Kieth Sterk, Steve Holmes and Jesse Meriweather.
USING THE SCREEN set up by Earl McNeal, Ron Robinson drives for two of the 118 points accumulated against Washington of St. Louis.

WESTERN TEAMWORK RESULTS in a lay-up by Jesse Meriweather.

The 1959 baseball season was typical of many past seasons at WMU, exciting from the first pitch until the final putout. Western started the year with seven games in Florida, compiling a 5-2 record before returning home. They defeated Michigan (twice), Michigan State, Duke and Florida State. The two games lost included a tight 3-0 opening game against rugged Illinois and a fine no-hit game lost by Phil Bareis after his teammates allowed two unearned runs. During the year Western had a streak of nine straight victories until losing to the University of Wisconsin 5-3. This defeat was avenged the following day with an 8-6 victory over the same Wisconsin team.

As the regular season drew to a close the Mid-American Conference title was narrowed to a close battle between Western, Ohio University, and Kent State. After a close 4-3 victory over Ohio and an important Marshall win over Kent State, in 15-innings on the final day, the Broncos were deadlocked with Ohio for first place in the MAC. A play-off was scheduled on a neutral field, and Western won with a convincing score of 6-3 to win the MAC championship and the right to play in the fourth District NCAA play-offs.

LEN GRABOWSKI SLIDES safely into third base against Ohio U.
COACH MAHER GIVES advice to sophomore pitcher Bill Ortlieb in District 4 playoffs at Omaha.

After losing the first game of the double-elimination series, Western bounced back to win four straight, beating Minnesota, the Big Ten Champion, Detroit, and Notre Dame twice to take the District title. A defeat in any one of the remaining four games would have eliminated the Broncos from the tourney.

Coach Charlie Maher had several outstanding players during the season. Left fielder Larry Buchanan, right fielder Len Grabowski, second baseman Tom Wood, and third baseman Jim Hock all batted over .300; and catcher Larry Belanger collected 16 extra-base hits including seven home-runs. Outstanding pitching performances were turned in by Bill Topp, Bill Ortlieb, Phil Bareis, Ray Larned, and Jerry Socha.

Entering the NCAA College World Series, Western was among the eight best collegiate teams in the nation. After losing the opening game to powerful Oklahoma State, the eventual champions, the Broncos came back to take an impressive 14-6 win over Connecticut. Fresno State proved too strong for the Broncos, and Western was eliminated from the series in the next game. They finished in a fifth place tie with Penn State.

DESPITE OHIO PROTESTS, Bill Topp receives a free pass to home plate.

BREAKING THE TAPE for Western is Dave Edgerly in the Marquette and Central Michigan indoor meet.

DICK BEZILE FORGES ahead to win the low hurdles against Central Michigan and Marquette.

ART EVERSOLE WINS another mile run.
The Western Michigan track men of 1959 met one of the toughest schedules in the school's history and came through with a splendid record. The Broncos won the Mid-American Conference title for the second straight year, and captured Michigan AAU and Central Collegiate honors.

Coach George Dales' sophomore and junior filled ranks lost to only two opponents in regular season competition, including a one point loss to Indiana University 66-65. In MAC competition the Broncos were undefeated in dual meets and gained an impressive 74-58½ margin over second place Ohio University in the Conference meet.

Sophomore sensation John Bork ruled the 440 yard event breaking the school mark of :48.5 with his :48.4 in the Bowling Green meet and then in the triangular meet with Michigan and Marquette he broke his own record with :48.2.

The team of John Bork, Ken Woodring, Larry Taylor, and Doug Wuggazer set new records in both the mile relay and the sprint medley events. They posted a 3:17.5 for the mile as compared to the previous 3:20.2 mark, and they broke the school sprint medley time by three seconds with a 3:24.2.

VERN WHITE AND Dallas Shoesmith clear the hurdles in the Michigan AAU meet.
PLACING FIRST IN the 440 yard dash is Western's John Bork in 48.2 seconds.

SOPHOMORE VAULTER DAVE Underly clears the bar at 14 feet ¾ inches in the Western Michigan relays.

Other key men of the 1959 track squad were sophomore weight man Wayne Gutowsky and distance men Art Eversole and Jerry Ashmore. Gutowsky set a new school record by tossing the iron ball 48 feet 11¾ inches.

The 1960 track squad should be very strong with nearly all of Coach Dailes' men returning. Added to this will be outstanding freshmen Joel Johnson, dashman; Carl Reid and Dick Pond, miler; Al Smith in the 440-yard event, and several men in the field events.

Coach George Dales led the Bronco cross country squad to its second straight Michigan AAU, Mid-American, and Central Collegiate Conference championships. The Broncos were paced by junior sensation Jerry Ashmore, with Carl Reid and Art Eversole right behind. Ashmore's only regular season defeat was by Notre Dame's Ron Gregory in the Notre Dame invitational meet. The Broncos were victorious in this meet however, with Notre Dame second, Kentucky third, Central Michigan fourth, and Bowling Green fifth. The Bronco's only loss came in the NCAA when the team finished in fifth place.
WORKING OUT FOR THE MEETS is senior Art Eversole.

Varsity Tennis

Tennis champions for 1959, Coach Ray Sorensen's team won its sixth straight MAC title. This brought the total to eight league crowns since the conference was formed in 1947. Opening the season with a southern tour, the Broncos won five straight. One of Western's four losses, against an impressive ten wins, was at the hands of the great Notre Dame squad which finished in the fourth spot in the NEAA and won the NEAA individual title. Outstanding tennis men for Western were juniors John Cook and Doug Poort, who won the number one and two singles contests and the doubles crown in the MAC meet at Oxford, Ohio.

DOUG POORT EXECUTES a powerful serve to opponents.

Bill SHAW GRAPPLes with the former conference champion from Ohio University.

Despite a sixth place finish, Coach Roy Wietz's grapplers posted a 6-3 season record in the Mid-American Conference. Heavyweight Bill Shaw completed a fine season with only one loss as he took on some very tough competition, while Bill Forester went through the season without losing a match. In the MAC meet in Athens, Ohio, Shaw won the heavyweight title and Forester took second place in the 157 pound class.

Varsity Wrestling

Coach Ed Gabel’s swimmers finished the season with a 6-4 dual meet record, fourth in the Loyola Relays, and third in the Mid-American Relays. The WMU pool was the scene of the 8th annual MAC Championships, where nine league records fell. Sophomore Bob Isbister won the MAC 100 yard butterfly with a :57.7, setting a new school record and a new MAC record. Isbister was given the honor of representing Western at the NCAA finals in Dallas, Texas. Other outstanding swimmers were Roy Moyer, freestyle; Gary Wright, backstroke; and Ivan Wetters, 200 yard individual medley.

Varsity Swimming

Varsity Golf

Compiling a 12-8 record in 1959, the WMU golfers captured fourth place in the Mid-American Conference. In pre-conference competition the Bronco golfers scored several impressive victories, including a 22\(\frac{1}{2}\)-4\(\frac{1}{2}\) win over Valparaiso. In a 21\(\frac{1}{2}\)-5\(\frac{1}{2}\) victory over the University of Detroit, Ray Puffpaff, Norm Barney, and Fred Osmer broke par on the tough Elk's course. Coach Roy Wietz lost Fred Osmer, Al Martin, and Alex Forrester through graduation, but several impressive frosh golfers should help fill the ranks for the 1960 season.
The "W" Club is composed of men who have won letters in any of the varsity sports. These students are either participating in the athletic events or working with concessions at the games. An alumni newsletter is also published by the "W" Club members.

President of the club, who also serves on the Athletic Board of Control, has been Art Eversole; with Rich Jeric, vice-president; Jerry Misner, recording secretary; Gene Downie, corresponding secretary, and Sheridan Shaffer, treasurer. Sponsors have been Dr. Donald Edwards and Mr. Robert Culp.

Losing three out of four games does not tell the complete story of the frosh football team. As the season progressed they showed continued improvement by defeating Central Michigan’s J.V., and then giving the mighty frosh team from the University of Detroit a good battle before bowing 26-12. Coaches Tom Slaughter and Fred Stevens have developed a number of potential prospects for next year’s varsity. Karl Toth, Tom Hadrick, Pat Emerick, Roger Stranyak, and Tom Thompson are among the freshmen who should aid next year’s varsity.

The 1959-60 freshman basketball squad under the guidance of Coach Pat Clysdale finished the season with an even 6-6 record. The record does not tell the whole story though, for the cagers improved steadily winning five of the last seven games. High scorers were Floyd Cook, Dick Kozik, and Gary Ruprich with a 14.8, 13.5, and 10.9 points per game average respectively.

Frosh Baseball

The frosh baseball team, coached by Fred Stevens, completed its 1959 season with a 3-1 record. The one loss, to Central Michigan, was avenged in the return game with a 5-3 Bronco victory. Gene Cooly, Ken Larsen, and Jim Robinson were the top pitchers for the squad, while Pat Bidelman, Roy Johnson, and Bob Slezak did equally well at their infield positions. Catcher Chuck Lewis and outfielders Larry Johnson, Bill Donohue, and Bob Hageman also showed great promise for the varsity team.

Panhellenic Council

Helping to build an inter-sorority bond, the Panhellenic council is composed of the president and two representatives from each sorority. Among their activities are the introduction of sorority pledges at the annual Panhellenic Ball. The council also acts as co-sponsor of Greek Week with IFC.

Mary Jane Kinney, president, has been assisted by Mary Ann Jaqua, vice-president; Phyllis Beu, recording secretary; Judy Jay, corresponding secretary; and Penny Pickens, treasurer. Dr. Elizabeth Lichty and Mrs. Marguerite Patton have acted as sponsors.
SERVING AS PANHELLENIC officers and sponsors are: ROW 1, Miss Elizabeth Lichty, Mary Ann Jaqua, Mary Jane Kinney, Mrs. Marguerite Patton; ROW 2, Judy Jay, Phyllis Beu, Penny Pickens.

A special tribute was paid to senior sorority women by the Panhellenic Council. This tribute, initiated this year, was in the form of a senior supper held in May. Another new project was initiated this year. Pan Hell’s philanthropic activities became centered around the Fairmont Hospital for old people.

The council was also instrumental in the selection and introduction of a new sorority to Western’s campus. Pan Hell investigated the various sororities that wished to colonize upon the campus. After careful consideration Western gained its newest sorority, Pi Zeta Colony of Chi Omega Sorority.

COUNCIL MEMBERS DISCUSS plans of new sorority with Marilyn Miller, who was elected president of Western’s newest sorority, Chi Omega.

Combining work, studies, and social activities, there is never a dull moment in the life of an Alpha Chi. Whenever things need to be done there are always willing and eager hands to do it, whether it be decorating for a dance, planning rush parties, or selling articles at their rummage sale. Their weeks of planning and work resulted in a Mother’s and Dad’s Day weekend which was a special treat for the parents.

March 1 has been set aside as the annual Alpha Chi service day. On this day the girls work on their national philanthropic project, cerebral palsy. Each year the girls travel to the Upjohn School for Handicapped Children. Here they work together cleaning classrooms and putting up bulletin board displays.
This year the Alpha Chi girls initiated a new tradition by holding a dinner dance for their dates. Inman's was the setting for this March affair. Greek Week activities and sorority sing practice take up many hours of work and entertainment, but the Alpha Chi's still found time to capture the scholarship trophy.

Betty James, president, has been assisted by Miriam Weisgerber, first vice-president; Marge Kobe, second vice-president; Jan Rapp, recording secretary; Diane Krugler, corresponding secretary; and Peg Baker, treasurer. Mrs. R. F. Synder and Miss Margaret Feather have served as sponsors.

THE PLEDGES OF Alpha Chi Omega are: ROW 1, Sherry Tucker, Kitty Svec, Joan Hickey, Betsy Hanna, Jan Dickman; ROW 2, Bev Bixler, Viv Chapman, Sue Pontz, Elaine McNab, Printha Heib, Nancy Porter, Virginia Langworthy, Marilyn Stone, Jean Furman, Sarah Scheel.
Every year is a busy year for the girls of Alpha Omicron Pi. They again provided the campus with one of the outstanding dances, the Campus Couple Fling, at which a campus couple is voted as most popular. Other activities that the girls took part in were Homecoming, Greek Week and various parties and service projects.

The many active hours of participation have proven well worth while for the members of Alpha Omicron Pi. Results of their efforts was a third place booth at the Freshman Carnival. Other busy activities throughout the year included the annual doll sale, a Dad's Day luncheon, and a Mother's Day banquet.

Assisting Carolyn Sutton, president, this year have been Carolyn Couk, vice-president; Lynn Clingenpeel, recording secretary; Barbara Preston, corresponding secretary; and Shirley Grossman, treasurer. Mrs. Eston Asher and Mrs. Robert Haithwaite have acted as sponsors.

Alpha Sigma Alpha

A QUICK SNACK for girls of Alpha Sigma Alpha.

Among the many annual events sponsored by Alpha Sigma Alpha, was the traditional Fireman's Ball, a casual mixer open to the entire campus. Their other numerous activities included a Dad's Day banquet, a Mother's Day banquet, a Christmas party, participation in Greek Week, Sorority Sing, spring house parties, and other Panhellenic activities.
Filled with pep and enthusiasm, the Alpha Sigs carry on a round of activities throughout the year. It is begun with participation in the Freshman Carnival. This is immediately followed by preparing for the various Homecoming activities. Aside from the many social activities of the year, the Alpha Sigs find time to help the mentally retarded children.

Win Myers, president of the sorority this year, was assisted by Andree Koeppel, first vice-president; Charlotte Soules, second vice-president; Sue Sawyer, corresponding secretary; Pat Walper, recording secretary; and Marlene Lazenby, treasurer. Miss Beatrice Hartman and Mrs. Jack Bacon have acted as sorority sponsors.

The round of activities just doesn’t seem to let up for Delta Zeta, as its members participate in such events as Freshman Carnival, Snow Carnival, Greek Week and spring house parties. Providing services the girls work with orphan children; and this year they collected food for needy families with the Delta Sigs.

Serving as president this year has been Katy Mileski; assisting her have been Sue Bachi, pledge trainer; Judi Schander, corresponding secretary; Phyllis Van Gemert, recording secretary; and Sharon Spann, treasurer.

The members of Delta Zeta are able to look back over the year's happenings with a feeling of accomplishment. The girls started the year right as their Homecoming float placed first; not long after this, their skit took a first in the Variety Night show.

One of the year's highlights was the "Buttons and Beaux," the traditional dressy dance, which was sponsored by Delta Zeta and the Phi Alphas. Among their other activities throughout the year the girls honored their dates at the pre-Panhellenic Ball banquet. The members are kept busy throughout the year with carnivals, Homecoming, the various Panhellenic activities, and a constant round of parties.

It's not all social life though. Among the members of Sigma Kappa are many of the girls who are in the positions of campus leadership. They too bring honor to Sigma Kappa, and help to make it known as one of the most active sororities on Western's campus.

Their Carnation Ball, open to the entire campus, has come to be a top social attraction. The Sailor’s Ball, closed to Delt Sigs and their dates, is equally famed as everyone enjoys the real-to-life atmosphere of the salty sea at the Naval Guard Armory.

Other activities well known to members of the fraternity are collecting money for many of the various community charity drives.
Throughout the year members of Delta Sigma Phi are recognized for the fraternity's strong participation in many of the various campus activities. Intramural sports, carnivals, Greek Week and Homecoming are some of the yearly activities of the fraternity brothers.

Social events reign high, but they are also a scholastically minded fraternity. They are known to rank among the highest for scholarship.

Sigma Phi Epsilon

The Sig Eps pride themselves in being one of the nation's largest Greek letter fraternities. The chapter on Western's campus works hard to uphold the prestige of the fraternity's name by actively supporting all events on campus.
A close and spirited group, the Sig Eps have a good time working together to make such events as Homecoming, Snow Carnival and Greek Week a big success. The group makes it a point, however, to stress scholastic achievement among its members; and to be of service to their fellow men and the community.

HOE DOWN DAY brought lots of excitement to Siedschlag girls.

These girls keep busy throughout the year as they participate in such activities as "PJ" parties in their rec room, faculty teas and dinners to help the girls get together with their instructors informally, exchange dinners with men's dorms, holiday and birthday dinners, and a party honoring spring graduates.

Many traditions are carried on in Siedschlag. Senior girls have the privilege of caroling through the hall on a morning just prior to Christmas. The seniors are also honored by signing their names on the huge posts in the recreation room.
Siedschlag Hall prides itself in being one of the largest women's dormitories on campus, as well as one of the friendliest. The only requirement one must fulfill to live in this dormitory is to be able to pronounce its name fluently.

Officers this year have included Mona Napier, president; Cynthia Yendes, first vice-president; Sallie Garrett, second vice-president; Char Currie, secretary; and Trudy Waldron, treasurer. The dormitory director is Mrs. Katherine Chapman, with Miss Doris Radtke the assistant director.

"P.J." parties and a skit night helped the girls get acquainted in the fall. An open house with Ernest Burnham, including square dancing, gave everyone a chance to become acquainted.

Excitement was high during the Christmas season. Parties, the buddy week, and a program were highlights during this time. A high spirited group, the girls of Smith Burnham have ended the coed dormitory life for Western students.
Be it a quiet game of cards inside the dorm or a snowball fight in front, there is always activity for these girls. The Walwood Union has not lost contact with the girls of Spindler, for they are the only ones that remain living on the East Campus.

Promoting leadership among the girls of Spindler Hall is Glenda Belote, president; assisted by Elizabeth McAvoy, vice-president; Shirley Keidel, second vice-president; Gloria Witt, secretary; and Bonnie Brookbank, treasurer.
There's not too much difference between home living and living in Spindler due to the small size of the dormitory. Friendliness and a feeling of 'family togetherness' is apparent among the girls who live in this east campus hall. The directors, Mrs. Edith Lake and Mrs. Mary Chaterdon, help to promote all the good times had by the girls, as is seen by the many after-dinner coffees, the Christmas breakfast and get-acquainted parties which are held throughout the year.

COSTUME PARTIES ARE popular during Halloween.

Spindler Hall
The comforts of home, smiling, friendly faces, all go together to make Zimmerman Hall a wonderful place to live. Housing only 258 girls, a relatively small number in comparison to the other dormitories on Western’s campus, Zimmerman is one dorm which doesn’t seem to be producing strange faces every day.

Zimmerman’s president, Mary Jane Kettner, has been assisted by Phyllis Queen, first vice-president; Sylvia Zeunges, second vice-president; Judy Shafer, secretary; and Penny Pickens, treasurer.

THE SPIRIT OF Christmas is captured at Ellsworth.

Ellsworth Hall

Always being a staunch supporter of all campus affairs has indeed paid off for the men of Ellsworth, for this dormitory ranks among the top in residence halls for men.

This past year Kenneth Noble has served as president, with William Dyke, vice-president; Joe Kelly, secretary; and David Sandula, treasurer.

CHRISTMAS WAS AN excellent opportunity for a Chocolate.
A highly spirited group, the Henry Hall "Tigers" display their enthusiasm for college life throughout the year by participating in many campus activities. Among these are exchange dinners with women's dormitories, a dorm formal which is held in the spring and many intramural sports.
A prize winner during homecoming, the house display was another of the many outstanding projects of the men of Henry Hall. Throughout the year activity was continuous with such events as mixers, snow sculpture participation and a dorm formal in the spring. There is never a dull moment for those who live in one of Western’s newest dormitories.

Leading the four hundred and fifteen men of Henry this year were Robert DuBois, president; Jack Sizer, vice-president; Dick Merrill, second vice-president; Pat Cloney, recording secretary, and James Lauer, treasurer.

Confusion reigned for the men of Hoekje Hall the first few weeks of school this fall. Have you ever tried living in an unfinished dorm? This they did, though, and very bravely. Undoubtedly the biggest problem for these fellows was that of just getting settled and getting to know each other. Whatever the confusion at first, the men of Hoekje are now proud of one of Western's finest dormitories.

It wasn't long before the men of Hoekje became organized and began participating in all the campus activities. Leading the dormitory in participation were Harold Martin, president; John Schmid, vice-president; Larry Dodd, treasurer; Larry Gearhart, recording secretary; and Dan Harrison, corresponding secretary.
Well known for the fact that it is the only dorm on Western's campus which does not have eating facilities, except for a snack bar, Vandercook is one of the older dormitories. Housing approximately two hundred and ten men, it is one of the few dormitories located on the east campus.

Acting as president this year was Don Kammeraad; vice-president, Frank Salzieder; secretary, Boyd Pastoor; and treasurer, John Biggott.

Vandercook residents enjoy many activities throughout the year. Among the favorite activities are homecoming festivities, numerous smokers, and a semi-formal dance. Probably the most enjoyable of all activities, though, are the friendly gatherings in the snack bar.
Walwood Hall

Being one of the older dormitories on Western’s campus, Walwood Hall carries with it quite a history. Until recent years it was a women’s dormitory. The men reign now, however, and they enjoy their living as they inhabit the smallest residence hall on campus.

Leading the way for Walwood men were Kenneth Nakakura, president; and Larry Lindeman, vice-president.

A SPECIAL MEAL was enjoyed at Thanksgiving time.
Although their number is small, the men of Walwood keep busy throughout the year as they take part in such activities as a Christmas party, homecoming festivities, exchange dinners with Spindler and participation in many intramural sports. Being the smallest, Walwood is perhaps the friendliest dormitory on campus.

TIME FOR THAT wonderful moment of graduation.

We Look at Our Many Friends
Among SENIORS and UNDERCLASSMEN
SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS are: Mitzi Smith, treasurer; Keith Robertson, vice-president; Lynn Clapham, president; Sallyjo Becker, secretary; and Glenn Smith, representative.

Whether We Enter This New Phase Prepared to Teach, Enter Business, Serve Our Country, or any of the Other Many Fields of Opportunity Available; We can Always Look Back to the Days at Western. May Our Lives be so Led That Others Will Respect Us, and the School From Which We Have Graduated, Western Michigan University.

ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN
For pictures that are sharp and clear you need a clean, bright paper.

You've already seen the clarity and sparkle and appeal of the pictures in this book. In later years, as you thumb through the pages recalling friends and fun at Western, you will be glad your Brown & Gold staff made such a good selection of paper.

This is the fine 80 lb. Peacock Enamel made by ALLIED PAPER CORPORATION in its Kalamazoo mills. It was supplied by BERMINGHAM & PROSSER COMPANY, paper merchants.

Should your post-college work have anything to do with the graphic arts keep these two firms in mind.

Milk, in itself, is inherently good . . . but its very goodness makes it extremely sensitive to carelessness and indifference. Supreme goodness of milk demands extra care: born in the modern dairy laboratory, nurtured by the application of scientific methods to production, processing and packaging. Only extra care can instill in dairy products a full measure of health, well-being and peace of mind.
