Changes for Comparative Drama

Comparative Drama would like to thank and honor Eve Salisbury, who has devoted twelve years to editing Comparative Drama. The journal has flourished under her leadership. As of July 1, Professor Salisbury is moving on to new projects. She will stay on for a time as a consulting editor. Anthony Ellis, who has been an editor for Comparative Drama since 2005, will be joined by Elizabeth Bradburn. Professor Bradburn has been a member of Western Michigan University's Department of English faculty since 2004. We are excited to have her as the newest addition to our editorial staff.

We would also like to welcome several new members to our advisory board including Harry Elam, Jr., Erika Fischer-Lichte, Jorge Huerta, Toril Moi, Janelle Reinelt, Laurence Senelick, and Niall Slater. Our best wishes are with retiring board member Mikiko Ishii.
