$170,000 Mott grant given

The Evaluation Center in the College of Education has received a grant of $170,000 from the Charles Stewart Mott Foundation in Flint to evaluate the foundation's program, begun in 1979, to strengthen education in predominantly black colleges and universities.

The evaluation is designed to assist the foundation and black colleges and universities to assess and strengthen their efforts to improve educational opportunities for minority students.

Several areas of education will be under study, including leadership development, planning and evaluation, community education and experimental curriculum.

Continuing Ed offers computer courses

The world of microcomputers is available for exploration this summer through a series of courses being offered through the Division of Continuing Education.

Courses offered during August are "More Microcomputers for Adults: VISICALC" and "More Microcomputers for Adults: Word Processing." The cost of each course is $65 and each class will last four weeks.

To register, persons may call the Center for Adult Education at (616) 383-0793 or go to the office at A-116 Ellswood Hall. Office hours are 7:30 a.m. to 4:15 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Labor market orientation here today

About 200 high school juniors and seniors from Southwest Michigan are on campus today, participating in the third annual Labor Market Orientation. The Department of Consumer Resources and Technology (CRT) is hosting the program.

During the day students will compete in job interview situations and dressing for success. The competition is designed to help the students acquire life survival and employability skills.

The students also will participate in a scavenger hunt that will serve as a career exploration exercise.

University telephone directory updates due

The 1983-84 WMU Faculty/Staff/Student Telephone Directory is being prepared. The names, titles or classifications, campus addresses and telephone numbers of all WMU employees will be included. Please check the faculty/staff section of the current directory. If any of the information, home or office, needs to be updated, please use the form on the back of your paycheck envelope.

Certain options are available regarding the amount of home information that will be published in the directory. The options are:

1. Complete home information--spouse's name, street address, city and phone number. (No need to do anything if this is what you want and your records are up-to-date.)

2. No home information of any kind--Please forward this request to Switchboard/Information Center, Gert Peterson.

3. Omission of spouse's name only--Please change your University master file record by using the appropriate form on the back of your paycheck envelope.

IMPORTANT: Please include your social security number on all communications; it speeds up the processing of such requests. Any questions? Call Gert Peterson, Switchboard/Information Center, 3-1608.

'Nontraditional' orientation set

A special orientation for older and returning WMU students will be held from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Friday, Aug. 26, in 157 USC.

The program is for all new students 25 years or older, or anyone returning after a break in their education, including beginners, re-entry students, transfers, graduates and undergraduates. Students who have already registered for fall classes also are invited to attend.

The program is designed to help students brush up on academic skills, find child care, manage time between a job and school and adjust to a new lifestyle. Sponsored by the Orientation Office, registration for the program will begin at 8:45 a.m. The cost is $10, which includes refreshments, lunch and materials.

For more information call 383-0904.
FASHION MERCHANDISING ADVISORY COMMITTEE

This six-member advisory committee of local department store employees has been formed since May, in order to provide advice to the Department of Consumer Resources and Technology with recommendations for the fashion merchandising curriculum, which will continue to work in an advisory capacity for the course.

A book representing the first comprehensive account of Western historiography in half a century has been written by Ernst Breisach, chairman of the Department of History. Titled "Historiography: Ancient, Medieval and Modern," it represents the main lines of development of the discipline from its origins in Greek polemics to the present. The book is published by the University of Chicago Press.

Two European trips planned

With a travel group just having returned from Europe, the Alumni Association is planning two further ventures to far-away places.

Both trips are open to any friends of Western Michigan University, economically to interesting places with a congenial group of people, said Russell A. Strong, director of operations.

Spain and the Costa del Sol will be offered for either one week or two weeks, leaving Kalamazoo Oct. 22 and returning either Oct. 29 or Nov. 5.

"The group will fly from Chicago to Malaga, Spain, and will be headquartered in Benalmadena Costa," Strong said. "An awesomely planned, both day trips and overnight venture to Southern Spain will be offered, or perhaps only to soak up the warm sun of the Mediterranean."

Among places to be seen will be Granada, Cordoba, Jerez de la Frontera, Ronda, and Mijas. An optional day in Morocco will also be available.

The first three weeks in Western Germany is planned for early August 1984 as a fully escorted group will be taken to Oberammergau in Bavaria to see the 350th anniversary rendition of "The Passion Play."

Flying from Chicago to Amsterdam, the group will fly to Paris, will see the magnificent gardens of Louisburg, Madame Tussaud's castles at Nijmegen, Bonn, Munich, Hannover and Onabruck. Time will also be spent in Strasbourg and Colmar.

Further details about either trip may be obtained by contacting the alumni office or by calling 5-6100.
