Dierdre: A Soap Opera, for Singers, Dancers, Players, Electronic Sounds and Projected Images

James Schwall

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.wmich.edu/masters_theses

Part of the Fine Arts Commons, and the Theatre and Performance Studies Commons

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.wmich.edu/masters_theses/1018

This Masters Thesis-Open Access is brought to you for free and open access by the Graduate College at ScholarWorks at WMU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Master's Theses by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at WMU. For more information, please contact wmu-scholarworks@wmich.edu.
DIERDRE: A SOAP OPERA, FOR SINGERS, DANCERS, PLAYERS, ELECTRONIC SOUNDS AND PROJECTED IMAGES

by

James Schwall

A Thesis
Submitted to the Faculty of The Graduate College in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the Degree of Master of Music
School of Music

Western Michigan University
Kalamazoo, Michigan
April 1991
Dierdre: A Soap Opera is a chamber opera in one act, with dance, and takes about an hour to perform. There are six singing parts which may be performed by five singers. Two parts are for sopranos or mezzos, two for baritone, and one is designated tenor. All have fairly easy ranges. The piece also requires four percussionists and a pianist. Several interludes, called "breaks," are intended for modern dance. One of these breaks and the overture are for taped electronic music, realized by the composer. The libretto, also by the composer, involves the employees and regulars at a somewhat up-scale night club. The format is taken from a television soap opera. The plot advances during program "segments" which usually involve only the singers and piano. During "breaks," dancers perform with the percussion ensemble or with the taped music.
This work is respectfully dedicated to Ramon Zupko, without whom I may never have realized that, while anyone can string notes together when the muse hovers near by, a composer must learn to work alone.

Jim Schwall

March, 1991
INFORMATION TO USERS

This manuscript has been reproduced from the microfilm master. UMI films the text directly from the original or copy submitted. Thus, some thesis and dissertation copies are in typewriter face, while others may be from any type of computer printer.

The quality of this reproduction is dependent upon the quality of the copy submitted. Broken or indistinct print, colored or poor quality illustrations and photographs, print bleedthrough, substandard margins, and improper alignment can adversely affect reproduction.

In the unlikely event that the author did not send UMI a complete manuscript and there are missing pages, these will be noted. Also, if unauthorized copyright material had to be removed, a note will indicate the deletion.

Oversize materials (e.g., maps, drawings, charts) are reproduced by sectioning the original, beginning at the upper left-hand corner and continuing from left to right in equal sections with small overlaps. Each original is also photographed in one exposure and is included in reduced form at the back of the book.

Photographs included in the original manuscript have been reproduced xerographically in this copy. Higher quality 6" x 9" black and white photographic prints are available for any photographs or illustrations appearing in this copy for an additional charge. Contact UMI directly to order.
Dierdre: A soap opera, for singers, dancers, players, electronic sounds and projected images. [Original opera]

Schwall, James, M.M.
Western Michigan University, 1991

Copyright ©1991 by Schwall, James. All rights reserved.
NOTE TO USERS

THE ORIGINAL DOCUMENT RECEIVED BY U.M.I. CONTAINED PAGES WITH SLANTED AND POOR PRINT. PAGES WERE FILMED AS RECEIVED.

THIS REPRODUCTION IS THE BEST AVAILABLE COPY.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>TABLE OF CONTENTS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>SCENARIO ...........</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>NOTES TO THE PERFORMERS</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>OVERTURE .............</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SEGMENT I .............</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BREAK I ...............</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SEGMENT II ............</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BREAK II ..............</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SEGMENT III ...........</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BREAK III .............</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SEGMENT IV ............</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BREAK IV ...............</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SEGMENT V .............</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BREAK V ...............</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>TERMINAL SEGMENT .....</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Virtually all of the action of Dierdre: A Soap Opera takes place inside a somewhat up-scale night club called "Storyville" which features jazz and probably has a long list of imported beers and wines. The characters include Al, a baritone, the owner of the club and, at forty-something, the oldest member of the ensemble. His employees include his house pianist and bar-room philosopher Clay, a tenor, who should be almost Al’s age. Another employee, Dawn, a soprano or mezzo, the youngest member of the cast, is a part-time bartender while attending college. Regular customers include television news anchor-woman Kelley Ackerman, also a soprano or mezzo, who’s about Clay’s age and, in spite of her considerable experience, expects to be replaced at any time by some fresh-faced college communications major. Gavin VanAcker and his partner in an advertising agency, Walsh, can both be played by the same singer, a baritone. Gavin is a somewhat pathetic character, and Walsh is the story’s self-styled ladies’ man. Gavin’s wife, Dierdre, never appears.

A suggested stage set-up would have the piano stage-right and fairly far down-stage so the area designated as “back bar” can consist of the area near the piano. Characters in scenes in this area could lean on and stand around the piano, and Clay might even sit on the edge of the piano bench. The percussion ensemble may be arranged in a semi-circle from the piano to stage left. Down-stage center are two bar segments, referred to as “front bar” and “middle bar,” with the front bar being the section toward stage left. If the down-stage ends of these segments almost meet and they angle toward the rear corners, with the customer side facing the audience, a character behind the bar in one scene can simply turn around to be in the other area. The scene in front of Gavin's house and Kelley's telephone call to Clay can be played down-stage, stage-left. For the "Title Music" singers can be placed anywhere that is convenient. Changes of scene are suggested by slides projected behind the singers and players, and dance movements take place down-stage of everything.

The format is taken from a television soap opera. The plot advances during program "segments." With the exception of the "Title Music," these involve only the singers and piano. During "breaks," which, in T. V. jargon include commercials, newsbreaks, station breaks, and all other non-program material, dancers perform with the percussion ensemble, except in Break III, which uses taped electronic music. The Title Music, which happens twice, involves all live performers. There is also an overture, which consists of taped electronic music, and during which performers find their places and house lights slowly fade to black as the first slide comes up behind the stage.

Dierdre is intended to be seamless. Segments always end with held tones in the piano, and percussion breaks always end with ringing metalophones. The overture ends, and Break III begins and ends, with a wind-like sound, which fades in and out. This wind-sound is also used after the last sound dies out as the lights fade to black and the last slide comes up. The piece ends in silence and darkness, except for the final slide.
The entire piece takes about an hour to perform. The following is a scene-by-scene listing of performers involved with approximate timings:

Overture (terminal break): taped electronic sounds. (4+ minutes)

Segment I, Scene 1: Dawn, Walsh, piano; middle bar.
- Scene 2: Al, Kelley, piano; front bar.
- Title Music: All singers, dancers, piano, percussion. (5 min.)

Break I: Dancers, percussion. (6 1/2 min.)

Segment II, Scene 1: Dawn, Walsh, piano; middle bar.
- Scene 2: Dawn, piano, then Clay; middle bar.
- Scene 3: Al, Kelley, piano; front bar.
- Scene 4: Dawn, Clay, Al, piano, then Kelley; front bar. (5 min.)

Break II: dancers, percussion. (1 min.)

Segment III, Scene 1: Kelley, Gavin, piano; in front of Gavin’s house (stage left).
- Scene 2: Clay, Al, piano; back bar.
- Scene 3: Dawn, then Kelley, piano; middle bar. (6 min.)

Break III: Dancers, taped music. (5+ min.)

Segment IV, Scene 1: Kelley, Clay, piano; middle bar.
- Scene 2: Dawn, Al, piano; front bar.
- Scene 3: Clay, piano, then Gavin; back bar. (8 min.)

Break IV: dancers, percussion. (1 min.)

Segment V, Scene 1: Kelley Clay, piano; Kelley stage left, Clay middle bar.
- Scene 2: Dawn, Al, piano; front bar.
- Scene 3: Clay, Gavin, piano, then Dawn; back bar. (3 min.)

Break V: Dancers, percussion. (5 1/2 min.)
Terminal Segment, Terminal Scene: Clay, Al, piano; front bar.

- Title Music: All singers, dancers, piano, percussion. (2 min.)
NOTES TO THE PERFORMERS

To all performers:

Dierdre is intended to be a single movement. All “segments” and “breaks” should continue attacca.

To the pianist:

All accidentals apply throughout the measure in which they occur, but only in the octave in which they are written. “P” indicates damper pedal, “S” indicates sostenuto pedal, and a wavy line means a partial or flutter pedal.

To the singers:

Notes with “X” heads should have only an approximate pitch, as in “sprechgesang.” Stems without heads indicate words which should be spoken, but strictly within the notated rhythms. In all sung parts, delivery of the words is paramount. Spoken parts should be done in a sing-song manner; the difference between singing and speaking should not be absolute. Pronunciation should be colloquial. Depending on the number of syllables set, Dierdre is pronounced either “dee-air-druh” or “deer-druh.”
To the percussionists:

Several special signs are used for methods of playing suspended cymbals and tam-tam. An arrow pointed down calls for the instrument to be scraped outward from the center with a triangle beater or other metal object. A triangle above the note means strike it on the edge from the side, with the stick held perpendicular to the instrument. A “Y” means to strike with a wire brush, and an upside-down “U” indicates to hit the cymbal on the bell.

The four percussionists require the following equipment:

Percussion I - chimes (tubular bells), bells (orchestra bells), suspended cymbal, timbales (2), bass drum, and mouth siren. Strikers should include wooden sticks, yarn, felt, and hard rubber mallets, brushes, metal hammer, hard rubber hammer, metal beaters (for bells), bass drum beater, and a bow.

Percussion II - xylophone, small triangle, suspended cymbal, hi-hat, woodblock, and snare drum. Strikers should include wooden sticks, yarn and hard rubber mallets, brushes, and triangle beater.

Percussion III - concert marimba, triangle, tom-toms (2), tam-tam, and police whistle. Strikers should include hard and soft yarn mallets, hard and soft rubber mallets, brushes, and a bow.

Percussion IV - 23”, 26”, and 29” timpani, suspended cymbal, riveted suspended cymbal, and bird whistle. Strikers should include a variety of felt and yarn mallets, wooden sticks, and brushes.
The overture consists of taped electronic sounds. From first audibility to the point at which movement has faded to a soft “wind” sound, duration is approximately four minutes. During this time the performers should find their places as the house lights very slowly fade to black and the first slide, the title slide containing the word “Dierdre,” comes up on the screen behind the ensemble.
Segment I

Scene I

(Middle Bar)

* Begin when motion in taped overture stops and fades to wind noise.
My name is Dawn, I study at the university. When I've had every course they teach I'll get a Ph.D.
I'm Walsh, and I'm a ladies man; I kiss 'em, they stay kissed if there's a girl I haven't had, I put her on my list

So, baby, when are you goin' out with

Segment 1, Scene 1 - 3
DAWN

Gee, I'm awfully busy.

WALSH

Well, you seem to have time to me?

This is my job. I serve the beer and hang around here.
wine and make your dai—gu—ris, Mister

Hey, call me Walsh. What do you do when you—get done?

Segment 1, Scene 1–5
study

That's going to have to wait— for now.

What about fun?

WALSH

Come on, Baby, I know how to take care of little girls— like you. I'll show you things you never knew existed. I know how— to (DAWN) (to audience)

Boy, is this guy a sleaze or what? I really please.

I don't have the time.

You're making a big mistake. I'm the best

Segment 1, Scene 1 - 7
I'll keep that in mind.

you're gonna find.

There's

(WALSH)

no sense running from me, you can't run that fast.

(atacca)
Segment I - Scene 1

 Rit.

\( \text{d=108} \)

AL

I am the friendly bartender, you can call me Al.

Take their keys, then drive them home, I'm everybody's pal.
KELLEY

name is Kelley Ackerman, you see me on T.V. If anything should happen here, you'll get the news from me.

Segment I, Scene 2-2
Fancy meeting you here.

Guess I just love my

There's never anything new here. Too work. What's new?

bad I can't go on the air and talk about local adultery.

Yeah, too

So, how's Dierdre

bad.
Segment I - Title Music

accel - - - - - - - - - -

DAVAN

KELLEY

CLAY

AI

WALSH

marimba - soft mallets

timpani

accel - - - - - - - - - - d = 80
Memories are forever. They can't be taken away.

Memories are forever. They can't be taken away.

Memories are forever. They can't be taken away.

Segment I, Title Music - 2.
You can't change anything if it happened yesterday. Still there's
You can't change anything if it happened yesterday. Still there's
You can't change anything if it happened yesterday. Still there's

(prof) chimes symbol

small triangle-beater-let ring cymbol-scrape with triangle beater-let ring

pp

Segment I, Title Music-3
always to-morrow, there's al-ways to-mor-row, ppp

always to-morrow, there's al-ways to-mor-row, ppp

always to-morrow, there's al-ways to-mor-row, ppp

(ped)
chimes

triangle

(ped)

(attacca)

Segment I, Title Music - I
Bass drum-mallet

Shape on xylophone

Marimba

Timpani-mallets

Cymbal-let ring throughout (triangle mallet)

Mallets
tom on ring with handles
Break I - 10
Segment II

(Scene 1)

WALSH (M. Bar)

Well, I gotta run. I got a chump waitin' to be fleeced. You should think about what I said, and think about this too: I can make it worth your while.

I think you offered me money.

What did I just say?

Bright girl. While you're thinking, think about this: to have the money is to wield the ax.

Segment II Scene 2
(Middle Bar)

CLAY
I'm Clay, and I'm a piano man with a gift for gab. Al

DAWN
(spoken) Hi, Clay.

CLAY
I don't pay me much, but he forgets about my tab
Hello ma jolie fleur.

Little tête-à-tête with brother Walsh, eh?

He scares me.

Aw, don't fret about Walsh. I think his mother was

Segment II, Scene 2-2
No tempo

Frightened by a human being. His buddy Gavin's not too bad, though.

In tempo

I think he's still a hippy at heart. All trust.

No tempo

He trusts a snake like Walsh to be his partner.

Segment II: Scene 2-3
and he picked Miss Upwardly Mobile for a wife.

Go Piggee.

What are those songs you play sometimes in the afternoon?

Just little things of mine.
Why don't you play them at night?

(Nah, people just like what's familiar.

That's sposed to be a secret.

Say, I hear you came in-to some dough.

Segment II - Scene 2-5
"Then you picked the wrong financial advisor."

"I suppose you'll be...

"No, I think I'll keep working."

"I like it here; I'd...

"What for?"

"Segment II: Scene 2-6"
Segment II - Scene 3

(Ken arcs Bar)

KELLEY: So, how's Dierdre?

AL: [sings] So, how's Dierdre?
Well, I have, she told me Tricia was a fool to leave a haven't seen her lately.

...stud like you. She thinks you're quite the lover.
(spoken, quietly)

Is that so. I think she talks too much.

Segment II - Scene 3 - 2.
true, then. You're sleeping with Di-\-er-\-a\-r\-e.

I didn't know she was married.

she'd never been in here before, Trish had just left me, and I was lonely.

Segment II: Scene 3-3
but in the morning she told me, and I've never been with her a-

Segment II: Scene 3-4
Segment II Scene 4

Dawn

Boy, that was a tough one. I'm so tired and I've still got to

Clay

If one more tur—key

Al

One--more Sat-- write a paper this weekend. I don't suppose either of you are ex--pert-- asks for my way. I'm gonna shoot--him; to--day night. One more-- Sat--to--day-- on Thomas Hardy's novels? No, I guess not.

I really am. I mean— it.

KELLEY (entering)
(spoken) (sung without tempo)
Hey, did you guys catch my ten o'clock?

Segment II. Scene 4-2
(DAWN)

No, we were all really busy right up until midnight.

(KELLEY)

Then you don't know about it?

Know about what?

Uh-uh.

Noope.
(KELLEY)

The story of the year, that's what. Dierdre Van Asperen has disappeared.

(DAWN)

She didn't come home last night.

What do you mean, disappeared?

How's that?

What?
60-80

Vin went to the police this morning. They found her briefcase by her (place)

(Made)

Mercedes in the parking lot by her office. They think she's been abducted.

\textit{Maybe worse.}

(\textit{let ring till sound dies})

Segment II - Scene 4-5
Break II

Players I, II, and IV—wooden sticks on everything; let all sounds ring

\( d = 75 \)

\begin{align*}
\text{crystal} & \quad \text{turtle muffled stroke bass drum near rim} \\
\text{p} & \quad \text{chimes} \\
\text{marimba—rubber mallets} & \quad \text{tambourine—rubber mallets} \\
\text{p} & \quad \text{strike timpani at center} \\
\text{p} & \\ \end{align*} Segment III

(Stage-Left)

J. L. C. St. Jean

KELLEY (Spoken to audience) This is the home of Gavin and Diordre VanAsperen. Just four days ago Diordre mysteriously disappeared from the parking lot of her downtown office building. As of today, police have virtually no clues as to what may have happened. Gavin VanAsperen, who hasn't spoken to the press since the disappearance, has asked us to allow him to tape a message to his wife, in the hope that she, or anyone having information, will see the broadcast. (Turning)

Mr. VanAsperen?
GAVIN

I just want her back. I'm her husband. We've been married for eleven years. Dee has a mother, father, family. We all love her very

Segment III - Scene 1-2
I'd like to say this to Dierdre: (sniff) I love you, DeeDee. (cries)
Your flowers are blooming.

(soft) DeeDee, I know you're strong. I know you can survive.

Segment III: Scene 1-3
KELLEY (spoken to audience)

Anyone having information is asked to call (insert name of local police department.) This is Kelley Ackerman for Q-six news.

Gavin, I know how lonely you must be. If there's

Segment III - Scene 1-4
(putting hand on his arm) (to audience, when Gavin doesn't respond) anything I can do to help... anything...

Oh well...

Segment III - Scene 2

(Back Bar) (as previously) left hand staccato throughout this scene

CLAY

You got that right, Buddy.

AL

Pretty weird about Dierdre, huh? Think they'll...
Wherever they find her credit cards.

Was your

Oh, you know about that, huh?

time with her that bad?

Segment III - Scene 2 - 2
Why didn't you

Couldn't miss it; you left by the front door.

Tell me she was married!

Not my business, pal.

Segment III - Scene 2-3
(CLAY)

I heard something interesting about Dawn the other day. Seems she came...

(AL)

Uh-huh. I dunno.

So why do you suppose she keeps working here?

I dunno.
Yeah, right. She's buried in something to do at school.

something to do.

She's here because of you, Buddy.

If you

You're nuts.

Segment III - Scene 2 5
Open your eyes, you see things, old enough to be her father.

Come on, I'm old enough to be her father.

How I know you'd say that? I'll tell you what else I see;

You look at her the same way she looks at you.
Hey, she's just a kid. She doesn't need me screwing up her life.

Don't you ask her? Maybe she should find someone younger.

She doesn't know...

Segment III - Scene 2 - 7
Segment III  Scene 3

DAWN  Hi, Kelley. Any news on Dierdre?

KELLEY
No, but it's a real circus downtown.

Friends are starting candlelight vigils every night in Dierdre's parking lot.

The county prosecutor's treating it as a homicide.

Segment III: Scene 3-2
The family hired a bunch of psychics who are talking about caves and running water.

So while the boy scouts are scouring riverbanks, the cops are searching.

(DAWN)

(KELLEY) Do you think it was someone she knew? I don't think downtown basements.
(KELLEY)

anything yet, except it's nice having a real story to cover. Gavin's in the clear. They're checking out her clients now. Thanks.

(DAWN)

Here's your drink.

(KELLEY)

Segment III. Scene 3-4
Kelley: did you ever go out with Walsh?

Not on your life, Honey. I may be...

(KELLEY)

lonely...

...but I'm not stupid.

(attacca)

Segment III - Scene 3
BREAK III

Break III is for dancers and taped electronic sounds. The taped music begins and ends with a quiet “wind” sound, which is intended to overlap the preceding and following “segments.” Duration of the piece, not including this sound, is about five minutes.
Segment IV

Scene I
(Middle Bar)

KEELER

J = 120

Hi, sailor.

CLAY

Little

(attack*)

girls shouldn't say things like that if they don't want to get in trouble.

*Begin when mute in taped interlude stops and fades to “wind” noise.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.
what do you think about Di-er-doe!

I think a cadre of terrorists got her; that's the only way she'd a-band-n-h- her Benz.

Jeez, you really are cynical.

Segment III - Scene 1-2
Get off it; you were born this way.

No, just a realist. I suppose you're idealism.

And work in T. V.? No way. You have to be either a cynic, or an else-in-carnate.

Segment II - Scene 1-3
holly.

I thought you'd never ask.

Boo you a drink!

(HELLEY)

Are you seeing any body these days?

(KAY)
No.

No either.

(ether)

What are we waiting for?

What are we waiting for?

Segment III Scene 1-5
(They start to leave together ---- then KELLEY pulls up.) It may be just for the moment. (They start to leave again -- CLAY pulls up.)
It may be

It may be can't look at hob-nails and I can't stand fences.

just for the mo---ment, but the mo---ment sounds fine to just for the mo---ment, but the mo---ment sounds fine to

Segment II, Scene 1-7
Segment IV - Scene 2

rit... d=108 (Frent Bar)

DAWN

AL

I hear you've come into some money.
So much for secrets in this place.

I suppose now you'll be going to Maybe. I haven't made up my mind.

School full time? That's too bad for

Segment IV, Scene 2-2
Who says I'm quitting?
me. You're a lot of help. Why would you keep working here?
I might have reasons. Maybe it's fun.
if you didn't have to!

Segment II, Scene 2-3
(spoken) Dammit, Dawn, it's not fun. Listen, don't worry about Storyville. We'll manage without you.

(softly) You might not have to.

Clay thinks you've got a legato.
Is that what he said, a crush?

(spoken) crush on me.

No, he said... Look.

I don't care. No you're not.

I'm too old. I'm too jaded. I'm used

Segment III, Scene 2-5
I don't need a warranty; just tell me you don't want me.

merchandise.

I'm too young. I'm too naive.

That would be a lie. I don't care. No, you're

Segment IV, Scene 2–6
I'm untried - merchandise.

'Long as there's a warranty. Don't Stop before I cry. The only tell me you really want me. The only

Segment II, Scene 2 - 7
The thing that matters here is you and me.

and that I love you with all my heart.

Segment IV: Scene 3

\( f = 120 \) (Back Bar)
(As GAVIN enters) Hey, Sport, how ya holdin' up?

GAVIN

What's with the past guess.

How well did you know BeeBee?
I mean how well do you? Like, did you know she kept a diary?

(CAVIN)

(CLAY just chugs.) I found it last night. I thought there might be a clue, so I started reading from the back.

four months back I found your name.

slept with my wife.

I didn't know she was married. I'd never been in here be-
I had just moved here and I was lonely.

But in the morning she told me, and I've never been with her an-gain.

(Hold pedal 'til percussion begins.)

Segment II, Scene 3-5

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.
Break IV

Player: II - cymbal roll with wire brush, woodblock with wooden mallets. Dynamics are:

\[d = \frac{90}{\mu}\]

Instructions:

- Symbol: wire brush, woodblock is \(p\) throughout.

\[
\begin{array}{c}
\text{mallets} \\
\text{brush} \\
\text{mallet}
\end{array}
\]

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.
Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.
Scene 1
(Clay Middle Bar - Kelle Stage-Left)

Hi, it's Storyville.

Flash: hold the presses. Dierdre Van Asperen is (see-air-drink)

What's up?
(KELLEY)

back from the land of speculation. She just called from Las Vegas.

(KELLEY)

Apparently she's had amnesia for the last month and just got her memory back. Gotta go. Watch me at

(KELLEY)

(CLAY)

Yeah, sure.
Only if it includes breakfast.

You bet. Dinner later?

You're on.

(Clay)

rii... tempo (d:=108)

Segment V, Scene 1-3
Segment V - Scene 2

(Dawn Bar)

Dawn:
Did you hear yet?

Al:
How awful, to Dernere? Yeah, Kelly called Clay.

Al:
Get hit on the head and not know who you are or where you live.

Dawn:
Yeah, I guess that
You don’t believe it, do you?

would be pretty bad.

I have no reason to believe or disbelieve.

Kelley

I'll bet the press will be horrible.

Segment IV, Scene 2-2
Only cause she's a woman. will be fair.

What's this, our first

I don't know yet; we'll see spot?

Segment 5 – Scene 3

(Back Bar)
CLAY
Hey, Sport, looks like you get your wife back. Are you

GAVIN
Uh-huh.

(to audience)
numb or just stoned?

Oh, oh.

Remember that diary? I read it all, I couldn't stop. You weren't the only one; there were others,

Segment II, Scene 3 - 2

Oh jeez. lots of others, even Walsh.

Segment II, Scene 3
(GAVIN)

night I had the vasectomy she insisted on she was with him.

I guess you never really know anyone; just the little piece they choose to show you. I don't know what to do; take her back; leave her;

Segment 7, Scene 3-4
(CLAY)

Well that never works. Sounds like you'd never maybe try to get even.

(CAVIN)

catch up anyway. Nothing. Well, you've got to tell her you know what?

Segment V, Scene 3-5
(CLAY)

Then decide if it's worth working out.

(DAWN
(entering)

Clay, I can't wait for

(GAVIN)

At close out; I really need to get home and study

I'm just...
Segment II, Scene 3
Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.
SUMMER

center

edge

center

SUMMER SUMMER

center

edge

at center, move to edge.

PFFF PP

SUMMER SUMMER

center

edge

PFFF

SUMMER SUMMER

center

edge

so

Break T = 7
(attached)

Terminal Segment

(Front Bar)

CLAY

(entering)

AL

\[ \text{left hand staccato this scene} \]

I don't want a

I'm not sure I want to serve you before noon.
drink, but maybe you should have one. Buddy, something's happened. Kelley just got a call. Dawn's at the hospital.
She was raped last night. (sotto voce)
Oh God, no. What...
Is she hurt bad?

Kelley said it's not bad physically.
God-damn

Terminal Segment 3
No, hang on, not Gavin. He's too confused to hurt anybody. Apparently they stopped off at Walach's on the way home. For some reason, Gavin left her there. Walach roped her.
Final Title Music

#0 DAWN

#4 KELLEY

#4 CLAY

#2 AL

WALSHGAVIN

\( \text{marimba - soft mallets} \)

\( \text{timpani} \)

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.
Memories are for- e-ver, they can't be taken away.
Memories are for- e-ver, they can't be taken away.
Memories are for- e-ver, they can't be taken away.

Final Title Music - 2
You can't change anything if it happened yesterday. Still there's
You can't change anything if it happened yesterday. Still there's
You can't change anything if it happened yesterday. Still there's

PEAL

chimes
cymbal
small triangle beater let ring

Final Title Music 3
always tomorrow — There's always tomorrow.

always tomorrow — there's always tomorrow

Hold pedal 'til all sound dies and lights fade to black