SUMMER IDYLL--Catherine Deschaine, Kalamazoo junior, who is a Fine Arts major, represents the waning days of summer on campus. The summer session ends with commencement on Aug. 21 at 6 p.m. in Waldo Stadium (Read Fieldhouse in case of inclement weather). Caps and gowns for graduates will be distributed from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. today and 1 to 5 p.m. Aug. 21 in the basement of East Hall. The deadline for picking up academic regalia is 5 p.m. commencement day, according to George S. Dalman, Public Safety. Snap-on white collars will be issued to all women who are getting bachelor's degrees. Candidates for master's, specialist and doctoral degrees are required to wear hoods. All caps, gowns and hoods should be returned to the Women's Gym following commencement. Tassels may be kept by the degree recipients. (Western News photo)

'State of University' address is Sept. 29

President John T. Bernhard will give his annual 'State of the University' address at 4 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 29, in Shaw Theatre. Graduating senior leaves impressive record as student, scholar and instructor

Christopher T. Trimer, a Livonia senior, will leave an impressive record at the University when he graduates Aug. 21.

According to Ronald L. Sackett, transportation technology, Trimer will be the first student in a decade and the third in the history of WMU to be a certified air-transport pilot upon graduation.

As an air-transport pilot, Trimer has logged more than 1,600 hours in the air, compared to the 250 to 300 hours of the typical flight-technology student. He earned his hours by serving as a Sky Broncos flight instructor, an intern in flight instruction in the Department of Transportation Technology, and as a transportation pilot for U.S. Army and attend Military Intelligence School.

Lloyd reappointed as PTA project chairman

The Michigan Congress of Parents, Teachers and Students has reappointed Bruce Lloyd, education and professional development, to the chairmanship of Project R.I.S.E. (Reading Improvement Services Everywhere). The two major charges of the program are (1) training reading helpers who go into classrooms to work with children needing reading assistance, and (2) to answer questions about reading. Since first taking over the position in 1978, Lloyd has developed a syllabus of learning skills and teaching procedures to be used by teaching assistants, and conducted a series of workshops at PTA headquarters in Lansing. Participants learn to make reading aids that can be used in the classroom with underachievers.

Lloyd is currently writing a reading manual to be called "R.I.S.E., The Michigan Plan."

Thresomes will captain 1981-82 hockey team

Seniors Ross Fitzpatrick, Ralph Murphy and Jim Olson have been selected to captain the hockey team for the 1981-82 season.

The captain's role is new only to Fitzpatrick, from Pontiac, who replaces the All-AmericanCURRENT-BROTHERS. Fitzpatrick, an All-American candidate, has led the Broncos in scoring the past two seasons from his left wing position, including a school record 71 points a year ago. An All-Central Collegiate Hockey Association first team forward and team "most valuable" selection a year ago, Fitzpatrick is second on WMU's all-time scoring list with 174 points.

Murphy, from Oshawa, Ont., was a team alternate captain as a sophomore. He'll be the senior member of the defensive corps. Murphy was the team's "most valuable defense- man" as a freshman and sophomore.

Olson, a 6-foot, 175-pounder from Paul, Minn., will be a team alternate captain for a third season.
