Campus Briefs

The oral examination of Brian L. Garman, a WMU faculty member for doctor of philosophy will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday, April 21, in Kalamazoo's Cathedral of Christ the King, 2600 Vine Ave. The invocation and benediction. Music will feature the Wind Forest Recorder Consort, The Canadian Opera Company, Friday, April 23, in Kalamazoo's Fieldhouse here on the WMU campus. Nona Mason, soprano; and members of the Wind Forest Recorder Consort. A WMU faculty was 'one of three in-"dustrial scientists recently honored by the American Chemical Society's Divisional Board of the Mexican National Institute of Culture in Mexico City, Mexico. Brian L. Garman, professor and chairman of the Western's psychology department, was awarded an honorary Doctor of Science degree in special ceremonies. Also recognized were: Dr. Alfonso Escobar Izquierdo, University of Mexico professor of neurology and director of the National Neurological Institute; and Dr. Hiroaki Jan, director of the Institute of Neurology and Experimental Medicine of the Academy of Sciences, Warsaw, Poland. Gault has just returned from a sabbatical leave to Mexico City, where he has been conducting research on motivation, emotion and the Institute of Biomedical Research. Michael Zimmerman, cultural attache from the United States Embassy in Mexico City, was present at the ceremony honoring Gault. (WESTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY)

Juvenile Court Training Seminar Here Next Week

The study of individual counseling techniques and the third annual Juvenile Court Training Program seminar to be held from Monday-Friday, April 15-19, at the University Student Center and Ellsworth Hall. Entitled "Basic Treatment and Counseling Techniques for Caseworkers," the program will be sponsored by the Michigan Supreme Court, Office of the State Court Administrator (SCA), in cooperation with the WMU's College of Education, counseling and personnel department, and the Division of Continuing Education. It is supported by a grant from the Juvenile Service Training Council.

The seminar will include instructional sessions emphasizing skill development in the various stages of the counseling relationship. The 40 hours of instruction will be divided equally between content instruction related to the topic and small group work designed to assist the participants to translate concepts into behavior.

Dr. Robert Bata, professor of counseling and personnel at WMU, is the seminar consultant. He will address the session at 9 a.m. Thursday on "Goal Setting and Beyond," and evaluate the seminar sessions at 1:30 p.m. Friday. In addition, Dr. William Martinson, head, WMU counseling and personnel department, will speak at the session at 9 a.m. Tuesday on "Clarifying the Counseling Relationship."

Other speakers are: Boyd C. Baird, associate professor of counseling and guidance, Eastern Michigan University, and also president, Michigan Personnel Administrators Association; Dr. Robert Bata, professor of counseling and personnel at WMU; and Dr. William Martinson, head, WMU counseling and personnel department, will speak at the session at 9 a.m. Tuesday on "Clarifying the Counseling Relationship."

More than 1000 degrees will be conferred at WMU's commencement exercises at 2 p.m. Saturday, April 24, in Read Fieldhouse here on the WMU campus. Dr. Myron L. Coulter, WMU vice president for administration who will assume the presidency of Idaho State University this summer, will address the graduating class.

The Society for Old Music has been under the direction of David son since it was founded in 1966. During the past 10 years it has produced a wide variety of medieval, Renaissance and Baroque music, including early music-drama, madrigals, motets, masses and secular songs.

Warn Students About Theft

University police are again reminding WMU students that they especially need to protect their property at the beginning and ending of semesters because of the increased activity and numbers of visitors at those times.

"Everything a student brings to college is very portable," observed Capt. John Cease, commander of the uniform division. "TV sets, typewriters, record players and bikes are especially vulnerable at the beginning and ending of semesters and during vacation breaks," he said.

Cease stressed that one of the most critical times is when a student is loading or unloading personal items of value into or from an automobile. "Many reported thefts are a result of a student leaving items unattended for only a matter of a few minutes," he stated. "People are leaving the residence hall room and/or motor vehicle unlocked and unattended between classes, sporting events, classes and work and staff to report all crimes and suspicious activities immediately.

Western's winter semester ends Saturday, April 24. Spring session classes begin Monday, May 3. "We're reactionary by nature; we react to a citizen's request for service," Cease explained. "There seems to be a reluctance to report suspicious activity; people prefer to deal with crime unless the victim is a close friend or themselves."

"We can't overemphasize the importance of each individual's role in crime prevention," he added. "We need everyone's help; fighting crime effectively requires a team effort."

Cease listed all WMU students, faculty and staff to be alert and observe suspicious persons and activities and to call the University Police if they see or hear anything out of the ordinary. "When in doubt, don't be afraid to call," he counseled. "The safety of everyone else is one of others is nothing to be apathetic about."

When calling the police, he urges perchased to be a citizen's handbook to describe the situation and the type of help needed. WMU's police telephone number is 382-1089.

Coulter To Give Commencement Talk April 24

More than 5000 degrees will be conferred at WMU's commencement exercises at 2 p.m. Saturday, April 24, in Read Fieldhouse here on the WMU campus. Dr. Myron L. Coulter, WMU vice president for administration who will assume the presidency of Idaho State University this summer, will address the graduating class.

WMU President John T. Bernhard will confer 16 doctoral degrees, 443 master's degrees, 16 certificate degrees, 7 associate degrees and 2 baccalaureate degrees. Three honorary doctorates also will be awarded as was announced last week.

Rev. James E. Kidney, pastor, Kalamazoo Missionary Church, will give the invocation and benediction. The service will be provided by the University Symphonic Band, conducted by Carl Bjergaard, associate professor of music.

Old Music Society Meets

The Society for Old Music, directed by Dr. Audrey Davidson, WMU assistant professor of music, will present a program of early music and drama at 8 p.m. Monday, April 12, in the University Auditorium. The program will feature a variety of Baroque, Renaissance and Medieval music, including madrigals, motets, masses and secular songs.

"We can't overemphasize the importance of each individual's role in crime prevention," he added. "We need everyone's help; fighting crime effectively requires a team effort."

Cease listed all WMU students, faculty and staff to be alert and observe suspicious persons and activities and to call the University Police if they see or hear anything out of the ordinary. "When in doubt, don't be afraid to call," he counseled. "The safety of everyone else is one of others is nothing to be apathetic about."

When calling the police, he urges perchased to be a citizen's handbook to describe the situation and the type of help needed. WMU's police telephone number is 382-1089.

Coulter To Give Commencement Talk April 24

More than 5000 degrees will be conferred at WMU's commencement exercises at 2 p.m. Saturday, April 24, in Read Fieldhouse here on the WMU campus. Dr. Myron L. Coulter, WMU vice president for administration who will assume the presidency of Idaho State University this summer, will address the graduating class.

WMU President John T. Bernhard will confer 16 doctoral degrees, 443 master's degrees, 16 certificate degrees, 7 associate degrees and 2 baccalaureate degrees. Three honorary doctorates also will be awarded as was announced last week.

Rev. James E. Kidney, pastor, Kalamazoo Missionary Church, will give the invocation and benediction. The service will be provided by the University Symphonic Band, conducted by Carl Bjergaard, associate professor of music.
WMU’s Bicentennial Vaudeville Show Wagon Goes on the Road

The familiar expression, “Let’s get the show on the road!” will become a reality for Western Michigan University students this summer. The “show” in this case will be the WMU Bicentennial Vaudeville Show Wagon, which will tour Michigan for 45 days from June-August, presented by the WMU Division of Continuing Education and chaired by Dr. Leo C. Stine, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. It is termed a “street” entertainment, songs, dances, skits, music, magic and other amazing acts and feats. The show wagon is designed to fit into the Bicentennial celebration festivities that will visit.

According to Dr. Vern Stillwell, assistant professor of theatre at WMU, “The music is typical of the favorites of our grandparents and great-grandparents. The comedy routines have been handed down for generations yet people laugh today as their forebears did when they see the country bumpkin get the better of the city slicker.” Stillwell and his wife, Lydia, assistant professor of theatre at WMU, are directing the show wagon.

Much of the authentic flavor of the show wagon will come as a result of expertise supplied by Harold Rosier and his wife, Waunetta, of Jackson. They operate Michigan’s last remaining touring tent theatre. Their troupe is called “Rosier Players,” as retirement beckons: “The music is typical of the favorites of our grandparents and great-grandparents. The comedy routines have been handed down for generations yet people laugh today as their forebears did when they see the country bumpkin get the better of the city slicker.” Stillwell and his wife, Lydia, assistant professor of theatre at WMU, are directing the show wagon.

A Center for Continuing Legal Education has been established here at WMU with at least 600 American Bar Association continuing education credits available. The credits for the single business law and new probate laws—expected to be offered by the end of May—will be available June 1.

Professor of education. Standing from left are: Dr. Herbert H. Hannan, emeritus professor of mathematics; Dr. Bernhard; Dr. Stephen K. Kukolich, emeritus professor of paper science and engineering; Leonard German, emeritus dean of academic services; Emil J. Sokolowski, emeritus professor of marketing; Dr. Betty Taylor, emeritus professor of home economics; and Dr. Charles Van Riper, emeritus distinguished University professor of speech pathology and audiology.

WMU Newpho

Open Legal Education Center

A Center for Continuing Legal Education has been established here at WMU with at least 600 American Bar Association continuing education credits available. The credits will be listed in the next edition of the National Bar Association Continuing Education Credit Handbook. The credits for the single business law and new probate laws—expected to be offered by the end of May—will be available June 1.

Professor of education. Standing from left are: Dr. Herbert H. Hannan, emeritus professor of mathematics; Dr. Bernhard; Dr. Stephen K. Kukolich, emeritus professor of paper science and engineering; Leonard German, emeritus dean of academic services; Emil J. Sokolowski, emeritus professor of marketing; Dr. Betty Taylor, emeritus professor of home economics; and Dr. Charles Van Riper, emeritus distinguished University professor of speech pathology and audiology.

WMU Newpho

HONOR RETIREE$—Pictured above with WMU President John T. Bernhard (standing second from left) are 12 of 19 retiring WMU faculty members who were honored last week at the annual Faculty Recognition Dinner, sponsored by the Faculty Senate’s faculty relations committee. Seated from left are: Mrs. Opal K. Klammer, emeritus assistant professor of women’s physical education; Olive Parkes, emeritus associate professor of music; Lois VanDenberg, emeritus assistant professor of directed teaching; Ada E. Berkey, emeritus associate professor of libraries; Mary M. Wilcox, emeritus assistant professor of libraries; and Dr. Sara R. Swierk, emeritus professor of education. Standing from left are: Dr. Herbert H. Hannan, emeritus professor of mathematics; Dr. Bernhard; Dr. Stephen K. Kukolich, emeritus professor of paper science and engineering; Leonard German, emeritus dean of academic services; Emil J. Sokolowski, emeritus professor of marketing; Dr. Betty Taylor, emeritus professor of home economics; and Dr. Jean L. Lawless, emeritus professor of biology.

An award was given posthumously to Neil L. Schreiber, emeritus professor of education. The award was given to Dr. Arthur J. Manske, emeritus professor of counselling and personnel; Thomas C. Slaughter, emeritus associate professor of men’s physical education; Dr. Sara Jane Stroth, emeritus professor of teacher education; and Dr. Charles Van Riper, emeritus distinguished University professor of speech pathology and audiology.

WMU Newpho

A Center for Continuing Legal Education has been established here at WMU with at least 600 American Bar Association continuing education credits available. The credits will be listed in the next edition of the National Bar Association Continuing Education Credit Handbook. The credits for the single business law and new probate laws—expected to be offered by the end of May—will be available June 1.

Professor of education. Standing from left are: Dr. Herbert H. Hannan, emeritus professor of mathematics; Dr. Bernhard; Dr. Stephen K. Kukolich, emeritus professor of paper science and engineering; Leonard German, emeritus dean of academic services; Emil J. Sokolowski, emeritus professor of marketing; Dr. Betty Taylor, emeritus professor of home economics; and Dr. Charles Van Riper, emeritus distinguished University professor of speech pathology and audiology.

WMU Newpho

A Center for Continuing Legal Education has been established here at WMU with at least 600 American Bar Association continuing education credits available. The credits will be listed in the next edition of the National Bar Association Continuing Education Credit Handbook. The credits for the single business law and new probate laws—expected to be offered by the end of May—will be available June 1.

Professor of education. Standing from left are: Dr. Herbert H. Hannan, emeritus professor of mathematics; Dr. Bernhard; Dr. Stephen K. Kukolich, emeritus professor of paper science and engineering; Leonard German, emeritus dean of academic services; Emil J. Sokolowski, emeritus professor of marketing; Dr. Betty Taylor, emeritus professor of home economics; and Dr. Charles Van Riper, emeritus distinguished University professor of speech pathology and audiology.

WMU Newpho

A Center for Continuing Legal Education has been established here at WMU with at least 600 American Bar Association continuing education credits available. The credits will be listed in the next edition of the National Bar Association Continuing Education Credit Handbook. The credits for the single business law and new probate laws—expected to be offered by the end of May—will be available June 1.

Professor of education. Standing from left are: Dr. Herbert H. Hannan, emeritus professor of mathematics; Dr. Bernhard; Dr. Stephen K. Kukolich, emeritus professor of paper science and engineering; Leonard German, emeritus dean of academic services; Emil J. Sokolowski, emeritus professor of marketing; Dr. Betty Taylor, emeritus professor of home economics; and Dr. Charles Van Riper, emeritus distinguished University professor of speech pathology and audiology.

WMU Newpho

A Center for Continuing Legal Education has been established here at WMU with at least 600 American Bar Association continuing education credits available. The credits will be listed in the next edition of the National Bar Association Continuing Education Credit Handbook. The credits for the single business law and new probate laws—expected to be offered by the end of May—will be available June 1.

Professor of education. Standing from left are: Dr. Herbert H. Hannan, emeritus professor of mathematics; Dr. Bernhard; Dr. Stephen K. Kukolich, emeritus professor of paper science and engineering; Leonard German, emeritus dean of academic services; Emil J. Sokolowski, emeritus professor of marketing; Dr. Betty Taylor, emeritus professor of home economics; and Dr. Charles Van Riper, emeritus distinguished University professor of speech pathology and audiology.

WMU Newpho

A Center for Continuing Legal Education has been established here at WMU with at least 600 American Bar Association continuing education credits available. The credits will be listed in the next edition of the National Bar Association Continuing Education Credit Handbook. The credits for the single business law and new probate laws—expected to be offered by the end of May—will be available June 1.

Professor of education. Standing from left are: Dr. Herbert H. Hannan, emeritus professor of mathematics; Dr. Bernhard; Dr. Stephen K. Kukolich, emeritus professor of paper science and engineering; Leonard German, emeritus dean of academic services; Emil J. Sokolowski, emeritus professor of marketing; Dr. Betty Taylor, emeritus professor of home economics; and Dr. Charles Van Riper, emeritus distinguished University professor of speech pathology and audiology.

WMU Newpho

A Center for Continuing Legal Education has been established here at WMU with at least 600 American Bar Association continuing education credits available. The credits will be listed in the next edition of the National Bar Association Continuing Education Credit Handbook. The credits for the single business law and new probate laws—expected to be offered by the end of May—will be available June 1.

Professor of education. Standing from left are: Dr. Herbert H. Hannan, emeritus professor of mathematics; Dr. Bernhard; Dr. Stephen K. Kukolich, emeritus professor of paper science and engineering; Leonard German, emeritus dean of academic services; Emil J. Sokolowski, emeritus professor of marketing; Dr. Betty Taylor, emeritus professor of home economics; and Dr. Charles Van Riper, emeritus distinguished University professor of speech pathology and audiology.

WMU Newpho

A Center for Continuing Legal Education has been established here at WMU with at least 600 American Bar Association continuing education credits available. The credits will be listed in the next edition of the National Bar Association Continuing Education Credit Handbook. The credits for the single business law and new probate laws—expected to be offered by the end of May—will be available June 1.

Professor of education. Standing from left are: Dr. Herbert H. Hannan, emeritus professor of mathematics; Dr. Bernhard; Dr. Stephen K. Kukolich, emeritus professor of paper science and engineering; Leonard German, emeritus dean of academic services; Emil J. Sokolowski, emeritus professor of marketing; Dr. Betty Taylor, emeritus professor of home economics; and Dr. Charles Van Riper, emeritus distinguished University professor of speech pathology and audiology.

WMU Newpho
Job Openings

Below is a listing of the position openings currently being posted by the University Personnel Department for current WMU employees.

Regular full-time and regular part-time employment positions for these positions should submit a Job Opportunity Program application form to the Personnel Department during the posting period.

Secretary Senior, HP (1004), $760-797, Social Science, Physical Sciences, Openings—posted 4/9-4/15
Secretary I, HD (1004), $760-797, Civil Engineering, Environmental Science, Openings—posted 4/9-4/15
Secretary I, HD (1004), $760-797, Pupil Transportation Services—posted 4/9-4/15

Western Team Visit to KCC Today

A group of faculty and support personnel from WMU will visit Kellogg Community College (KCC) from noon-6 p.m. today, April 15, to give academic advice and register KCC students who plan to transfer to WMU this summer and next fall.

The advising team also will be available to students at the WMU Regional Center at KCC who are taking courses through WMU’s Continuing Education Division or the WMU Colleges of Applied Sciences, the WMU College of Graduate Studies, or WMU’s Continuing Education Division or the WMU College of Graduate Studies.

If you are interested in learning more about how WMU will help you meet your educational goals, visit the KCC offices which are directed by Norman K. Russell, director of student services.

Marketing Cites Top Students

Sandra L. Gide, a Western Michigan University senior from Midland, has been selected “Marketing Student of the Year” by the West Michigan chapter of the American Marketing Association.

An industrial marketing major, she was chosen for the 1976 award on the basis of scholarship and potential in the marketing field. Gide was one of 20 seniors in the curriculum who maintained a 3.2 or better grade point average (4.0 is all A's) during their college careers at WMU and who were cited for academic excellence.

The other ten seniors were Kristo Aleksev, Charles Burchett, James Collini, Thomas Deverman, Karen Dillon, Lynn Enzoons, Aaron Galitz, David Karm, James Kolassa, Maureen Lucier, James Mon- tague, Susanne Nolan, Susan Perpich, Gregory Flomin, Terry Fatman, Nancy Trowbridge, James York, Scott Young and Donald Zwart.

Two graduate students in marketing, Robert ViIlink and Mrs. Nancy Janzons, both of Kalamazoo, maintained a grade point average of 3.5 or better, while working toward a master's degree; they were recognized too for their outstanding academic records.

Violinists To Perform

Violinist-composer Cynthia Lang, a WMU junior from Vicksburg and violinist, an Oberlin junior, will present a free, public recital at 8 p.m. Thursday, April 15, here in Oakland Recital Hall. Both students study under Gerald Fischbach, WMU associate professor of music.

Flute Recital Thursday

Compositions by Bach, Hummel, Hin demith, Quantz and Vivaldi’s “Concerto for Piccolo and Strings” will be performed in a free, public recital by flutist Robert Billington, a Kalamazoo graduate student, at 8 p.m. Thursday, April 22, in Oakland Recital Hall.

Gives AAPA Talk

Dr. Robert I. Sundick, WMU assistant professor of anthropology, will present a paper during the 44th annual meeting of the American Association of Physical Anthropologists in St. Louis, Mo., from Wednesday through Saturday, April 14-17.

A paper entitled “Pseudo-epiphysial Growth Centers in Man.”

New A.A.U.P. Officers—Pictured above are the new officers of WMU’s campus chapter of the American Association of University Professors. From left are: Dr. Joseph Beckwith, associate professor of mathematics, secretary; Ray B. Klein, associate professor of industrial engineering, vice president; Dr. Don R. Lick, professor of mathematics, president; Dr. James A. Jaksa, associate professor of communications arts and sciences, academic chairman-elect; Dr. Arthur E. Falk, associate professor of philosophy, immediate past president; and William C. Morris, assistant professor of accountancy, treasurer. Absent when this picture was taken was Dr. Robert J. Ricci, associate professor of music, executive committee member-at-large.

Appoint Three Chairmen, Counseling Center Director

Three department chairmen—director of the Counseling Center were appointed Friday (March 25) by the WMU Board of Trustees.

Appointed were: L. Col. Ronald L. Kirshman, as professor and chairman of military science; A. Rider, as professor and chairman of occupational therapy; Dr. Zack L. York, as chairman of theatre; and Dr. Charles V. Sparanis, as director of the Counseling Center.

Chairman Kirshman, native of Pennsylvania and a Western graduate, will join Western’s faculty in June. A specialist in supply management and logistics services management, he currently serves as the executive officer of the school of business at Ft. Lee, Va., where he has been since his return from duty in Vietnam in 1973.

Chairman Kirshman was the cadet lieutenant commander of the ROTC unit at Western in the spring of 1967, and he was graduated with a bachelor of business administration degree in 1968. He also received a master of business administration degree here in 1968 while on educational assignment. He was nominated by the Department of the Army to replace L. Col. Samuel W. Focer, Jr., who is leaving Western in June after serving three years here.

Mrs. Eider, currently chief of residential education at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Topeka, Kan., will assume her new job at Western on July 1. She is replacing Dean Tyrendale, who will remain with the department in a full-time teaching position.

She received her bachelor’s degree in occupational therapy from the University of Wisconsin at Madison in 1954, her master’s in special education from the University of Kansas at Lawrence in 1971, and is currently working toward a doctorate there.

Elect Gerould To NAFA Post

Marlon Gerould, WMU director of international student services, recently was elected chairman-elect of the admissions section of the National Association for Foreign Student Affairs (NAFA).

Hercalitean Society

Talk Here April 19

“Why Not Punish the Innocent?” is the topic of a free public lecture to be presented from 3:30-5 p.m. Monday, April 19, here in 1930 Friedmann Hall.

The lecture will be by Joseph Collin, WMU associate professor of philosophy. His talk is being sponsored by the WMU philosophy department’s Heraclitean Society.

Refreshments will be served.

Schedule Student Center Hours

Saturday, April 24
Building and Counter 8 a.m.-2 p.m.
Bookstore 10 a.m.-2 p.m.
Snack Bar—Vending only 8 a.m.-2 p.m.
All other areas closed.

Sunday, April 25
Building and Counter 11 a.m.-2 p.m.
Public Cafeteria 11 a.m.-2 p.m.
All other areas closed.

Monday, April 26 through Friday, April 30
Building and Counter 7:30 a.m.-5 p.m.
Public Cafeteria:
Coffee & Rolls 9 a.m.-11 a.m.
Lunch 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m.
Bookstore 7:30 a.m.-4:45 p.m.
Snack Bar—Vending only 10 a.m.-4:45 p.m.
All other areas closed.

Saturday, May 1
Building and Counter 8 a.m.-3 p.m.
Bookstore 10 a.m.-3 p.m.
All other areas closed.

Sunday, May 2
Open on regular spring schedule.

Medieval Roundtable Meeting Wednesday

The WMU Medieval Institute has announced a meeting of its Roundtable from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Wednesday, April 21, in room 127 of the University Student Center.

Joseph Congrove will speak on the topic “Serving the Medieval English Farming Community in the Agricultural Year 1278-79.” All interested are invited. Bring your lunch or buy one in the cafeteria.

Marketing Cites Top Students

Sandra L. Gide, a Western Michigan University senior from Midland, has been selected “Marketing Student of the Year” by the West Michigan chapter of the American Marketing Association.

An industrial marketing major, she was chosen for the 1976 award on the basis of scholarship and potential in the marketing field. Gide was one of 20 seniors in the curriculum who maintained a 3.2 or better grade point average (4.0 is all A's) during their college careers at WMU and who were cited for academic excellence.

The other 10 seniors are Kristo Aleksev, Charles Burchett, James Collini, Thomas Deverman, Karen Dillon, Lynn Enzoons, Aaron Galitz, David Karm, James Kolassa, Maureen Lucier, James Montague, Susanne Nolan, Susan Perpich, Gregory Flomin, Terry Fatman, Nancy Trowbridge, James York, Scott Young and Donald Zwart.

Two graduate students in marketing, Robert ViIlink and Mrs. Nancy Janzons, both of Kalamazoo, maintained a grade point average of 3.5 or better, while working toward a master's degree; they were recognized too for their outstanding academic records.

Violinists To Perform

Violinist-composer Cynthia Lang, a WMU junior from Vicksburg and violinist, an Oberlin junior, will present a free, public recital at 8 p.m. Thursday, April 15, here in Oakland Recital Hall. Both students study under Gerald Fischbach, WMU associate professor of music.

Flute Recital Thursday

Compositions by Bach, Hummel, Hindemith, Quantz and Vivaldi’s “Concerto for Piccolo and Strings” will be performed in a free, public recital by flutist Robert Billington, a Kalamazoo graduate student, at 8 p.m. Thursday, April 22, in Oakland Recital Hall.

Gives AAPA Talk

Dr. Robert I. Sundick, WMU assistant professor of anthropology, will present a paper during the 44th annual meeting of the American Association of Physical Anthropologists in St. Louis, Mo., from Wednesday through Saturday, April 14-17.

A paper entitled “Pseudo-epiphysial Growth Centers in Man.”

New A.A.U.P. Officers—Pictured above are the new officers of WMU’s campus chapter of the American Association of University Professors. From left are: Dr. Joseph Beckwith, associate professor of mathematics, secretary; Ray B. Klein, associate professor of industrial engineering, vice president; Dr. Don R. Lick, professor of mathematics, president; Dr. James A. Jaksa, associate professor of communications arts and sciences, academic chairman-elect; Dr. Arthur E. Falk, associate professor of philosophy, immediate past president; and William C. Morris, assistant professor of accountancy, treasurer. Absent when this picture was taken was Dr. Robert J. Ricci, associate professor of music, executive committee member-at-large.

(WMU Newsphoto)
Broncos Host 3 Twinbills

Three home doubleheaders at Hyames Field in the space of four days are ahead for Western Michigan's baseball team, including twin-bills against Oakland and Michigan on Tuesday to raise its record of 10-4 from 1952-55.

Tennis Team

Is on Schedule

After winning five of seven meets on a week-long trip, Western Michigan's varsity men's tennis team opens its home schedule with 1:30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday twin-bills against Oakland University and the University of Notre Dame, respectively, at Stowe Stadium.

We're right on schedule for this time of the year in keeping with Coach Jack Vredevelt, whose club is favored for 1976 Mid-American Conference championship honors. The Broncos are presently 5-2, with two of the losses coming by 5-4 counts.

Included in the victories was a 7-2 decision over Ohio University in the only MAC activity thus far and a 5-4 verdict over Vanderbilt, where Vredevelt coached before coming to Kalamazoo in 1974.

Captain Tony Lannerato, the winner of the last two No. 1 MAC singles titles, won all seven singles and all seven doubles matches last week. The Hamtramck senior now has 118 career victories which surpasses Vredevelt's former school record of 184 from 1953-55.

Spring Football

Game Saturday

Spring football practice here at Western winds up at 1:30 p.m. Saturday in Waldo Stadium with the annual Brown and Gold intra-squad game, which is free to the public.

We're dividing the seniors equally and then the freshmen will hold a draft of the underclassmen to fill out the two teams," explained Coach Elliot Uzelac.

Women Nettters

Capture Opener

Coach Chris Hoyles' women's tennis team opens its home schedule this afternoon in a 3:30 dual this afternoon at Ellsworth Courts.

Coach Jack Shaw called "a very pleasing performance" at the Dogwood Relays in Knoxville, Tenn., last weekend, Western Michigan's track team turns its attention to Columbus and the Ohio State Relays this Saturday and Sunday.

A fall slate of Big Ten and Mid-American Conference schools are scheduled to be on hand in what promises to be a highly competitive meet.

The Broncos managed to qualify two individuals for the NCAA championships later this spring, as senior weightman Mike Scherer and sophomore distance runner Tom Farber both turned in outstanding performances.

Scherer, who finished second at the NCAA championships in the decathlon, set a new school record with 6,922 points, just 178 off the NCAA record.

At Ohio State

Broncos Enter Bucket Relays

After what Coach Jack Shaw called "a very pleasing performance" at the Dogwood Relays in Knoxville, Tenn., last weekend, Western Michigan's track team turns its attention to Columbus and the Ohio State Relays this Saturday and Sunday.

A fall slate of Big Ten and Mid-American Conference schools are scheduled to be on hand in what promises to be a highly competitive meet.

The Broncos managed to qualify two individuals for the NCAA championships later this spring, as senior weightman Mike Scherer and sophomore distance runner Tom Farber both turned in outstanding performances.

Scherer, who finished second at the NCAA championships in the decathlon, set a new school record with 6,922 points, just 178 off the NCAA record.

At Ohio State

Broncos Enter Bucket Relays

After what Coach Jack Shaw called "a very pleasing performance" at the Dogwood Relays in Knoxville, Tenn., last weekend, Western Michigan's track team turns its attention to Columbus and the Ohio State Relays this Saturday and Sunday.

A fall slate of Big Ten and Mid-American Conference schools are scheduled to be on hand in what promises to be a highly competitive meet.

The Broncos managed to qualify two individuals for the NCAA championships later this spring, as senior weightman Mike Scherer and sophomore distance runner Tom Farber both turned in outstanding performances.

Scherer, who finished second at the NCAA championships in the decathlon, set a new school record with 6,922 points, just 178 off the NCAA record.

At Ohio State